MAY INVOLVE RAILROAD MEN

Freight Handlers Await Orders Not to Touch Packing House Goods.

NEW PEACE EFFORT

It Is Made by Representatives of Corn Belt Meat Producers' Association.

HAS PROMISE OF SUCCESS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

Chicago, July 28.—After issuing a general order that would have involved all the Chicago railroads in the stock yards strike, Lawrence J. Curran, president of the Freight Handlers' union, tonight reconsidered his action and is now holding his order in abeyance pending a conference tomorrow morning with leaders of the allied trades unions whose members are on strike. It is stated, however, that if President Donnelly of the butchers' union and the other strike leaders express a desire to have the order enforced it will be put into effect at once.

If the freight handlers live up to the order of their president it will work a severe hardship on the packers, as the notification to the men states explicitly that no freight delivered by or billed to the packing companies, whether delivered at the freight houses by teams or in cars, is to be touched by the members of the union. What the railroad officials will do in such an emergency is not known. A meeting of the railroad managers was held tonight to discuss the situation, but if any action was decided upon it was not made public.

New Move for Peace.

At the same time that this step was being taken by the freight handlers' president the first move in an effort to bring about another conference between the packers and the strikers was being made. Henry C. Wallace, the well-known writer and lecturer on agricultural topics of Des Moines, and A. L. Ames of Buckingham, Ia., president of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association, are the sponsors of the new movement for peace. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Ames came to Chicago today and immediately went into conference with the strike leaders.

Mr. Donnelly and his associates were told by Mr. Wallace of the hardship the strike was imposing on the live stock raisers, and they were asked if some concessions besides those offered at the last conference between the packers and the strike leaders could not be suggested in order to bring the conflict to an end. Mr. Donnelly, who was made spokesman for the labor leaders, said he would welcome another conference with the employers, and consented that the effort be made. He also informed Mr. Wallace that the strikers were willing now to concede the time limit in which the men should be reinstated.

Both Sides Claim Victory.

Tonight both sides to the dispute at the stockyards are claiming a victory. According to the packers, all the plants in Chicago are running at nearly the regular capacity. On the other hand, the labor leaders declare the packing industry in this city is completely demoralized and that business is almost at a standstill. That the statement of the labor leaders is not altogether true is evidenced by the fact that the packers are slaughtering thousands of animals.

There were several desertions from the ranks of the strikers today, but this loss was offset by an equal number of strike breakers quitting their new positions.

Maniac After Ward.

Intense excitement was aroused in the crowded Exchange building in the stock yards today by an attempt to kill George T. Ward, a member of the commission firm of Alexander, Ward & Conover.

The would-be slayer had made his way unnoticed into Ward's office in the exchange. Without a word he produced a huge knife and made a lunge at Ward. With a cry of alarm the commission man ran to the end of the office where the furnishings formed somewhat of a barricade. Jumping behind it he faced his assailant.

The fellow whetted his knife on his coat-sleeve and stealthily advanced upon Ward, who jumped over the desks between himself and the door and rushed into the hall. The assailant followed, yelling and flourishing his murderous weapon. He was almost upon the broker when a well directed blow from a policeman sent him sprawling. He proved to be a Lithuanian unable to speak or understand English. He gave the name of Anton Doreskitoz.

Strikers Hold Up Train.

Word reached the union headquarters this afternoon that two train loads of white and colored strike breakers gathered in Buffalo, Cleveland and Cincinnati were stopped by strike sympathizers who flagged the trains between Whiting and Hammond, Ind., and that the strike breakers were driven off and scattered. The trains belonged to the Erie and Lake Shore railroads.

Swift's Radical Action.

Swift & Co. today tossed a bomb into the camp of the sympathetic strikers by posting public notice that they are no longer regarded in the light of employes. The following placard was conspicuously exposed to view near the entrances to Packingtown:

"All help leaving our employ July 25-6 will be paid in full at our Forty-first street market paymaster window beginning Thursday, July 28, at 9 a. m."

The appearance of the notice was greeted with angry exclamations from the crowds that soon gathered to read and discuss the move. The place named for the men to apply for their money is outside the stockyards proper, at Halsted street and Exchange avenue. It was selected as affording the least possibilities of disorder.

NIHILIST BOMB KILLS PLEHVE

Man, Thought a Finn, Blows Up Russian Cabinet Minister.

EXPLOSION TERRIFIC

Coachman Killed, Murderer and Others Wounded and Property Damaged.

CONSTERNATION AT PALACE

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]
(Copyright, 1904, By New York Herald Co.)

St. Petersburg, July 28.—M. von Plehve, minister of the interior, the most influential member of the government and admitted to be the greatest statesman in Russia since the retirement of M. De Witte, was blown to pieces this morning about 10 o'clock while on his way to Peterhof to make a report to the emperor.

His life had long been threatened, consequently elaborate precautions had been taken to protect his movements.

Hurls Bomb With Precision.

M. von Plehve.

The unfortunate minister had reached a point within a minute's drive of the Baltic station, when, just before reaching the bridge over the canal, and in spite of many police, a tall, pale, youngish, bearded individual rushed out of a common hostelry, the Hotel de Varsovie, the lower part of which was a beer house, and with great force and precision, hurled a bomb on the cobblestones exactly under M. von Plehve's carriage. The detonation was terrible and the concussion was such that all the windows of houses were broken within 100 yards. Out of the dense smoke could be seen black objects being hurled upward.

When the smoke cleared nothing remained but wheels, springs, frame, pole and a few fragments of the woodwork of the carriage. The unfortunate minister was literally blown to pieces. His entire face had disappeared. The coachman and likewise the horses were dead.

Murderer Himself Wounded.

Lying on the ground was the assassin, wounded in the stomach by pieces of the bomb. He and an associate who had given a signal on the arrival of the minister were arrested. Five other people were hurt.

When I visited the place of the outrage the carriage had been removed to the side of the street. The actual scene was covered with bits of cloth, pieces of a hat, sections of cushions, bits of lamps and small piles of shattered wood. A crowd of police and military officials were there and a photographer was recording the whole scene.

Gen. Hesse, aid-de-camp to the emperor, who was on duty, rang up the Peterhof palace and told the news to the emperor, who at the time had gone on a visit to his mother. He received the news in absolute silence. At Peterhof consternation reigns. M. De Witte is already talked about as M. von Plehve's successor.

Assassin Thought a Finn.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—The assassination of M. von Plehve is believed to be the outcome of a widespread plot, the existence of which had been suspected for several days. Numerous arrests have already been made, including that of the assassin, a young man who is believed to be a Finn named Ieglo, and who is now in a hospital severely and perhaps fatally injured by the explosion of his own bomb. An accomplice of Ieglo, also apparently a Finn, but whose name is unknown, has been arrested. He had in his possession a bomb which he tried to throw, but he was overpowered by the police just in time to prevent great loss of life. The assassin wore a brown overcoat and a railroad official's cap. He stood on the sidewalk just as Minister von Plehve's carriage was about to cross the canal bridge near the station.

Threw Bomb at Carriage.

The minister was escorted by a number of detectives on bicycles and one of them jostled the assassin, who then rushed into the road and threw the bomb after the carriage. The missile struck the hind wheel and exploded with fearful force, killing or wounding over a score of persons. Minister von Plehve and his coachman were killed outright, and an officer of the guard was fatally injured.

One of the cyclist detectives arrested the assassin, who endeavored to escape though wounded by splinters in the face, arm and abdomen. He made no attempt at resistance, however, when seized by the detective and confessed his crime, but refused to give his name. The police immediately after the explosion arrested a

PORT ARTHUR ATTACK BEGUN

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

London, July 29.—Special dispatches from Shanghai and Yokohama report that a general attack upon Port Arthur has begun.

A report that Gen. Kuropatkin is wounded, which is appearing in various quarters, seems to have originated at Tientsin, but it is not confirmed from any reliable source.

LIAO-YANG, July 27.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Russian retirement from Ta-Tche-Kiao was terribly galling to the rank and file who, after two days' hard fighting, held their positions and believed themselves on the eve of a great victory.

The Russian artillery was better disposed than in any previous fight. The positions were selected having in view the lesson learned at Vafangow. The batteries scintifically supported each other, all of them being in a position to deliver the most effective fire. On the last day's fight, July 24, the Russians fired 4,016 shots, frequently smothered the Japanese fire, and caused them to shift their batteries.

Col. Paschenko, whose battery distinguished itself, had a marvelous escape. He was thrown bodily into the air by the explosion of a melinite shell, but was unharmed and continued to fight. Later he was wounded in the hand while waving a signal to the guns.

At 3 o'clock the extreme left of the Russians was ordered to attack. The movement was anticipated by the Japanese, however, who hurled themselves on the Russian position. The Barnaoulsk regiment bore the brunt of the shock and after a hard fight drove off the Japanese in disorder at the point of the bayonet.

Marquis Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese field forces, is reported to have been personally in command.

Supplies at Hai-Cheng are running low, and the terrific heat and torrential rains are delaying movements.

The Japanese loss at Ta-Tche-Kiao is estimated at 5,000, resulting chiefly from their attempts to take entrenched positions in the face of a heavy artillery fire.

Japanese accounts of the battle at Ta-Tche-Kiao place their losses at 800. The Russians claim to have lost only 600.

ST .PETERSBURG, July 28.—The war is expected to enter on a new phase by a Japanese invasion of the island of Sakhalin, a Russian convict settlement in the North Pacific off the east coast of Asia. The Russians have already taken precautions in view of this move, and troops have been sent to the island. A Red Cross detachment has also been ordered to proceed there. It is generally believed here that startling developments are imminent. All the war correspondents have been ordered to Harbin.

TOKYO, July 28.—The Russians abandoned Ta-Tche-Kiao at noon on Monday, July 25, retiring before the advancing army under Gen. Oku. They applied the torch to Ta-Tche-Kiao and the surrounding towns, and when the Japanese arrived they found the flames were still raging. The Japanese pursuit extended beyond Ta-Tche-Kiao, and the Japanese left wing occupied Yinkow.

TIENTSIN, July 28.—(9 p. m.)—The Tenth and Eleventh corps of the Russian army have arrived at the front and have joined Gen. Kuropatkin's forces. Maj. Takajama of the Japanese army has

BRYAN SAYS ROOSEVELT IS NOT A MAN OF MUSH

Declares President Could Retaliate If Beef Trust Conspired Against Him.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

LINCOLN, NEB., July 28—W. J. Bryan declares in the current number of his Commoner that he is loath to believe that the packers have precipitated a strike for the purpose of defeating Roosevelt, because the president has issued an order to have the beef trust case taken up in the supreme court in October. Mr. Bryan says:

"Of course, this statement will be taken with several grains of salt. Whatever may be said about Mr. Roosevelt, he is not a man of mush. It is not at all likely that he will permit the beef trust magnates to thus organize against him without his resentment; and Mr. Roosevelt as president of the United States holds considerable more power than all the trust magnates of the country put together.

"There remains upon the statute books an unenforced law providing for the criminal prosecution of men who conspire in restraint of trade. No administration that fails to enforce the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law can be said to be waging a serious campaign against the trust system. He can defend himself by appealing to the criminal clause of the anti-trust law. If it be true that the beef trust magnates have conspired to prevent the election of Mr. Roosevelt, then Mr. Roosevelt has it in his power to immediately call every one of these magnates to time. He has it in his power to place every one of these men behind the bars."

Senator Davis will speak here Saturday, August 6, at the laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist church.

WORLD'S FAIR SALARIES CUT.

Reduction of from Five to Twenty Per Cent Is Ordered.

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—(Special.)—An order reducing the salaries of all those employed at the world's fair was issued this afternoon by the board of directors through the executive committee. It is to take effect on August 1 and will affect every employe who receives a salary over $50 a month. Those whose pay is between $50 and $85 will be reduced five per cent. To this class belong stenographers and clerks. Those whose compensation ranges from $85 to $250 will be reduced 10 per cent. To this class belong assistant heads of departments and heads of minor departments.

The department chiefs and directors who are receiving $500 and over will have their pay cut 20 per cent. Secretary Stevens said that 350 persons in the executive department would be affected.

Some of the stenographers went into a corner and had a good cry when informed today they were to be released August 12.

STILL URGE ROOT FOR GOVERNORSHIP

New York Republicans Confident the Former Secretary Will Be Nominated.

LETTER TO ODELL IS PRIVATE

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, July 28.

Members of the Republican state committee from the interior of the state, who attended the conference with Gov. Odell today and heard the contents of Elihu Root's letter regarding his proposed nomination as the Republican candidate for governor, were convinced that Mr. Root would be named as the head of their state ticket this fall.

Although the letter expressed clearly Mr. Root's desire to be allowed to remain in private life, and declared that he was not a candidate for the place, the party leaders, after discussing it from every standpoint, concluded that Mr. Root, as the unanimous choice of his party in this state, would not decline the nomination.

Many of the local leaders, learning that a conference of the state committee was in progress, called at the Fifth Avenue hotel to attend it. Besides the committee, Senator Platt, Nevada N. Stranahan, collector of the port of New York; William L. Ward and William Barnes, Jr., were present. The conference lasted for upward of three hours, and after its adjournment Gov. Odell and Senator Platt dined together. Gov. Odell declined to make public the contents of Mr. Root's letter.

"It is a private communication," he said. "I am to see Mr. Root tomorrow, and if he is willing to have it published I shall do so. I have nothing to say about our talk today, except that certain propositions were discussed and several conclusions were reached."

Among those discussed for gubernatorial honors were Lieut.-Gov. Francis W. Higgins, Erastus O. Knight, former mayor of Buffalo; former Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff, State Senator George R. Malby of Ogdensburg and Gen. Anson G. McCook. The latter has a civil war record and was for many years secretary of the United States senate, but for the past 10 years has not been prominently identified with politics, although a delegate to national conventions.

SHEEHAN WILL BOSS THE JOB

New Yorker to Be Real Democratic National Chairman.

AFRAID OF TAGGART

Hoosier May "Kitty Out" at His Gambling Tables for Campaign Funds.

BELMONTS IN BACKGROUND

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

New York, July 28.—Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, will not be given a free hand in the management of the Democratic campaign for the presidency. While he will have the title of national chairman, William F. Sheehan, of New York, will be boss.

It was the general impression that when the national committee decided to have an executive committee that Taggart would be made the chairman. The Parker managers propose that this place shall go to Sheehan and that he shall have full charge of the campaign. That Taggart was not wanted as national chairman has been apparent from the first, but for the sake of harmony, he had to be elected. There was a strong western following for him and rather than provoke an open clash in the committee, the eastern members decided to make his election unanimous.

Parker has never wanted Taggart, and when the national convention adopted a resolution just before its adjournment that the chairmanship should go over until a later date it was supposed that Taggart could be sidetracked without difficulty. The same morning he summoned a number of committeemen to a meeting in the Jefferson hotel and endeavored to have himself elected. When he found that he did not have the votes there was an adjournment until afternoon. The anti-Taggart men then succeeded in having the matter delayed until Tuesday of this week. Since the election of Taggart much comment has been caused by the fact that neither Parker nor Davis has been willing to say for publication that he is satisfied with the selection of the Indiana man.

The present plan of Parker, Hill and Belmont is to have Sheehan made chairman of the executive committee. This will put him in command of the campaign and he will outline the work which Taggart will be allowed to do.

New York state is to be placed in the hands of someone who will be agreeable to Leader Murphy of Tammany. Murphy is still angry with Hill and Sheehan and he could be induced to visit Parker only after he had been assured that the judge was ready to treat with him direct. His call at "Rosemount" was for the purpose of learning what he could expect in case of the success of the Democratic ticket this fall.

Sheehan, as chairman of the executive committee, will be in charge of the eastern headquarters. It may be that Taggart will be allowed to open headquarters in Indianapolis. The treasurer of the national committee will be a New York banker, and he will not be August Belmont. Effort is now being made to keep the Belmont crowd in the background in the hope that the people can be fooled into the belief that the party is not dealing with certain Wall street interests.

Since Taggart has admitted that he is the head of the concern at French Lick Springs, where gambling is permitted on a large scale, it is probable that the party managers will allow Taggart to "kitty out" for the campaign fund.

CITY EMPLOYE DROWNED IN SEWER DURING STORM

ELIZABETH, N. J., July 28.—(Special.)—A severe rain and electrical storm that swept over Elizabeth this afternoon was responsible for the death of Patrick Mackessy, an old employe of the Elizabeth street cleaning department. He descended into a sewer basin to clean it and the heavy rush of water caused by the storm caught him before he could be rescued. He was swept into the big sewer and drowned.

CANAL ZONE NOT PART OF THE UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(Special.)—By an official declaration of R. J. Tracewell, comptroller of the treasury, the isthmian canal zone is not a part of the United States. Other important decisions by Mr. Tracewell are that work on the canal must be done by contract, the employes cannot assign their pay and the "local" revenues are to be administered by the president and the commission.

PRESIDENT ATE WATERMELON; CAMERA FIENDS WERE FOILED

The Curtain Dropped Just in Time to Prevent Mr. Roosevelt Being Photographed as He Dined in His Private Car.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—To the already popular G. O. P. elephant and other familiar symbols of stalwart Republicanism, there has been added a new campaign figure. It is the ripe and luscious watermelon. Strenuous in every field of endeavor, President Roosevelt, who passed through this city today on his way to Washington, evinced his fondness for the delicious melon in such a pronounced manner as to immortalize that species of fruit for evermore.

When the New York and Washington express arrived at the West Philadelphia station of the Pennsylvania railroad from Oyster Bay the president was at lunch in his private car Rover. He had evidently enjoyed a hearty meal, and when the crowd of newspaper men and camera fiends reached the car the president was in the act of receiving a generous slice of rich, red watermelon from his chef. He was making terrific inroads upon the juicy fruit.

A number of photographers and reporters spied the chief executive and the camera men set to work to snap the president making away with a slice of the melon. They would have succeeded, however, had not the ever alert Secretary Loeb discovered their design. He pulled down the curtain. The cameras clicked, but caught nothing. The president was saved.

WILL PRODUCE SEAMLESS TUBE

New Steel Company to Erect Big Plant at Monessen.

IS BACKED LOCALLY

Machinery to Manufacture by Briede's Process Is Being Made in Germany.

PLANS ARE KEPT QUIET AS YET

Plans for an entirely new steel company with offices in this city and works at Monessen have reached the stage where there seems to be no further doubt as to the project being carried out. The company is known as the Seamless Tube Company of America. It is controlled by the same interests which control the Pittsburgh Steel Company of this city and Monessen. The president of the company is John H. Bindley, head of the Bindley Hardware Company, and Wallace H. Rowe, president of the Pittsburgh Steel Company is also interested.

The company proposes to manufacture seamless tubing. The process to be used is known as Briede's and is the production of a German inventor of that name. The machinery to be used in the process is now being manufactured at the shops at Dusseldorf, Germany.

Offices Opened Here.

The company has plans for the erection upon a 10-acre site at Monessen of a building 600x100 feet in which the start of the business will be made. The site provides also for future extensions. Three other such buildings can be erected there when the growth of the business warrants it.

The plans of the company are being kept quiet as yet. Offices have been opened on the fifth floor of the Frick building, where preliminary business is being transacted, but the details of organization and capitalization are still being kept from the public. As the company is asking no credit, it does not need to tell who is behind it, as one officer said last evening.

It is expected that January 1 will see the start of operations at the new plant. For the beginning boiler tubes will be almost the exclusive product. Other kinds of tube will be made later.

Dream of Many Steel Men.

Genuinely seamless tubing has been the dream of many steel men for many years. Various processes have been devised in this country and abroad, especially in France, and some of them have been successes to a greater or less extent. Against them the charge has been made that they increase the cost of production so far beyond that of making lap weld tubing that there can be no competition in the market with the lap weld product.

The process of the seamless tubing is a complicated one. Essentially, however, it consists of boring a hole through the center of a hot billet. In this process it has been found difficult to secure accuracy of gauge and uniformity of strength. Various devices have been tried to overcome these difficulties, and the success of the plans has been the subject of debate.

SOLDIER IS MURDERED AND COMRADE ARRESTED

Private in the United States Army Is Found Stabbed to Death.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Only a few hours after the discovery in West Chester creek of the body of Joseph T. Hammett, a private of the Eightieth regiment, U. S. A., stationed at Ft. Schuyler, Corp. Richard M. Spencer of the same company was placed under arrest this afternoon. From several stab wounds on the body it seems indisputable that Hammett was murdered.

Hammett, the officers said, was a son of a wealthy planter of Nashville, Tenn. Spencer is said to be the son of a wealthy Kentuckian. The two men had been much in each other's company during their two years' service in the regiment.

Spencer was detained at the coroner's office, awaiting action by the coroner. He was not charged with the murder, but was merely arrested in connection with the case. He said that on Monday night he and Hammett were drinking together in a saloon at West Chester. Finally, he said, Hammett left the room accompanied by a woman. Spencer said he drank a few minutes longer and then returned to the fort.

Spencer emphatically asserted his innocence of the crime.

American Consul Gets Report on Assassinations in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(Special.)—Henry Kaiser, American consul at Mazatlan, Mexico, advises the state department today that he had received a full report from the governor of the province of the killing of Clarence Way and Ed Lattimer at Aguas Caliente. The official report he submitted to the department, and it verified in every particular the story of the murder which was received from Mr. Kaiser last Tuesday. There appears to be no extenuating circumstances whatever under which Alcalde Torres and his two commissioners who shot the Americans can escape trial and conviction for unwarranted murder.

Consul Kaiser has been ordered to continue a vigorous investigation and to procure all the facts necessary for the prosecution of the murderers. This prosecution will undoubtedly be demanded by this government. A man named Gibson has been appointed by Mr. Kaiser to thoroughly investigate the affair.

Washington Presents Note Bearing on Seizure of Arabia and Cargo.

STEAMER KOREA IS SAFE

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

Tokyo, July 29, 7 a. m.—The steamship Korea has arrived safe.

The foregoing report disposes of a dispatch received at San Francisco yesterday saying that the Korea had been seized. In addition to her cargo the vessel carried nearly $1,000,000 in treasure. She sailed from San Francisco July 12.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—Foreign Minister Lamsdorff late tonight received the protest of the British government, through Sir Charles Hardinge, the British ambassador, regarding the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander. The protest declares the act to be contrary to the law of nations and asks that instructions be sent to the Russian commanders to prevent its recurrence.

Count Lamsdorff has not yet replied to the protest, but it is believed that he has already sent assurances to the British government through the Russian ambassador at London, Count Benckendorff, that the necessary steps in this direction have been taken.

The United States yesterday made an official inquiry of Russia concerning the British steamer Ardova, seized by the volunteer fleet vessel Smolensk in the Red sea, which had American government stores on board. The Ardova had already been released when the inquiry was made.

Today the foreign office received a communication from the United States asking whether the Arabia, a German ship chartered by an American company, had been released, and adding that according to information in possession of the United States government the Arabia's cargo was bound for Hongkong. While the communication did not take the form of a protest, it is believed that unless the Arabia is released a formal protest will be lodged. The government could only reply that it was completely without information, the Arabia not yet having arrived at Vladivostok, where it was reported she had been sent in charge of a prize crew.

Communication Is Mild.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The state department has addressed itself to the Russian government, through Spencer Eddy, the American charge at St. Petersburgh, on the subject of the seizure of the cargo of the Arabia by the Vladivostok squadron. The Hamburg-American company, the owners of the ship, undoubtedly will appeal to the German government to secure the release of its ship and compensation for the delay in her cruise and other items of loss. The state department officials decline absolutely to make any public statement respecting the character of the representations made to the Russian government regarding the seizure. It is deemed highly desirable to take conservative action, and above all to avoid increasing the irritation aroused in shipping circles over the recent seizures and sinking of vessels.

Mr. Eddy, it is understood, has been instructed to make some very moderate representations to the Russian government, and these may be strengthened later on if the development of additional facts seem to make this expedient. As the American flour aboard the Arabia was not carried under the American flag, but was on a German boat, the case involves no such question of discourtesy toward national colors as the British claim was exhibited toward the Knight Commander, upon which the British base their demand for an apology and a salute to the British ensign.

Acute Stage Has Passed.

LONDON, July 28.—The tension in the Russo-British relations has been relaxed, and no rupture is now probable. Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, informed Lord Lansdowne this morning that if Russia had committed a wrong she was ready and willing to make full reparation, but before any action could be taken in the Knight Commander case the Russian government must have an opportunity of receiving the report of the commander of the Vladivostok squadron. Lord Lansdowne promised to wait a reasonable time.

In the house of commons this afternoon Premier Balfour said the acute stage of the Red sea incidents has passed, and that the Russian volunteer fleet vessels would be withdrawn. He laid down the British view that no belligerent warship could issue from the Black sea, and that the volunteer fleet vessels in issuing therefrom, if they took belligerent action, either had no right to issue or no right to take such action.

The strongest possible exception had been taken in the seizure of the Malacca on the above ground, the premier added. The Russian government had met the British contention in regard to this particular incident. As to the Knight Commander case, the government had earnestly protested that the sinking of that vessel was contrary to the accustomed practice of nations.

Lord Lansdowne's Statement.

Lord Lansdowne, in the house of lords, practically repeated verbatim the statement previously made by Mr. Balfour in the house of commons. He declared that the examination of the cargo of the Knight Commander "appears to have been perfunctory," and said, "under these circumstances the government could come to no other conclusion than that a very serious breach of international law had been committed by the captors of the Knight Commander. Under no hypothesis can the government conceive that a neutral ship could be sunk on the mere fiat of a cruiser's commanding officer who assumed that the cargo of the vessel included articles which were contraband. Therefore, I do not suppose that the Russian government will hesitate to disavow the conduct of the persons by whom this outrage, for it was an outrage if the facts are as stated, was committed."

Lord Lansdowne in conclusion said: "We considered it to be our duty to lodge a strong protest against the conduct of these Russian ships. We accompanied the protest with a request that orders be issued to prevent a recurrence of similar incidents, and we demanded the release of the Knight Commander's British crew, which was taken to Vladivostok.

The owners of the British steamer Calchas, reported to have been captured by the Russians, have received a telegram from their agent at Yokohama saying the Calchas' seizure is very doubtful.

PLEHVE CHANGED INTO OPPRESSOR

Former Ambassador White Surprised at His Role at Kishineff and in Finland.

RUSSIA'S STATE DESPERATE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 28.—Former ambassador to Germany, Andrew D. White, was seen t the residence of his brother, Horace K. White, in James street, just before he left for Ithaca this afternoon. When asked if he had the acquaintance of M. Plehve, Russian minister of the interior, Mr. White answered that he knew him well, having met him frequently in the course of official business during his stay at St. Petersburg in 1892, 1893 and 1894 as minister of the United States to Russia. In discussing Plehve and the assassination Mr. White said:

At that time M. Plehve had not arrived at the position of full minister of the interior, but was the first assistant minister in that department, and in that capacity took up various American matters, especially the dealings of the Russian government with some of the great American insurance companies.

Instructed to Discuss Matter.

The Russian government had made the companies a great deal of trouble and I was instructed from Washington to discuss the matter. General Bachellor, now judge of the international court in Egypt, very ably representing the companies. I think both Gen. Bachellor and myself found M. Plehve very agreeable and apparently, as far as his government allowed him, reasonable. I also met him socially at various times and found him agreeable and interesting.

I was therefore, greatly surprised at learning when he was promoted to the first place, that his whole character seemed to change. His part in the horrible massacre and plunder of the Jews, men, women and children, at Kishineff, caused him to be regarded with abhorrence by the whole world. Even more frightful has been his connection with the destruction of the liberties of Finland. In my mind that is the most wicked thing in the history of the last two centuries.

Changed Finland's Character.

This is no time to go into it further than to say it has turned the best, the most civilized, the most educated and most loyal province in the empire into a land in which the opposite of all these characteristics is more highly developed than in any other part of the empire. Other things done by him were also calculated to bring most bitter hatred against him.

He attempted to help his cause by a defense of his conduct toward Finland, which was published in an American magazine. But it certainly must have failed to convince any thinking man at all aware of the circumstances.

During two summers I lived mainly in Finland, coming frequently to St. Petersburg, and the transition in passing from the cultivation and civilization of Finland to the atmosphere of Russia was the most depressing I have ever known.

I do not wonder at his assassination, although I deeply lament it. Among other reasons for this regret, it will doubtless be made a pretext for new oppression and new cruelties toward the Jewish population and toward the Finlanders. Assassination always defeats its purpose and this will be, I fear, no exception to the rule.

Probably Dictated by Clique.

I can only account for M. Plehve's atrocious, reactionary and despotic conduct since he came to the position of minister on the theory that he found that the clique in control of the winter palace, men and women, who seem to have brought the present emperor into subjection to them, obliged M. Plehve as a condition of his tenure of office to do their will.

His ambition doubtless led him to adopt their racial and religious hatred, as well as their detestation of anything like constitutional government.

Mr. White concluded by saying that, having lived twice officially in Russia, he had observed closely the condition of the empire and that, though he saw the most wretched condition of things during the Crimean war, the situation at present is the most desperately bad in Russian history and that it has been brought on by an exercise of despotism more unreasonable, cruel and shortsighted than anything in recent human history, outside of the Turkish empire.

POPE EXPRESSES HORROR OVER DEATH OF PLEHVE

President Loubet Sends Condolence—Berlin Papers Say His Policy Was Harsh.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ROME, July 28.—The murder of M. Von Plehve created a great sensation among the authorities and people here. The first telegram announcing the assassination reached the vatican. It came from Paris and was addressed to Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state. The cardinal took it immediately to the pope, who, raising his hands above his head, exclaimed: "How awful! Let us hope that worse events than war are not impending in Russia."

BERLIN, July 28.—The evening newspapers print lengthy editorials on the assassination of M. Von Plehve, the Russian minister of the interior. Singular unanimity characterizes the estimates they make of the deceased minister. Even the intensely pro-Russian Kreuz Zeitung pronounces him to have been harsh and ruthless in carrying out his policy.

PARIS, July 28.—The assassination of M. Von Plehve caused considerable excitement here. The newspapers issued special editions giving details of the crime. President Loubet telegraphed to Emperor Nicholas expressing his condolences and the horror of the French nation at the crime, and Foreign Minister Delcasse immediately drove to the Russian embassy and had a long conference with the charge d'affaires.

COUNT CASSINI SADDENED.

Russian Ambassador Held in High Esteem Murdered Cabinet Minister.

BAR HARBOR, ME., July 28.—(Special.)—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, who is passing the summer here, said the news of the assassination of M. Von Plehve had been received by him with much sadness, both on account of national reasons and for those of a personal nature as well.

"I had been long acquainted with M. Von Plehve," said Count Cassini, "and held him in the highest estimation as a man and as an official. He was of the most strict integrity and a very able man. As an official he was energetic, capable and always true to his trust. It is most unfortunate that this terrible crime has been committed and that so good a man has been slain, but the political significance is small. It does not indicate the feeling of any considerable portion of the Russian people and this will be seen. The murder will tend to knit the people and the government even more closely together and the Russian people are the most patriotic in the world."

TWO VIEWS TAKEN.

Local Russians Both Regret and Rejoice at Von Plehve's Death.

The report of the assassination of Minister Von Plehve in St. Petersburg was received in the Russian colony here with mingled feelings. The Rev. John Nedzelnitsky, pastor of Archangel St. Michael's Russian church, said:

"It was a blow to the government. He was a powerful man and an important adviser to the czar. It will be difficult to replace him. He was progressive, a student, and, above all, a diplomat."

George I. Grunsinsky, a prominent Russian, employed in a local bank, said: "Von Plehve was the man held responsible for the suppression of Finland, the Kishinef massacres and the persecution of the Socialists and Liberals. But for him, and others of his class, Russia would be a temperate and delightful land. There would be freedom of speech, freedom of press and more real patriotism. I believe the czar would be a tolerant and liberal monarch were it not for advisers such as Plehve was. It is on account of this man and his tyrannical policy that so many of the peasant class have migrated to America."

been appointed administrator of Niuchwang.

NIUCHWANG, July 28.—United States Consul General Miller is to continue in office under the Japanese administration. He watched the Japanese interests here during the Russian administration, and his conduct of the affairs which came to his hands since the beginning of the war won for him the highest praise. The question of keeping the French flag over the administration building is being considered.

Major Takayama has issued notification to the population that Niuchwang and Yingkow are now under Japanese control, and that lives and property will be protected. Mr. Gilchrist, an American, who was deputy commissioner of customs here under the Russian administration, has been appointed commissioner of customs.

CHEFOO, July 28.—Chinese refugees who left Port Arthur 36 hours ago say that three large warships have left that port. The Chinese cannot give the name or the type of the vessels. It is impossible to confirm this story from foreigners.

A Russian army officer who is a trusted agent of General Stoessel, the commander of the forces at Port Arthur, arrived here yesterday for the purpose of purchasing steel for use in the dock yard at Port Arthur. The officer declares that the Russians are sanguine that Port Arthur will never fall.

LONDON, July 29.—The Daily Mail's Niuchwang correspondent, in a long description of the battle of Ta-Tche-Kiao, which mainly repeats the details already known, says it was not until the Japanese attacked all along their front that the Russians retreated. The Japanese artillery was immeasurably superior and their shrapnel frightfully destructive. Russian gunners went down by hundreds, but their guns were fought with magnificent bravery.

CHASED AS ROBBERS.

Two Men Arrested for Striking Bloomfield Street Car Conductor.

Frank Hart of 2831 Liberty avenue and Frank Crawley of 1228 Penn avenue, were arrested last night after a chase through the downtown streets by Special Officer John Callen, John Morgan and 200 men and boys for beating M. Cohen, a conductor on a Bloomfield street car. The men were first thought to have held up the street car in highwayman fashion, but it was learned that they were engaged in a fight with the conductor.

Just as the car reached Fifth avenue and Grant street, Conductor Cohen asked the men for their fares. They refused to pay him. The car was stopped and when the conductor ordered them off they struck him in the face. The conductor returned the blow and the fight created some excitement.

A BACKWOODS TRAGEDY.

Suspects Under Arrest for Murder of a Homesteader and Daughter.

BEMIDJI, MINN., July 28.—Sheriff Bailey returned from Quiring today with Paul Fournier and Eugene Calwell, homesteaders, who are in jail under the charge of murdering O. N. Dahl and his daughter. The body of Dahl has been found, but that of the daughter is supposed to be in what is known as the "Moose Wallow," a swamp near Quiring.

Dahl and his daughter disappeared last spring from their cabin on their homestead claim, which they had taken up near Quiring. Dahl was supposed to have a large sum of money in his cabin, and it is thought by other settlers that the motive of the murder was robbery.

WAITING TO SEE WHAT REPUBLICANS WILL DO

New York Democrats Unable to Decide Upon a Candidate for Governor.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ESOPUS, N. Y., July 28.—Mayor George B. McClellan of New York is expected at Rosemount tomorrow to pay his first visit to Judge Parker. In view of denials that the judge will take a hand in the selection of a state ticket, it is uncertain what part the conference tomorrow will play in Mayor McClellan's gubernatorial boom. Judge Parker is said to favor McClellan, but will not declare himself in favor of any candidate for the governorship.

While it is stated that Judge Parker yesterday carefully avoided the governorship nomination as a topic of conversation, the possibilities and the probabilities were gone into exhaustively by some of the visitors at Rosemount. The McClellan boom brought the governorship to the fore, and the question of whether Tammany would or would not advance Mayor McClellan as a candidate was thoroughly canvassed.

Charles F. Murphy was quoted as saying that the governorship must be left open, and now it is said his reason was to first learn positively what the Republicans intend to do. If former Secretary of War Elihu Root is to be nominated as the Republican candidate, Mr. Murphy is said to be opposed to McClellan as the Democratic nominee. Several Democrats argued that if Mr. Root is named, District Attorney Jerome would be the strongest man to oppose him.

Judge Parker took in a boy traveler last night, gave him a good supper, bed and breakfast. The boy was Harry F. Cahill, 14 years old, of Montclair, N. J., who is walking from his home to Hunter, N. Y., where he has relatives. He made the journey to Esopus in three days and spent the last of his money at Marlborough, N. Y. Judge Parker commended the boy for his perseverance.

BRINGS MANNING BACK.

County Detective Robinson Left for New Jersey to Arrest Anti-Saloon Detective.

County Detective Robinson left the court room during the judge's charge in the Schopfer-Cupps murder case to catch a train for Hudson, N. J., where he expects to take into custody W. J. Manning, an anti-saloon league detective, charged by Christ Knoll, a McKeesport saloonkeeper, with perjury.

Detective Robinson carried with him requisition papers from Harrisburg giving him authority to bring Manning to Pittsburgh for trial. Manning was on bail here, but failed to appear when the case was called. He was arrested in Hudson.

LOS ANGELES ELKS WIN LONG-DISTANCE CONTEST

CINCINNATI, July 28.—At the reunion of the Elks here last week the awarding committee was unable to decide whether the prize of $500 for the greatest mileage belonged to the Manila lodge or to the Los Angeles lodge, and the matter was referred to the general local committee on arrangement for a decision. That committee today awarded the money to the Los Angeles lodge on the ground that all other marching members had come to Cincinnati especially for the purpose. The Manila lodge has the greatest aggregate mileage, but it was held that they had several members in line who were in this country for other purposes than attending the Elks' reunion.

Russian Police Allege Big Plot.

LONDON, July 29.—Dispatches to the Daily Telegraph from Helsingfors, Finland, and Copenhagen, Denmark, say that the Russian police claim to have discovered a widespread conspiracy, having its center at St. Petersburg, and the alleged object of which was to take the life of the minister of the interior and all leading Russians. Numerous arrests, the dispatch says, have already been made in Finland.

RYAN, THE PLUNGER, TAKEN TO ST. LOUIS

To Answer a Charge of Grand Larceny Involving About $800,000.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—In spite of efforts by his friends and his counsel to keep him here, John J. Ryan, race track "plunger," who is wanted in St. Louis to answer a charge of grand larceny involving about $800,000, was taken to the western city tonight.

Assistant Circuit Attorney Fickeissen and Detective Killian of St. Louis had come to New York to arrange the details of Ryan's arrest and extradition. Ryan's attorneys prepared a writ of habeas corpus, which caused sufficient delay to permit Ryan to attend the auction sale of his thoroughbreds at Brighton Beach today.

Hearing that habeas corpus proceedings were to be pushed, Mr. Fickeissen procured the services of two private detectives and went to Bensonhurst to find Ryan. At his home there it was first said that Ryan was absent, but presently he appeared and consented to go with his captors.

Ryan expressed a wish to go to St. Louis by way of the New York Central, but, fearing legal proceedings might yet interpose an obstacle to their departure so long as he remained in this state, Mr. Fickeissen insisted on taking the Pennsylvania route.

ALEXANDER DODDS.

PENNSYLVANIA IS ASKED TO PUT ON EXTRA FIREMEN

HARRISBURG, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—Railroad men representing the Brotherhood of Firemen and Trainmen met here today and decided to request the Pennsylvania railroad to put extra firemen on the middle division. The recent reduction order of the company did away with the train hand who assisted the fireman, and it is claimed that the latter cannot do all the work between Harrisburg and Altoona, hence the request for a reinstatement of some of the trainmen as extra firemen. A committee will take the request to Philadelphia.

PRESIDENT BACK IN WASHINGTON

Cabinet Meeting Today Expected to Discuss Seizure of Ships in Far East.

TRAINMEN CONGRATULATED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 10, Postal Building,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28.

President Roosevelt returned to Washington this evening to spend three weeks looking after official business. Mrs. Roosevelt accompanied him.

Coincidentally with his arrival cabinet officers are returning, and tomorrow a cabinet meeting will be held at which important matters will be discussed, the chief feature probably being the recent seizure of ships with American cargoes by Russian fleets.

The president was accompanied on his trip from New York by Regis H. Post, auditor for the territorial government of Porto Rico. Mr. Post was visiting his family on Long Island and comes to Washington on departmental business. At the depot the only official to meet the party was Col. Bromwell, the superintendent of public buildings and grounds and president's aid.

Secretaries Hay and Hichcock are out of the city, but the cabinet meeting will be held without them. While consideration will be given to the eastern situation it is not probable that any definite action will be taken in Secretary Hay's absence. Postmaster General Payne returned to the city tonight from his visit in eastern states. Secretaries Shaw, Metcalf and Wilson have been in the city all the week. Secretaries Taft and Morton are expected to arrive in Washington tomorrow morning.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt were accompanied by their sons, Theodore, Jr., Kermit and George and Philip Roosevelt, sons of Emlen Roosevelt, and Alexander Russell, as far as Jersey City, where the boys took a train for St. Louis for a week's visit to the exposition.

At Long Island City the president was met by E. St. John Gaffney and James Jeffrey Roche, editor of the Boston Pilot, with whom he chatted while waiting for a carriage. The president, Mrs. Roosevelt and the children boarded a Thirty-fourth street ferryboat and on arrival in New York the party was escorted across town by a guard of mounted police and took the Twenty-third street ferry for Jersey City, where a special was in waiting to bring them to the capital.

The president's special car was left outside the train shed when the train arrived here and he headed the party, with Mrs. Roosevelt by his side, in walking the entire length. When he arrived at the engines both engineers were lined up with their right hands carefully wiped waiting for the customary salute. The president shook each man's hand with both of his and each got a word of congratulation on the trip.

It is the president's intention to return to Sagamore Hill August 20.

THINK STRIKERS MAY WIN.

Butchers Say Packers Are in a Bad Way—Wholesale Prices Shaded.

The opinion was commonly expressed among butchers here yesterday that employes of the western packing houses will win their strike. It is stated that the western packers are already in a bad way and that none of the branches are at all supplied with meat. One butcher said yesterday that he does not know of a single car of fresh western meat arriving here so far this week. This situation will likely operate hardest against the packers, who have branch men and supplies, such as ice, under contract by the year.

The Pittsburgh Provision Company and local supply houses are furnishing retailers here with all the meat they are buying. These local companies, it is said, are shading prices over quotations of one week ago, but not sufficiently to warrant any change in a retail way. Hogs are going up gradually, the advance yesterday amounting to 10 cents a hundred at Herrs Island yards, making a total advance of 10 cents a hundred since Monday. Other live stock markets have been unsettled all week on account of reports about the probability of a sympathetic strike at the Jersey City yards.

UNION OF TWO GREAT ROADS

Wasbash and Missouri Pacific Are to Be Made One System.

RAMSEY SLATED FOR PRESIDENT

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 28.—Upon excellent authority in the railroad world, it was learned here today that plans are being perfected for the merging of the Missouri Pacific and Wabash railroad systems as soon as George J. Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific, shall have returned from Europe. The plan embraces making Joseph Ramsey, Jr., the present head of the Wabash, president of both lines.

With the appointment of Mr. Ramsey as chief executor of the Missouri Pacific, the question who would succeed Russell Harding, vice president and general manager, who recently resigned to accept an executive position with the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, will be disposed of. It is an open secret among well-informed railroad men that Mr. Gould, for a long time, has had under consideration the feasibility of consolidating his two leading railroads. With this end in view, it is believed he brought out the consolidation of his lines east of Pittsburgh, and it is known that counsel are now at work on a scheme for the merging of all the Gould lines west of Pittsburgh.

The St. Louis capitalist who is authority for the statement that the Wabash and the Missouri Pacific are to be made one system, stated that it was useless to expect confirmation of the story from any high official of either line while Mr. Gould is absent in Europe, but he made it very emphatic that the plan had been decided upon, and that nothing short of legal obstacles would intervene to prevent its execution.

The resignation of Mr. Harding and the necessity of having a first-class operating official is said to have in a sense forced the issue. Mr. Gould, as president of the Missouri Pacific, has not the time to give the system which he desires, and in Mr. Ramsey it is believed he has picked the most eligible man to take charge of the combined properties. In St. Louis Mr. Ramsey would be in the ideal geographical position for operating both immense systems. He is familiar with all departments of railroading, and could attend to any department outside of operation. He has recently completed the Pittsburgh extension of the Wabash which was built at great cost, and which it is believed will prove profitable to the system.

DIRECTOR CLARK TO QUIT HIS JOB?

Men Claiming Friendship for Him Say He Is to Deal With Republicans.

HE DENIES THE STORY

Men claiming friendship for Director Clark were yesterday peddling a story around town concerning his political future. According to the tale, he is to resign as head of the department of charities and accept the chairmanship of the Citizens city committee. In this position his chief work would be to make the best deal possible with the Republican organization. The story is denied by Director Clark.

Mayor Hays has said that the chairman of the committee should be man not holding a city office. In order to make Mr. Clark fit the requirements the authors of the story say that he is ready to resign his position. They do not give the directorship to anyone, but would probably hand it to John A. Staley as salve for his wounded feelings because of failure to procure the chairmanship. They select Director Clark because of his known desire to have the Citizens enter the primaries. According to the program, he is to make the best showing possible in the primaries, and then agree to surrender the entire city administration and everything to which the Citizens have a title in return for anything he can get. The tale does not sound good.

Delinquent Tax Collector Fulton was asked yesterday if he intended to become a candidate for mayor. He replied that if he did go after the office he would make his fight in the Republican primaries.

Robert Ostermaier has been appointed a state bank examiner by Banking Commissioner McAfee. He assumes his duties some time in August. The position will not necessitate his resigning as secretary of the Republican city committee.

There was a secret meeting last night of Citizens leaders from the Thirty-second congressional district in Felkner's hall, South Thirteenth and Sarah streets. Joseph Vitchestain was temporary chairman and Robert Heath temporary secretary. L. C. Hahn, W. W. Willett and D. B. Thomas were named on a committee that has power to call future meetings. Yesterday afternoon Magistrate Vitchestain was asked if it was the intention to discuss what ticket would be supported this fall. He intimated that the conference had something to do with the congressional election. It may be that the Citizens of the district are hopeful of inducing Congressman Brown to become an independent candidate against Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, the Republican nominee.

BRIGHT YOUNG PIANIST PROBABLY FATALLY HURT

Was Thrown from Moving Traction Car at Forbes and Pride Streets.

Herbert Smith, aged 17, one of the most popular professional piano players in this city, was probably fatally injured late yesterday afternoon by being thrown from an open traction car at Forbes and Pride streets. In falling the boy struck the curbstone, and the left side of his head, above the eye, was crushed in, his left jaw was broken, seven teeth were knocked out and his left forearm and hand were badly bruised. He was carried in an unconscious condition to the home of a friend, James Young, at 1512 Forbes street. After being attended by a physician he was removed to his home, 54 Amanda street, Mt. Oliver, in a carriage by his father, Joseph Smith.

Young Smith has played with the Nixon theater orchestra and for some time has been practicing at Mr. Young's home. Yesterday evening Mr. Young accompanied his young friend to the corner, and when car No. 1937 came along the young man jumped on the running board of the trailer. The car stopped so suddenly that Smith's hold was broken and he fell off. The car was crowded and when Smith fell the passengers pulled the bells to stop the car, but it ran for two blocks before coming to a stop. The accident was witnessed by over 100 people.

Mr. Young secured assistance and carried the boy to his home. He unlocked the front door and left the key in the lock till the boy was placed in the kitchen. When he returned for the key he discovered that during the excitement it had been stolen. Mr. Young's family is away from home, and he believes that this was known to the person who took the key. A policeman was instructed to keep a watch on the house last night, as it is feared an attempt will be made to rob the place.

The accident to the youth is the second to occur in the family within two years. An older brother was almost instantly killed two years ago by a traction car in this city. Three weeks ago a daughter of the family died of pneumonia. The Smith family is well known in musical circles, as each member plays an instrument.

OLD BOARD MEETS.

Former Supervisors of Allegheny City Poor Department Visit Farm at Claremont.

Of the 14 former members of the old Allegheny poor board, whose incumbency expired in '92, when Allegheny became a second-class city, 12 visited the city poor farm at Claremont yesterday. The party left on the 10:25 train in the morning and stayed until late in the afternoon, spending the entire day going about the grounds and buildings and inquiring closely into the innovations that followed their retirement.

William F. Trimble, president of the old board, headed the visitors, after making all arrangements for the trip. Maj. William P. Hunker, who has been superintendent at Claremont for almost 30 years, met his former associates at the station and escorted them on the tour through the buildings and grounds.

It was found that in the 14 years that have elapsed since the last service of the former board the average monthly number of inmates has increased 75 per cent. During this time three new buildings, including an insane ward and general wards for males and females, had been erected. A proportionate increase in the cultivation of the farm acreage has resulted and the additional expense of keeping a greater number of inmates has been balanced by the added product of enlarged working departments throughout the institution. A banquet was served the visitors by Maj. Hunker.

A Blessing.

Sancho Panza blessed the man who invented sleep. So do our leading society belles bless the memory of the late Dr. T. F. Gouraud, who taught them how to be beautiful. Everyone should do all in his power to supplement nature in adorning the person, and a fine complexion is not given to all; and just here art aids nature, and all who use Dr. T. F. Gouraud's Oriental Cream, or Magical Beautifier, know its value, and how the skin that is freckled, tanned, pimpled or moth-patched can be made like the new-born babe's. To those who will use toilet preparations it is recommended by physicians; as the board of health has declared it free from all injurious properties, and, as it is on sale at all druggists and fancy goods stores, it is an easy matter to give it a trial, and thus win the approbation of men, as well as the envy of ladies.

ALLEGHENY MUST SPEND $500,000

Director McIlvain Declares Bond Issue Should Be Authorized for Big Improvements.

FIGHT TO CONTROL COUNCILS

An earnest of the intense party struggle that is to be made in Allegheny for the control of councils next spring was given yesterday by Director McIlvain, when he declared that councils next year will have to pass legislation authorizing a bond issue of at least $500,000 for improvements made imperative by the elevation of the Fort Wayne railroad tracks through the city.

"I have had preliminary estimates made at all points where elevations or depressions of street grades, construction of bridges and relaying of sewers are to be made," said Director McIlvain, "and these improvements are going to cost Allegheny at least half a million dollars. This estimate is conservative. Some of these undertakings are to be gigantic contracts, bigger than anything Allegheny has ever encountered before. For instance, the changes at Washington avenue crossing alone will cost several hundred thousand dollars. From Federal street west to McClure avenue in Woods Run the entire topography of the city, paralleling the tracks, will be changed. The councils elected next spring will have all these improvements to deal with and it's going to be such a problem as no other councils in Allegheny ever faced.

Improvements Already Authorized.

"The improvements must be made; about that there is no question, for these have been provided for by ordinances passed within the past two years. The new councils will deal with the cost to the city, and a bond issue that will not be short of a million dollars will have to be authorized."

In making this statement Director McIlvain made no reference to politics or of the impending battle between the Wyman machine and the Republican organization, but in the face of such a situation, knowing politicians declare, the conflict for control of both branches of councils is certain to be a memorable one. Wyman at present controls a majority of the members of the common branch. The terms of all the common members expires in April next, and with few exceptions the incumbents will be standing for re-election. This has been talked over earnestly at several conferences the mayor has had with close political advisers, and many of those at present serving will receive the endorsement and support of the machine. Those who have deserted the Citizens majority and opposed legislation favored by the administration will be dropped. In most instances these latter will enter the Republican primaries as regular candidates with the consent of the Republican ward executive committees.

Improvements to Be Made.

The work referred to by Director McIlvain includes changes of grade in Federal street, Martin street, Marion avenue, Ohio street, North avenue, Pennsylvania avenue, Washington avenue and McClure avenue. On Federal street regrading and repaving will be done between Church avenue and Penn street. The grade of Ohio street from Sherman avenue to the Fort Wayne tracks is to be elevated about three feet, and this will necessitate similar changes in the grades and locations of Marion avenue and Western avenue from the railway to Irwin avenue. North avenue will be raised five feet to give sufficient clearance over the Fort Wayne roadbed that is to be depressed from Ridge avenue to Woods Run. Pennsylvania avenue will be raised three feet three inches and Washington avenue sixteen feet six inches.

Recently Director McIlvain has been in frequent consultation with the engineers of the Pennsylvania Company regarding the vast improvement that is to be made at Washington avenue. For years it has been one of the most deadly grade-crossings in the city. The Fort Wayne shops and freight yards are abutting on Washington avenue and thoroughfares in the vicinity and the crossing is very wide. At this point the present track level is to be maintained by the railway company.

Viaduct Over the Tracks.

Besides elevating Washington avenue and Sedgwick street at this point a large viaduct is to be constructed to carry Washington avenue over the tracks.

These extensive improvements, the director says, will entail heavy damages to adjacent property and with the cost of improvements will necessitate, on the part of the city, the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The special meeting of select council called for tonight is to pass finally the ordinance authorizing a change of grade on McClure avenue. For months the street has been almost impassible and street cars have been prevented from traversing the street because of the Fort Wayne improvements. The proposed change will effect a depression of grade sufficient to permit the passage of cars and other vehicles under the elevated tracks that are now a barrier to traffic.

MEETING IS POSTPONED.

Sale of Chartiers Valley Water Company Has Not Yet Been Completed.

Because of the lack of completion of some of the needful legal details, the meeting of stockholders of the Chartiers Valley Water Company, called for yesterday to vote on the sale of the company to the American Waterworks and Guarantee Company, was postponed. The meeting probably will be held before August 15.

The purchase of the Chartiers Valley Company is but part of the plans of the American company to develop a local business. A number of the water companies, which have been chartered recently to operate in this vicinity, have been for the American company. The company itself is not an operating concern, but owns many underlying companies. Up to the present its main investments have been in the south and west, but the home field is now being given its attention.

For a couple of months the American company's engineers have been aiding the Chartiers Valley company and a decided improvement has been the result.

HORSES RESCUED FROM QUICK FIRE

Thirty Saved, but One Was Lost Before Rescuers Succeeded in Reaching It.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $5,000

Twenty-seven horses and three mules were rescued from a sudden fire at Duquesne way and Fourth street about 6:30 o'clock last evening. One horse was burned and the total loss amounted to about $5,000.

The blaze was confined to 406-408-410 Duquesne way, C. O'Loughlin's blacksmith shop, A. J. Montgomery's feed and sale stable and Owen Fitzsimmons' sale stable. The flames started in the rear of the blacksmith shop, supposedly from a peanut and coffee roaster owned by R. J. Geddes. The fire spread to the roof of the buildings in front and fast work by Matthew Reed and Philip Hall, colored, saved the live stock occupying the first floor of the barns.

Within 10 minutes after the flames were discovered they had spread from the roasting house to Fitzsimmons' stable, where both Reed and Hall were employed. They rushed into the stalls and led out the horses one by one. They succeeded in saving all but one, which was in Mr. Montgomery's stable. It was a draught horse and belonged to John McKelvy, who is connected with the stable.

Acting Chief William Bennett said the total loss would not exceed $5,000. Geddes lost four wagons, his roaster, some peanuts and coffee. He estimates his loss at about $2,500. The entire inside work of three buildings was badly damaged and a stock of hay and feed was burned on the second floors. The equipment of O'Loughlin's shop was damaged considerably.

Philip Hall, who helped save the horses, says a fire broke out in the roasting house Tuesday night, but he discovered it in time to prevent serious damage.

A big crowd witnessed the rescue of the horses, which were led to an alley in the rear of the stables. The fire spread so quickly that few knew of it until the animals had been saved.

SAFE BLOWER CAUGHT.

John Keys, a Well-Known Criminal Is Commited to Jail.

John Keys, a burglar and safeblower who was arrested at Rock Springs, Beaver county, Wednesday afternoon, by Detective James L. McClain of the Pennsylvania railroad, was committed to jail yesterday on several charges of burglary. Keys is wanted for robbing a number of railroad stations and for torturing Henry Davidson, an aged farmer, near Tarentum several weeks ago.

Keys is a well known criminal. He has broken jail several times. Nine years ago he broke out of the Beaver county jail. He was caught at Rochester, Pa., and while the officer was closing the station house doors Keys drew a revolver, and holding the man up, walked out.

Two years later he was arrested in Meadville for burglary committed in Mercer county. He broke out of the Mercer county jail. Keys is under indictment here on four charges of burglary.

IMPROVED POSTAL SERVICE FOR CITY OF M'KEESPORT

Postmaster W. V. Campbell of McKeesport returned yesterday from Washington, D. C., where he had a conference with the postal authorities regarding two sub-stations in the Tube City and the addition of new territory. Postmaster Campbell says the prospects for improved service are bright and that postal inspectors will be in the city within a short time to look into the requirements of the district. The postmaster learned that the new postal building in McKeesport will be under way by next January.

Friday, July 29, 1904.

The Gazette desires to call the attention of those of its readers who contemplate summer trips to the announcements of the many summer resort hotels published on page 12 of this issue.

Following closely upon the announcement of the expansion of the Jones & Laughlin company, comes another that an entirely new company proposes to begin at once construction of a plant for the production of seamless tubing by a German process. The new works will cost not less than $1,000,000 and are to be located at Monessen. These items are amply confirmatory of the marked improvement that has been shown in the industrial situation during this month, and give evidence that the Pittsburgh region remains a prime favorite among investors as a location for individual enterprises.

Elihu Root, former secretary of war, has informed Governor Benjamin B. Odell of New York, that he cannot consider a candidacy for succession to the latter. This decision of Mr. Root will be regretted by the public and by the Republican party leaders of New York, for the former secretary would have made an ideal candidate for that important office. The refusal of Mr. Root to allow the use of his name is not surprising, for he retired from the cabinet to devote himself to his private law practice, and the office of governor is hardly more enticing. That fact, however, does not lessen public disappointment. New York Republicans will have to look farther for an acceptable candidate, but there is no room to doubt that they will soon find one.

The American consul at Ezerum, Mr. Norton, has shown commendable zeal by starting on a trip through the disturbed districts of Asiatic Turkey without waiting for the consent of the sultan's officials. Inasmuch as there are missionaries in those districts whom it is the duty of Mr. Norton to protect, the red tape of the porte is too slow to suit his ideas of quick action. Delay might end in the massacre of Americans, but with such an energetic official as Mr. Norton, no delays are permitted. He is an excellent example of the energetic and faithful officials the Washington government has representing it abroad. The people at home scarcely appreciate the dangers and difficulties our consuls meet, of which the present trip of Mr. Norton through a lawless country is but a sample.

Missouri Republicans nominated a state ticket yesterday that is fully deserving of enthusiastic support. It includes Cyrus P. Walbridge for governor; John C. McKinley for lieutenant governor; John Swanger for secretary of state and Jacob Gamelech for state treasurer. While we cannot say that Mr. Walbridge is more entitled to election than Joseph W. Folk, there can be no question but that his running mates are far superior to the ring men on the Folk ticket. It will be vastly better for Missouri to elect the entire Republican ticket than to elect the entire Democratic ticket, and we cannot see any disadvantage in electing Walbridge over Folk. Mr. Walbridge as governor would give Mr. Folk as circuit attorney for St. Louis precisely the assistance he needs to clean out the boodle gang, root and branch.

Yesterday was a proud day for the Fourteenth regiment at the encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg. At the close of the infantry inspection, the Fourteenth was singled out for the highest praise by Governor Pennypacker, Adjutant General Stewart and Inspector General Sweeney. The present efficiency of the regiment is the result of the hard work and capable direction of its officers as well as the zeal of the men, all of whom got a better taste for military honors during the Spanish-American war, although the regiment did not reach the firing line. Today the Fourteenth is one of the best organized and drilled regiments in the state, and it would give a good account of itself if it were called into active duty. The Gazette is pleased to add its congratulations to the official commendation given the regiment at Gettysburg.

The project to establish an amusement enterprise in Recreation park, Allegheny, to be modeled after Luna park at Coney Island, will be cordially welcomed. Pittsburgh and Allegheny have long needed wholesome summer amusements, and it is confidently believed this new enterprise will, in part, meet the demand. Both cities have beautiful public parks, but the municipal authorities have not furnished the proper accessories for the entertainment of the people. It is strangely true that the winter amusements in Pittsburgh far exceed those in summer. This new enterprise should bring a more even balance, and should furnish a cool and wholesome resort for the public on the warm summer evenings. If the public parks were properly improved there would hardly be a field for private enterprise in this line.

The Murder of Von Plehve.

The assassination of M. Von Plehve, the Russian minister of the interior, is a shocking but not a surprising event. As M. Witte remarked when he heard the news, "every Russian minister accepts the risk of assassination as part of his official duties." Von Plehve's predecessor in office was assassinated and repeated attempts have been made heretofore against his own life. He has been aware that further attempts might be made at any time and had taken such precautions as he could, but no precautions can be invariably effective against murderers who are quite ready to sacrifice their own lives to carry out their designs. A temporary detention of the minister's carriage at a point where street traffic was frequently congested gave an opportunity to throw a bomb which was done with such accuracy that he was terribly mangled by the explosion and must have been instantly killed.

Von Plehve has been notorious as the active instrument of the policy of absolutist repression of all political agitation. Much of the blame for the persecutions of the Jews has been laid upon him personally. He appears to have been a hard, strong man, and like many high Russian officials he himself belongs to a race whose chronic discontent disturbs the empire. It is stated that he is largely of Polish blood and Poland is a quarter of continual political disaffection. No man, however, can endure such responsibilities and confront such risks as he did without some conviction of right. Interviews with him which have been published, particularly on the Jewish question, leave the impression that while narrow, bigoted and prejudiced, he sincerely believed that he was doing his duty. He believed in repression because he believed that there was need of repression and that indulgence of popular agitation would tend to substitute anarchy and disorder for settled government. As regards the Jewish question he felt himself to be in the position of a surgeon who has to deal with a cancer, and who has to use the knife while acutely distressed by the tears, blood and suffering of the patient.

Political murder is apt to be construed as a portent of revolutionary change. The truth is that the effect is just the other way. Its natural tendency is to justify repression and to postpone the period when liberal concessions may be regarded as opportune. Those who favor change by constitutional methods will draw back from a movement stained by crime. The revolutionary party practicing assassination do not represent Russian aspirations. Their demands are quite impracticable, and if granted would wreck the Russian empire. One of these demands is that each nationalty shall have the right to decide for itself whether it will be organized as a separate state. A government organized upon secession as a fundamental principle would not last long. The immense majority of the intelligent people of Russia would vastly prefer absolute despotism to the rise of a red republic. The practical result of the labors of the terrorists is to justify and prolong the methods of despotism. The fact is well established that just as Czar Alexander was assassinated, in exactly the same way as Von Plehve, he was about instituting extensive liberal reforms. His murder caused them to be indefinitely postponed. In the presence of such crimes no relaxation of the authority of government is possible. The assassination of Von Plehve will probably have a similar effect now, weakening revolutionary forces by detaching from them the support of people of substance, thus strengthening the position of the government and confirming it in its present policy. The party of anarchy will have to be crushed before the party of constitutional progress can make any headway.

Taggart Not Trusted.

Now that Thomas H. Taggart has been chosen as chairman of the Democratic national committee it is leaking out that he will not be entrusted with the real management of the campaign. That work will go to William F. Sheehan, who was Judge Parker's first choice for national chairman, and will be accomplished by making the blue-eyed New Yorker chairman of the executive committee. This step, it appears, is demanded not only by Judge Parker, but by a large number of eastern conservatives who have been fighting for a "safe and sane" party.

Mr. Taggart is not wholly trusted because he has been closely affiliated with the Bryan Democracy. He has been made a figurehead by the national committee in the hope that he may attract a portion of the dangerous and crazy Democracy, repelled by the gold telegram of Candidate Parker. That argument was advanced strongly prior to Taggart's election, and committeemen who were not favorable to him were won to the idea that it would be wise to "feature" at least one silver man. They are probably less of that opinion since Chairman Taggart's friends openly admit that he manages a resort where public gambling is encouraged. They realize now that his silver shield can hardly cover that blemish.

At any rate Mr. Sheehan is to be the chairman of the executive committee and Thomas Taggart can be thrown overboard if he shall develop into a Jonah. The Democracy played Col. Bryan in that role, but the whale rejected him and suspicion now centers about Taggart. After all is said it doesn't make much difference. The Democratic bark will not land a cargo of fish this trip. Jonah or no Jonah, this is not a Democratic year. Judge Parker will be compelled to return to legal haunts after November 8, and Uncle Gassaway Davis may resume digging coal in West Virginia, unless he prefers farming.

A Measure of Economy.

By the opinion of City Solicitor William B. Rodgers, and the ordinance he has drafted, the filtration bonds may be sold as the money is needed. That is, it will not be necessary for the city to issue the entire $5,000,000 at once and pay interest upon the whole amount while the funds lie idle in bank. This decision will overcome one of Controller John B. Larkin's chief objections to the issue. It will also effect a material economy to the city.

Prior to the bond election The Gazette urged the fact for consideration, in reply to the charge that the estimates were too high, that it would be better to authorize more than a sufficient amount than to not authorize enough, as the surplus could be retained in the treasury. Under Solicitor Rodgers' construction no surplus need be issued. If contracts can be let for construction of the plant for less than the estimated cost, so much the better. The bidding must be free and untrammeled, on fair specifications, and if a plant can be constructed for less than the estimates, the competing contractors may be relied upon to make the fact apparent.

The city is to be congratulated upon the outcome of the submission of the matter to the city solicitor. He is competent authority and he makes it plain that the sale of bonds need not exceed actual money requirements.

More Pittsburgh Furnaces.

Announcement that the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company will begin at once the erection of four additional open-hearth furnaces in Pittsburgh at a cost of $1,000,000 or more as exclusively published in Pittsburgh by The Gazette, is a trade straw indicating the course of the wind. It is admitted by the company that plans for these furnaces were prepared more than a year ago, but were laid aside when the industrial reaction set in. It is a fair inference that their revival at this time is due to an equally clear perception of changing conditions and that the company believes it will soon need the additional productive capacity.

Incidentally it is worth noting that Pittsburgh's largest iron and steel firm outside the United States Steel Corporation finds conditions favorable for its enlargement. Its progress is the outcome of Pittsburgh brains, energy and environment. The success of the larger corporation, also, is in proportion to the Pittsburgh influence in its affairs. It is notable that some of the operative offices, once taken to New York, have been re-established here, where they may be in closer touch with Pittsburgh inspiration.

The Missouri Republicans paid a deserved tribute to their old political enemy, Senator Vest, by sending a telegram of sympathy. He [illegible] statesman whom all are ready to honor, [illegible] the whole country is watching his brave fight with death.

"It is awful!" Thus spoke the czar
"These doings my day dreams doth emar
My ancestral throne
Is tott'ring I one;
They carry this joke most too car."

It is safe to announce in advance that Gen. Funston will not swim the Yukon during his inspection tour of Alaska.

Whoever may have taken Judge Parker's picture, Miss Roberson seems to have taken his measure pretty neatly.

The new salutation at Esopus is: "Good morning, judge. Have you had your picture taken this morning?"

The Baltimore man who says his wife bought him for $1,100 adds enough to the tale to prove that she was cheated.

If the Chicago strikers simply hang the strike breakers in effigy no one will be fatally injured.

The local Democrat who is betting that Mr. Roosevelt will be elected evidently needs the money.

British statesmen would like a fair appraisement of the value of Russia's word of honor.

Early in November Chairman Taggart will join the "regret to report" class.

The "grace before meat" becomes more sincere as the price advances.

But Won't Wag It Much.

The gold Democrats seem to have things all their own way, but the fact that 6,000,000 Democrats voted for silver in 1900 indicates that at present the tail is trying to wag the dog.—New York Tribune.

This Beats the Three R's.

Russians retreat, retire, regret, recall and are repulsed and routed—a bad case of alliterative trouble.—Cleveland Leader.

FABLES FROM THE NEWS.

The Chief Justice was sitting on His Front Porch Dreaming of the Day when he would occupy a Large White House at the expense of the Nation, when there came up the Walk the Chief of the Tribe of the Tammanyites, followed by a Large Striped Beast.

"I greet you, Oh Great White Chief," cried the Visitor.

"Peace be Unto You," replied the Chief Justice, advancing to Welcome his Guest.

As the Two Chiefs were about to Rub Noses, the Large Striped Beast closed his Jaws on a Tender Spot of the Host's Anatomy.

"Call 'im Off. He's killing me!" shouted the Chief Justice in an Agonized Voice.

"Oh, he's Perfectly Safe," declared the Tammany Chief, after Releasing the Chief Justice from his Predicament. "All you have to do is to Feed him Plenty of Pie and he doesn't Care for Meat."

Which Shows one of the Things the Chief Justice is Up Against in his Campaign for Free House Rent.

* * * * *

The Committee of Prominent Democrats had just said "Tag, You're It," and the New Boss had Taken the Chair, when a Street Piano on the Outside began playing "The Red, White and Blue."

"Give me a Stack of Blues," said the New Boss, putting his Hand in his Own Pocket.

Thus it is Shown that Absent-mindedness is a Bad Failing, even for a Politician who is likely to make Some Promises during the Campaign which he does not Care to Keep after the Election.

Talked of in Gotham

By ALEXANDER DODDS.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Tomorrow the work of breaking in the motormen for the new rapid transit subway in this city will begin. This step at last gives assurance that the nightly crushes at the "L" stations are soon to be a thing of the past and that the million of workers may go to their homes without fear of personal injury or damage to their wearing apparel. The "green" motormen are to be tried first upon heavy construction trains that will be run during the lull hours of the day, upon the elevated tracks. Then when they become masters of the science of the controller box and air brake, they are to take the places of the regular elevated motormen who will be taken for trips through the subway to learn the peculiarity of the lights, signals and bends in the road. Then the sub-motormen will be given the same experience and it is claimed that by the time the subway will be ready for traffic the operating department will have a sufficient number of men to assure perfect service.

The practice in the subway of course will not commence until the tunnel has been turned over to the operating company by Contractor McDonald, but as he has announced that this will be on August 1 New Yorkers are filled with delight at their promised emancipation from the flat districts down town. Realty dealers have already advanced the rents in the districts above Forty-second street. Heretofore rents have been extremely cheap in this section considering the high class of the apartments, but tenants were scarce owing to the lack of sufficient rapid transit facilities.

Street Car Wrecks an Everyday Occurrence.

The frequency of street car accidents in greater New York is astounding. For two weeks past there has been one or more accidents each day in which several persons were badly hurt. By traffic officials these accidents are taken as the best positive proof that the existing rapid transit system has been developed to its highest capacity, the wrecks always being the result of crowding the trains too closely together in order to accommodate the immense throngs that crowd the stations in the rush hours. Fortunately the accidents have all taken place either upon the surface lines or on the elevated roads after they leave the trestles and become surface lines in the outlying districts.

It is in the long runs to the beaches and Coney Island most of the accidents occur, for there the trainmen attempt to make up their schedule time lost while making the way stops in the downtown section. In the subway it will be impossible to have these "wild" runs owing to an electric block and signal system that is being installed by the Westinghouse company of Pittsburgh. Each train is held in its section until the train preceding has left the one in advance.

Mayor's Right Hand Grows Weary.

Mayor McClellan knows what it is to suffer from the writer's cramp these days for he is busy signing the bonds sold at the $37,000,000 sale recently. Under ordinary circumstances he might take his time for the issuing of these securities, but for some unknown reason the purchasers are clamoring for their paper. Today he had to have his right hand bandaged after having signed but 150 of the bonds. In all he will have to write his name 30,000 times before his task is finished, and hopes that as soon as his hand becomes accustomed to it, he will be able to sign at least 1,000 per day.

Rain Poured Through the Lightning Holes.

Pluvius bombarded the skies this afternoon and through the holes battered in the clouds by the lightning streaks, immense volumes of water poured. The weather bureau announces tonight that it was the hardest rain this summer and those who were caught without umbrellas can testify the water seemed to come to earth the nearest possible way. The electrical storm was the heaviest along the beaches and at Sheepshead Bay the racing stable of E. L. Graves was struck, Dinah Shad, his good 3-year-old, and Great Crossing, being among the horses injured. As the rain came the hardest about 6 o'clock many thousands were soaked in the mad rush from their places of employment to the elevated train stations.

Two Ambassadors Arrive in the City.

Bellamy Storer, the American ambassador to Austria-Hungary and Charlemagne Tower, American ambassador to Germany, arrived today on the Deutschland from Hamburg. Ambassador Storer who was in very bad health for some time before leaving Vienna, reports the trip has completely restored him. He will remain in the United States until after the presidential election, and while he has no definite plans his intentions are to at least make two speeches for the Republican ticket before the close of the campaign. He is to have an appointment with President Roosevelt while the latter is at the executive offices in Washington.

Cannot Sing in High-Neck Dress.

Heavy indeed are the burdens of the manager of Ocean Grove, that exclusive little New Jersey resort much patronized by the Methodists. Last Sunday Mme. Schumann-Heink gave a sacred concert and appearing in her regulation evening concert gown, was severely rebuked for her seeming lack of modesty by several of the ministers and a host of the women of the town. She was indignant of course, but it was thought the warning served her, would set at rest the trouble in this respect for the remainder of the season. Such is not the case. Irene Bentley, another singer of note was to sing before the audience on Sunday night but today she announced she had cancelled the engagement. Singing in a high-neck dress she said, was out of the question and rather than set the tongues of Ocean Grove a wagging, she would stay away from the concert. The manager is now looking for another star.

Seal Battled Unto His Death.

In the seal tank of the Aquarium today there was a battle royal among six Maine seals that had just been placed in the great glass tank. Chubby, one of the new arrivals, commenced a tour of investigation as soon as he hit the water. Slowly he waddled about the floor of the tank until he came to the inlet. This was guarded by two seals that had been in the tank for a fortnight. With their indignant red noses in the air they awaited Chubby's approach. No one was watching closely at the time, but it is supposed he failed to offer the civilities of their kind. The first thing the guard knew there was a great noise and splashing, and running to the tank, he witnessed a correct imitation of a dog fight under water. Finally all the seals became involved and after five minutes the guard forced them apart with a dip net. Chubby only opened his eyes very wide as though they hurt him, then gave a sigh and closing them tight he turned on his back. Chubby was dead.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

A woman preaching is like a dog's walking on its hind legs. It is not done well, but you are surprised to find it done at all.
—Samuel Johnson.

Haven't you noticed something very unsatisfactory about a dog walking on its hind legs?

Dogs were made to go on all fours, and to make them go on two legs spoils the gracefulness of their movements. Running, jumping, barking, and doing things in proper dog fashion are most pleasing effects. But dress them up in clothes and set them to doing child stunts and you have a ridiculous exhibition, with nothing but its ridiculousness to commend it.

You may have laughed at the sight of a dog dressed as a man or woman, or child, but it wasn't the hearty sort of laugh you indulged in when a dog in natural attire did a clever trick, such as a wise dog might do of its own accord.

There surely is an eternal fitness of things, and this applies to men as well as to dogs.

* * * * *

Samuel Johnson was an odd sort of chap, as one may gather from reading his life as recorded by his friend Boswell. He had a way of saying things peculiarly his own, and he was particularly clever at putting things in nutshells.

He was a champion of practical education, and believed in a free, but judicious, use of the rod, as is shown by the following trite and telling paragraph:

"There is now less flogging in our great schools than formerly—but then less is learned there; so that what the boys get at one end they lose at the other."

Some thought him cranky, rude, and even garrulous because he would blurt out almost anything that came to mind. Nor would he spare his best friends. Some of his friends would become offended at him, but not his best ones, for they knew he did not intend to injure or to offend them. Here is what he once said about his friend Goldsmith:

"I remember a passage in Goldsmith's 'Vicar of Wakefield,' which he was afterward fool enough to expunge: 'I do not love a man who is zealous for nothing.' There was another fine passage, too, which he struck out: 'When I was a young man, being anxious to distinguish myself, I was perpetually starting new propositions. But I soon gave this over; for I found that generally what was new was false.'"

It was of Goldsmith that Johnson said: "No man was more foolish when he had not a pen in his hand, or more wise when he had."

* * * * *

All of this goes to sustain his position as set forth in the opening paragraph of this article, that everything is all right in its proper place, and all wrong when out of it. Even in the following lines which seem crude if not cruel at first glance, he offers an effective illustration of the eternal fitness of things:

"If the man who turnips cries
Cry not when his father dies,
'Tis a proof that he had rather
Have a turnip than a father."

Of course this is philosophy, in a sense, and sensible enough, don't you think?

We are continually doing senseless things, and things in which there is no sort of fitness; hence the necessity for some one like Johnson to rise up and point out the follies we are daily, if not hourly, indulging in, not because we don't know better but because—well, because why?

Answer this to suit yourself. You ought to know why you do so many foolish things. If you don't know hadn't you better try to find out?

* * * * *

Wonder what Mr. Johnson would say were he alive now? A whole century has gone since he passed away, and things are very different.

Women don't much admire him, as a rule, and yet he was a great admirer of women. But for them, as for everything else, he had his likes and dislikes, and was just blunt and outspoken enough to say what he liked and what he disliked. Speaking of women he said:

"I am very fond of the company of ladies. I like their beauty, I like their delicacy, I like their vivacity, and I like their silence."

Does this account for his not being popular among ladies? Or was it because of his persistent habit of saying things—things critical and sharp, and with not much regard for the feelings of those criticised? And yet it does not appear that he ever meant to be offensive, only true as he was given to see the truth.

What a fine field lies open now for a Samuel Johnson to browse around in. Surely he could find suggestions in plenty for terse, pertinent, sharp remarks and observations.

* * * * *

Speaking of the eternal fitness of things recalls the fact that the eternal feminine is even more in evidence now than in Johnson's time, and more troublesome, probably, for there she minded her knitting and didn't bother about either politics or religion, except occasionally as an aid to man in political intrigues.

But even in staid old England where woman was taught to attend to her own affairs, she has managed to assert herself, and to be much in evidence; so much so that it is a question what shall be done with her and for her. And she, herself, is asking what is to be done with her, or what is to become of her.

Mrs. Archibald Colquian, in discussing the eternal feminine, or that portion of it known as the superfluous woman, before the Royal Colonial Institute of South Africa talked quite plainly to those of her sisters who have been looking toward the colonies as a place to go. Among the many good things she said was the following, which will apply to women everywhere.

* * * * *

"It is in the middle class that we find the superfluous woman, and I tried to show that she is superfluous because she is not brought up to fill a niche. That niche is a very wide one; it is the only one vacant for the average middle-class woman today, either at home or in the colonies. It is simply household work; the woman who is wanted is the woman who can and will perform every ordinary everyday duty in the home.

"Social conditions may unfortunately make it impossible for the middle-class girl to do this in Great Britain, but such is not the case in the colonies, and, moreover, in countries where women are in a minority they naturally get more appreciation and are of more importance. Nevertheless, the average middle-class woman will not go to the colonies, and why? Because she is brought up to a life of idleness; because of the ridiculous pretentiousness in our social life; because with all her modern education she is a less useful and practical person than her mother. The fault, however, lies chiefly with parents and the conditions of home life.

"This is an age of over civilization, and the baneful effects are nowhere more apparent than in the middle-class women of this country.

"Side by side with simplicity and industry in home life, I place an education in Imperialism. Women of the present day have little real patriotism, because they are, as a rule, intensely ignorant of our great empire. We want to begin at the beginning and rear a race of healthy, practical girls, imbued with the true spirit of Imperialism, who will be the mothers of oversea Britons.

"To my correspondents who write for advice as to emigration, 'because I feel I am a superfluous woman,' I must reply that there is no royal road for us women. We must cease to be superfluous by doing the thing that is most wanted in the colonies or at home.

"We may add that in South Africa the 'superfluous' woman is just as much a drag on the community as she is elsewhere, but when she discards her superfluity and becomes really helpful, there is generally a good home waiting for her."

America's "Magnificent Distances."

A Kansas editor who stopped at the Inside Inn, at St. Louis, writes: "There are more bellboys than guests in the inn. They use 'em for change. When you give the clerk $5 he hands you back $2 and a bellboy. My room is little far back for meals, but I make it nicely. I start for supper at 9 a. m. and stay for luncheon on the way with a friend I know in room No. 2507. But a friend of mine who lives in room No. 76,649 is up against it. He got two days behind in his meals, living out in the country at the rear end of the hotel. Finally he found that he was nearer Moberly, Mo., than he was to the dining room, so now he walks over to Moberly every morning."

Wheels Amid Wheels

THE STROLLER.

To those who travel much on the street cars, vaudeville can have but few attractions. There is more comedy to the mile of street car track than there can be found in any "stunt" of the "knock-about artist" or the "Sidewalk conversationalist." All that is necessary is for the passenger to have an eye for the ridiculous.

A few days ago a large and muscular gentleman boarded a car for the East End and paid his fare soon after. Some time later the conductor started to collect fares again, and demanded that the large man give up a nickel.

"I never pay more than one fare," said the passenger with evident good nature.

"And you haven't paid that yet," said the conductor.

"Oh, but I have," replied the passenger, "and I'm not going to pay again."

"You'll pay or walk," said the conductor, but the passenger only smiled.

In a few moments the car stopped in front of Duquesne Garden.

"Here's where you get off," said the conductor to the large passenger. And he started to put him off.

But he didn't. The passenger quietly but firmly picked up the conductor and sat him in the street, then jumped on the car and pulled the bell rope. The car started with a jerk and the conductor was left standing in the street. About five squares further on, the large passenger again pulled the bell rope. As the car stopped at his corner, he gave the go-ahead signal, then jumped off. The car was fully eight blocks from the garden before one of the passengers informed the motorman that he had no conductor aboard. Then he stopped and waited until the next car came along, bringing him the other half of his crew.

And even the passengers who were in a hurry to get home enjoyed the hang-dog look of that conductor when he resumed his post on the rear end of the car.

A determined looking middle-aged woman boarded a West Wilkinsburg and Fifth Avenue car the other day, and when the conductor came to collect her fare she handed him a 10-cent piece. Quicker than it takes to read it, he had put five pennies in her hand and moved away. She looked at the five pennies with indignation, and then came a look in her eye which boded no good to the offending conductor. The car went on.

Presently a rather nice looking young girl got on the car and sat down beside the determined looking woman. The latter leaned over and said:

"Will you please give that conductor these pennies for your fare? He gave them to me for change, and I want to get even. I beg your pardon for speaking to you, but it is so aggravating to have a lot of pennies worked off on you that way."

The girl smiled, gave the woman her nickel, took the pennies and waited. Presently the conductor came along—and his face was a choice study in expression as he got those pennies again. He looked at the girl, who was smiling, then at the determined looking woman, and then at the pennies. The woman's eye fairly dared him to protest. He dropped the pennies in his pocket and jerked the bell rope viciously. Of course he could not turn the coppers in to the company.

As an acrobatic feat, the "stunt" of a half dozen Italian laborers at the corner of Shady and Penn avenues recently beat everything else off the boards. The men wanted to leave the car at that corner, and had so informed the conductor. They expected the car to stop on the near side, and as it did not, they expected to be carried beyond their destination. They were all standing on the rear platform, and as the car started around the corner they made a jump for it one at a time.

In a moment the air was filled with Italian laborers. Not one of them lit within 10 feet of the car, and their gyrations in the air would have made the average high trapeze artist green with envy, while their sliding would have won them the applause of the whole grand stand if they could repeat the "stunt" at Exposition park in that famous act, "Sliding for Home."

The conductor had been powerless to prevent the leap into space, but he stopped the car and went back to figure up the casualties and pick up the remains. However, the "remains" were still intact, and the only damage done was the emptying of a few full dinner pails.

Of another sort, but just as interesting, was the affair on an all-night car the other morning. Two "huskies" got on the car, and they refused to pay the 10-cent fare.

"You pay or get off," said the conductor.

"We'll do neither," replied the "huskies."

But after studying the determined look in the conductor's eye as he pulled the bell rope, they decided discretion the better part of valor, and got off.

The car happened to stop directly under an electric light, and as it started again, leaving the two recalcitrants behind, they stood in the lime light and proved that their vocabulary was strong and healthy by the various unpopular names they called the conductor. In an instant the bell rope was given a quick jerk, the car had stopped again, and the conductor was on the ground and running back.

What followed was a treat to the passengers, who crowded the rear of the car to watch the sport. That conductor didn't weigh more than 140 pounds, but every pound was fighting weight. When he got through with the two "huskies," one of them was on the run, and the other had to be lifted to one side of the road so that he would not be run over by the next car that came along. He was all in.

The athletic little conductor was given a hearty cheer as he calmly climbed upon his car and gave the signal to make up time lost. He wasn't even breathing hard.

Secretary Metcalf and Speaker Henderson.

When Representative Henderson was a candidate for the position of speaker of the house, which he later attained, he wrote to Secretary Metcalf, then a representative, whom he did not personally know, asking his vote and support. The latter responded that he would be pleased to support Mr. Henderson, but that he could not, as he had promised his vote to another. After Mr. Metcalf's arrival in Washington, Representative Henderson (then the speaker) looked him up and said to him: "I want to know you. You are the only man to whom I wrote who gave me an unequivocal denial to my request that he vote for me." Ever since then the two have been close friends. —Sunset Magazine.

PERSONALS

Capt. S. R. Mansell of Little Rock, Ark., at the Colonial hotel last evening said: "I am glad to say that Arkansas is in better shape than it has been at any time in the last 30 years. It may sound strange, but it is a fact, that good, negotiable paper from St. Louis, Chicago and New York is coming to our banks right along to be rediscounted. Every little country bank has a plethora of money and our farmers are getting rich."

Perfecto Lacoste, the first mayor of Havana under the American administration and afterward secretary of agriculture in Cuba, passed through the city last evening on the Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. Lacoste is a Cuban by birth, but an American by adoption. He came to the United States at the age of 13 to be educated and afterward took up his residence in Washington. He was mayor for one and a half years until appointed secretary of agriculture by the late President William McKinley. He resigned when the Cubans established their own government, as he preferred to remain an American citizen. He owns large sugar plantations in Cuba and spends much time there, but retains his residence in Washington. The sugar crop of Cuba last year, he said, amounted to about $60,000,000, aggregating 1,000,000 tons, and the tobacco crop is valued at $35,000,000.

An interesting meeting of the Office Men's club was held last evening at the club rooms, 416 Wood street. The speakers of the evening were George A. MacGregor, Joseph P. Vilk, H. F. Jacques, W. M. Booth, Frank Barnes and N. J. Bauersmith.

William Weldon of McKeesport, a private in the regular army, has secured his discharge and is expected home in a short time. Weldon was in the Spanish-American war and served under Col. Roosevelt in Cuba. He returned to McKeesport after the war and later enlisted in Troop B, Third cavalry, and has since been stationed in Yellowstone National park. He says he is tired of army life.

J. F. Appenzeller of Dayton, O., passed through the city last evening on the Pennsylvania limited from a business trip east. He said: "The bill passed by both branches of the Ohio legislature, introduced by Hon. Thomas H. Richetts of Columbus, the effect of which is to reduce partisan politics to a minimum in the election of municipal officers, is a commendable one. Heretofore we have had in Ohio our town and township elections every spring, while in the succeeding fall our county and state campaigns came on, and also the contest for congressional seats. Thus there was a continual appeal being made to the partisanship of the voters, and the lines were ever tightly drawn. Under the resolution offered by Mr. Richetts, after 1905 the election of towns and townships officials and of the county, state and national will occur in different years, provided the people are willing to make the change, which will be determined this fall by popular vote. There is a growing sentiment in the United States that there is but little sense in choosing men for municipal offices merely because they happen to be Republicans or Democrats. What is more essential is that the men chosen be of well-known integrity and capacity."

SCHOPFER CASE GIVEN TO JURY

Judge Waited 40 Minutes for a Verdict and Then Adjourned Court.

STRONG SPEECHES BY COUNSEL

Judge Frazer finished his charge to the jury in the case charging Mrs. Evaline Schopfer and Aurora Cupps with the murder of Charles T. Schopfer at 10 o'clock last night, when the case was given to the jury. The court waited 40 minutes, and then adjourned until this morning, when the verdict will be received if the jury has reached a decision. The charge was a thorough summing up of all the facts and arguments of the commonwealth and the defense, the court going somewhat further into the evidence that if Aurora Cupps had shot her brother-in-law, as alleged by J. Henry Jahn in his recital of her alleged confession to him, and the window leading from the room was closed, as testified to in the case, with the dust on the roof of the bay window, she must have stopped in her alleged flight to put down the window, and in doing so the jury was to take into consideration the condition of the roof, it being shown that considerable dust had accumulated on the roof, which necessarily must have been disturbed by any person leaving the room in that manner. No such disturbance was shown, except the small spot covering about the size of three fingers of one of the doctors who examined it. This, the court said, was for the jury to consider.

The speeches on both sides were probably the strongest ever heard in a case in this county. John C. Haymaker spent considerable time arraigning J. Henry Jahn, while John S. Robb, Jr., made the greatest address he has ever made, becoming thoroughly exhausted after he had finished an ingenious argument in an attempt to show how it was possible for the accused women to have committed this act. He tried hard to eliminate Jahn and attacked almost every witness for the defense in his summing up of the evidence as he understood it. It was as masterly an effort to convict as the work of Mr. Haymaker to acquit, and when he had finished he was compelled to rest in the district attorney's office.

Jahn Complimented Haymaker.

After Attorney Haymaker had finished his attempt to tear to shreds the character of the star witness, Jahn smiled serenely, and walking up to the man who had thus attacked him, said:

"I want to congratulate you, Mr. Haymaker; you did splendidly."

Everybody in the court room looked at him in absolute astonishment. Mr. Haymaker found it hard work to reply.

Dr. J. M. Holtz was the first witness called in the morning, when the defense was continued. He corroborated Dr. Speer, that he saw no evidence of anyone crossing the roof of the bay window of Schopfer's room. On cross-examination he said he did notice marks on the window sill that might have been finger marks.

David F. Smith said Jahn called on him in reference to some money he owed the witness and told him he expected to get some money shortly from the Schopfer women, or he said, he had papers in his possession that would send them to the gallows. He said he did not see the papers.

T. C. Allison, a real estate dealer, said he would not believe Jahn on oath. He had not been in Jahn's employ, but worked once in the same office. C. J. Allison, a meat dealer, also testified as to Jahn's reputation, and Mr. Robb brought out that he had trouble with Jahn over a bill of $2, which Jahn refused to pay.

Mr. Haymaker then introduced a letter and two indictments in the March term against Jahn, and rested.

In rebuttal the commonwealth first called Henry Braun, a music dealer. He was shown a paper from which the signature was torn, and said it was a receipt for money, not a deed, and that he had not torn it. When he left the stand Mr. Robb said he ought to apologize for lying, and Mr. Haymaker put in a strong objection to the remark. Jahn, the day before, had testified that the paper was a deed, and Braun had torn off the signature.

Court Critised Jahn.

Mr. Robb next put Jahn on the stand to identify a lot of papers referred to during the trial, an agreement said to be signed by the two women and Jahn, several receipts and a lease and a letter in reply to a postal card. This last, especially, was objected to, and Judge Frazer said he would permit three lones of it only to go to the jury. The court said that if Jahn had such information as it contained it was his duty to have told the district attorney at the time.

Another letter written by Jahn to Evalina Schopfer on January 4 caused some contention. Jahn would not say she received it. He had the copy in a copying book, which the court took and read, and then said it must be shown that it was properly mailed. It then developed that the letter had already been read and was in evidence, and the book, too, was then entered as evidence.

When Mr. Robb asked Jahn how many of those who testified against him were his creditors, the defense objected, and the court sustained the objection.

Mrs. Jahn admitted talking with Mrs. Wright and saying she thought Schopfer shot himself, but said also that it was strange he did so, because he was so drunk.

Linnie Wolford said both women read the agreement referred to and knew what it was before they signed it. W. A. Ford, who knew Jahn 15 years ago, was not allowed by the defense to testify.

With the reconvening of court at 1:15 o'clock, Attorney W. W. Whitesell was called to the stand. He had acted as attorney for Jahn and testified to Jahn's good reputation. On cross-examination he said he had heard rumors as to Jahn's reputation which were unfavorable. He said he had tried at least a dozen criminal cases for Jahn.

J. A. Myers of Hoboken, a tennant of John's, was next called. He had never heard Jahn's reputation questioned but admitted on cross-examination that he did not meddle in Jahn's affairs, and attended strictly to his own business. Attorney R. C. Duncan had known Jahn for eight years, and had never heard his reputation discussed till this case opened. He hesitated somewhat when asked if he would now believe him under oath, but finally said he had no reason not to believe him.

Alderman Was Non-Committal.

Alderman John Groetzinger had a mere personal knowledge of Jahn, from cases in which Jahn was before him. He had no reason not to believe him on oath, but all Jahn's dealings before him had been under oath. He had tried four criminal cases in which Jahn had been the defendant, and one civil case in which he was the prosecutor.

Attorney John M. Goehring was loth to say he would believe him under oath, but had no reason, he thought, not to believe him. G. B. Taggart and Henry Rosser, both shoe dealers in Allegheny, were on the stand, but as they had never heard their business acquaintances discuss Jahn, they failed to qualify as character witnesses. With these the commonwealth closed its rebuttal.

The final arguments to the court and jury in the Schopfer-Cupps trial commenced at 2:30 o'clock when Attorney Charles O'Brien addressed the court as to the points which the defense wished the court to incorporate in its charge to the jury. He was followed by Attorney John C. Haymaker in his address to the jury in defense of his clients.

Haymaker's address was not concluded till after 5 o'clock, when court adjourned till 7 o'clock, when Attorney Robb took up the address for the commonwealth. Haymaker did not spare Jahn in his arraignment and seldom, if ever, in the history of the Allegheny courts has a man been so caustically referred to. Throughout it all Jahn sat as unconcerned as though some one else was alluded to. He appeared more interested in what the newspapers were to say about him, and frequently read over the reporter's shoulders what they were writing for publication.

Attorney O'Brien in summing up the points, asked the court to charge the jury, that as the commonwealth had not proven that Schopfer was murdered, nor that the wounds were not self-inflicted that the verdict should be for acquittal. The court on this point said the jury must first take up the question whether Schopfer was murdered, or committed suicide. In case it decided the latter, the case ended there.

Wanted the Jury Cautioned.

Mr. O'Brien asked the court to caution the jury to receive the alleged confession of Aurora Cupps with caution, as it was not made in open court but to an individual. The fact that Jahn was held as an accessory was a reason why his testimony should be carefully scrutinized. He called attention to the reason for adopting the rule that no one can be convicted of a capital crime on a confession alone, as in England many thousands had been sent to the scaffold by perjured witnesses.

Mrs. Jahn's testimony, he thought, should also be carefully handled and not given the weight it would receive if she were not so closely related to Jahn.

At this point the court said that was a matter for the jury alone to decide.

The court held that it was a question for the jury alone to decide as to the degree of murder if the verdict should be guilty. Mr. O'Brien argued that there could be nothing but first degree found if his clients were guilty.

Judge Frazer in charging the jury recited the shooting and the events leading up to Jahn's call on the coroner. He instructed the jury as to the law bearing on murder cases defining the various degrees. He said that in this case involuntary manslaughter did not enter, so there was no use defining that degree closely.

He said the first duty was to determine whether Schopfer died by his own hands or by the hand of others. If in the first case, a verdict of not guilty should be rendered.

"In this case," said Judge Frazer, "you must apply the law to the evidence fresh in your minds and determine if either of the women were guilty of murder."

He pointed out the contention of the commonwealth clearly and concisely, saying if it was true then the women were guilty of murder in the first degree. He pointed out the fact of the window through which Miss Cupps is alleged by Jahn to have climbed out and down to the ground. He showed that she would first have to stop on the roof to shut the window, and must weigh the fact that there were no appreciable marks on the roof.

Another element to be weighed carefully was the contradictory statements of Jahn, as testified by witnesses who told of his saying Schopfer committed suicide.

Another point was Jahn's delay in notifying the officials of his knowledge. He asked the jury to take into consideration the alleged threats made by Jahn and Mrs. Schopfer's refusal to pay money and bringing suits instead.

"In this case, as in others," he said, "the burden is on the commonwealth to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the women were guilty. You will use the evidence as you remember it, not as the attorneys or I have stated it. If satisfied the women did the shooting, then so find; if a reasonable doubt exists, render a verdict of acquittal."

The jury was sent out just at 10 o'clock and the court waited 40 minutes, and as no word was heard from the 12 men, court adjourned.

TWO MEET VIOLENT DEATHS.

One Man Was Crushed in a Mine, Another in a Mill.

Frank Melinos, aged 28, a miner, died yesterday at his home in Moon run from injuries received Wednesday while working in the mines at that place. He was buried under a fall of slate.

Frank Albrecht, aged 45, a laborer at the Keystone branch of the American Bridge Company, was killed at the works at Fifty-second street yesterday by a piece of buckle plate falling on him. The plate was hanging to a crane and its fastenings slipped.

The body of the man who was killed by falling off a load of hay near Tarentum Monday was identified at the morgue yesterday by Hugh Guyton as that of Albert O'Mara. O'Mara formerly came from Altoona and was a boyhood acquaintance of Guyton.

The body of an Italian killed near McKeesport Wednesday on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has been partly identified as Rossi Pasquale, aged 19, of McKeesport. A number of letters were found on him bearing that name.

BURGLARS STILL BUSY.

Allegheny Residence Entered and Jewelry and Silverware Carried Away.

The Allegheny police were notified yesterday of the burglary of the residence of Mrs. Mary P. Lang at 7 Winthrop street. The house was entered through a rear door some time Wednesday afternoon or evening and jewelry and silverware valued at $200 taken. The members of the family were absent until 9 o'clock in the evening, at which time they discovered that thieves had been in the house.

Detectives are working on a clue given them by Mary Baeder, a neighbor, who saw two suspicious-looking men loitering about the place late in the afternoon.

This week will conclude the annual target practice of the "regulars" stationed at the arsenal grounds. By permission of the national guard, the company has been using the state range on the banks of the Monongahela river, near Homestead, daily during the past month, traveling to and fro in covered wagons.

Negro Williams Heavily Fined.

John Williams, a negro, arrested in Chancery lane, a private alley off Water street, was fined $100 and costs or four months to the workhouse yesterday for robbing Steven Craig Wednesday night. Williams gave the officer a chase of six squares before he was captured.

The Hamburg-American Line, ever ready to improve its service, has completed arrangements for a special train service between Berlin and Hamburg in connection with the sailings of their popular twin-screw steamers Deutschland, Moltke, Blucher and Hamburg. It is no longer necessary for the passengers to arrive in Hamburg on the day before sailing to purchase his passage or exchange his return ticket and check his baggage. This may all be attended to at the Berlin office of the company, 5 Unter der Linden. The train leaves Lehrter Bahnhof on the morning of sailing and goes through to Hamburg, where it is coupled to the special train leaving there for Cuxhaven. The steamer lies in waiting and sails as soon as the passengers and their baggae are aboard. This new arrangement practically saves the passenger a day and will, no doubt, be very much appreciated by the traveling public.

A. & S. WILSON MAY BUILD NEW JAIL

County Commissioners Are Inclined to Give Them Contract for the Annex.

ARE THE LOWEST BIDDERS

The county commissioners will on Monday let contracts for the erection of the addition to the jail, the installation of a heating and ventilating plant and for the improvement of four county roads.

There are 10 bidders for the jail contract. The lowest figures came from A. & S. Wilson. These contractors agree to do the work for $368,050. Kerr & Fox are $4,705 higher, and William Kerr's Sons, the third lowest bidders, are $13,627 above the Wilsons.

The commissioners are disposed to award the contract to A. & S. Wilson. The firm has put in the lowest bid and has done county work before. The commissioners want to dispose of the matter at once and can see no reason for further delay. The plans and estimates have been passed upon by the prison board and the commissioners have reduced the cost about $150,000 below the figures decided upon by the board.

The lowest bidder for the installation of a new heating and ventilating plant for the county buildings is the P. F. Maginn Company of Pittsburgh. It offers to do the work for $94,594. This is $19,700 below the highest bidder. There has been no indication as to where this contract will go.

On the road contracts Foley Bros., Keeling & Ridge and W. W. Kelley are the low bidders.

Remember the Date of the $5.00 Excursion to Niagara Falls and Return, Via Pennsylvania Railroad, Saturday, July 30th.

Trains leave Union station, Pittsburgh, at 9 a. m. and 11 p. m., eastern standard time. Tickets good five days returning. Standard day coaches and Pullman cars on both trains. Secure your Pullman space in advance.

NEWS OF THE NEARBY TOWNS AND COUNTRY

ASSYRIAN CHARGED WITH MURDERING HIS MOTHER

He Tells Different Stories of the Affair—Held Through Coroner's Verdict.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BROWNSVILLE, PA., July 28.—Mary John Davis, aged 55, an Assyrian peddler, was killed early this morning under mysterious circumstances and the evidence leads to the belief that she was murdered by her son, Mike Davis, aged 25. Both boarded at the home of Nicholas Monsour in North Bend, Brownsville hill, and they with a man and two women were sleeping in one room. About 1 o'clock the sleepers were aroused by a revolver shot and saw the Davis woman fall from the side of a cot to the floor, after which the son lifted her on to the cot. Three men held the boy, who tried to escape, until officers and Dr. A. C. Smith arrived. An empty revolver was found on the floor, also four discharged shells. The son said the revolver was accidentally discharged. The shot entered the right breast and came out at the back, and the woman died without speaking.

It is thought the boy attemted to rob his mother and she awoke. He was indolent and his mother had kept him in money, but recently his wants had been more than she could supply. He wanted money to make a trip to the old country where it is said he has a wife and children. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict to the effect that she came to her death from a gunshot wound and recommended that Mike Davis be held for trial.

MANSLAUGHTER TO BE CHARGED

State Pure Food Officials to Act Seriously With Dealers in Adulterated Milk.

SEEK TO PROTECT THE BABIES

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., July 28.

Purveyors of adulterated milk and doctored food in this state are likely to find themselves called upon to answer to more serious charges than merely selling adulterated articles of food and drink. It has been learned by the food and dairy commissioner that in cases where babies have died of stomach troubles they have been fed on milk purchased from men who are under charges of selling adulterated fluid.

Dr. Warren, the commissioner, is in the southern part of the state investigating some of these cases. He has decided that if he can procure the evidence to show that the deaths of the infants were caused by the impure milk, he will try to have the dealers indicted and prosecuted for involuntary manslaughter. A few convictions of that sort, he thinks, will do more good than any number of fines for the minor offense. The district attorneys of the counties in which the offenses have been committed have been consulted and have promised their cooperation.

There are a number of cases of milk adulteration pending in this city in which the commission is the prosecutor. In these the same course will be pursued if it can be shown that any deaths resulted from the use of the adulterated article.

MAY CLOSE A THEATER.

Managers Believe There Are Too Many Houses for the Local Patronage.

Manager R. M. Gulick arrived in Pittsburgh on Wednesday and Manager Harry Davis yesterday after meeting in the east. It is understood that they conferred on the theatrical situation there, the opinion being that there are too many theaters for the patronage. Mr. Gulick said:

It was proven last year that Pittsburgh at present would not support two houses like the Nixon and Alvin, and the first named theater will have this class of productions to itself this year.

By placing musical comedies in the Alvin, giving the Avenue up to the stock company, the Grand to vaudeville, the Bijou to comedy drama and melodrama, and the Academy to burlesque, there would be a field for everybody and each would get his share of business. All the houses might be kept open, but each additional one would take away something from the others. I for one am in favor of closing one of the houses. From what has been heard from the other theatrical managers of this city, I think that all would hold the same opinion. It is likely that something will be done in the near future.

Manager Davis of the Alvin, Grand Opera house and Avenue theater, said:

The affairs of the various houses which will be under my control during the coming season are not yet arranged, and while there may be a change of policy in regard to one or two of them, nothing will be settled for a few days.

Completes 39 Years' Service With Pennsylvania Railroad

HARRY REIGH.

GREENSBURG, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—Harry Reigh, the popular conductor on the Pennsylvania's "owl" train from Pittsburgh to this place, today celebrated the completion of 39 years service with the Pennsylvania railroad. There are other men who have been longer in the employ of the company, but none who are as young as Mr. Reigh, who passed his 52d birthday anniversary April 12, last.

Mr. Reigh entered the service of the company as messenger boy in the office of T. W. Wirsdel at Altoona, July 28, 1865. Soon afterward he was transferred to the office of Alexander Johnston Cassatt, then superintendent of motive power. The boy wanted to learn the trade in the shops, but Mr. Cassatt persuaded him to not take that line. In March, 1873, Mr. Reigh entered the train service, but soon returned again to Mr. Cassatt's office. The next year he took a baggage car on the Southwest Pennsylvania, and in 1890 was promoted to be a knight of the punch. Mr. Reigh is one of the Pennsylvania's popular men, a member of the Masonic order, the Elks, Odd Fellows and other fraternal organizations. He expects to round out more than half a century of service with the company.

BOOK AGENT ARRESTED, FATHER-IN-LAW ACCUSES

Marries 14-Year-Old Girl and Is Charged With False Pretense.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., July 28.—George F. Tibble, who at 4 o'clock this afternoon married Miss Margaret Flannigan of New Haven, was arrested at 10 o'clock tonight on a charge of false pretense, brought by the bride's father, Patrick Flannigan. The girl is 14 years old and Tibble, who is a book agent, is 24.

Tibble met the girl while traveling from house to house, and became infatuated. The two went to Uniontown this morning and procured a marriage license and were married by Justice of the Peace W. H. Berger of New Haven. Upon information being filed by the father the officer found the two in a boarding house in North Pittsburgh street. The young bride was escorted to her former home by the father, while Tibble was taken to jail by the officer. Tibble came here from Philadelphia.

It is not known what representations were made in order to obtain a marriage license. Tibble will receive a hearing tomorrow morning before Justice of the Peace William Morgan of New Haven.

MURDERER'S DOOM DELAYED BY DROP NOT WORKING

John Jackson Sings on the Scaffold Until Swung Into Eternity.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

UNIONTOWN, PA., July 28.—Maintaining his nerve and courage to the last and humming "God Is My Keeper," John Jackson, the murderer of Jack Kinney, another negro at "Nigger Hill," near Connellsville June 30, 1903, today paid the penalty for his crime. Sheriff S. E. Frock threw the lever promptly at 10 o'clock, but the drop would not work and for three minutes the condemned man stood on the scaffold waiting for the drop, humming all the time "God Is My Keeper," until finally the drop fell.

Jackson left notes thanking Sheriff Frock and his deputies, the Salvation Army and all who looked after him at the last. In one of the notes he wrote that his true name was John Amos Steptoe.

NIHILIST'S BOMB KILLS VON PLEHVE

suspicious individual who took refuge in a hotel opposite the scene of the tragedy.

Also Carried a Bomb.

He carried a bomb similar to that thrown by Iegio. As soon as the police saw the bomb they scattered, but an employe of the hotel rushed up behind the accomplice and pinioned his arms. The explosive is believed to have been composed of pyroxylin, as it gave off little smoke. The force of the explosion was so terrific that it not only broke every window within a radius of half a mile, but reduced the heavy paving stones to powder, heaved up the pavement and flung a heavy piece of the iron work of the carriage across the canal, severing the thick mast of a barge, which fell, stunning the captain of the barge. Everybody in the street was knocked down and more or less bruised.

Whe nthe officers of the law, headed by Minister of Justice Muravieff, had terminated the necessary formalities by drawing up a written report of the crime, the mangled remains of the minister of the interior were conveyed to a humble chapel adjoining the station, the windows of which miraculously escaped destruction. The priests and people, with characteristic Russian piety, at once joined in a solemn requiem.

Reverent Crowd Outside.

The square in front of the station was filled with a reverent crowd of peasants and laborers, and the busy hum of traffic was silenced. A priest lifted up his voice and proclaimed "the eternal memory of the departed servant Wenceslas," while all those in the congregation dropped to their knees.

A no less impressive service was conducted at the minister's stately residence this evening, to which only intimate friends were invited by M. Von Plehve's assistant, M. Durnovo, who is temporarily in charge of the ministry of the interior. The magnificent staircase and the reception rooms were draped in black. The body of the minister was covered by a white shroud, which concealed the ghastly mutilations. It reposed in a black and silver casket in a corner of the vast hall surrounded by luxurious palms. Gendarmerie and non-commissioned officers stood at the head of the casket, while at its foot were two high officials of the ministry.

The hall and the adjoining rooms, which are decorated in the Byzantine style, somewhat resembling a church, were crowded with distinguished personages, including Grand Duke Alexis, the high admiral; Admiral Avellan, chief of the admiralty; Prince Hilkoff, minister of railroads; Minister Von Plehve's associates, M. Wahle, M. Durnovo and M. Sevastianoff and the members of the diplomatic corps in full force, including Spencer Eddy, American charge d'affaires; Sir Charles Hardinge, the British ambassador, and M. Bompard, the French ambassador.

A special edition of the Official Messenger, which was distributed late this afternoon, contained only a brief announcement of the death of M. Plehve, and the information that an official requiem would be conducted.

Report Made to Czar.

Minister of Justice Muravieff went to the Peterhof palace this afternoon to report the assassination of Minister Von Plehve to Emperor Nicholas. His majesty did not leave the palace during the entire day, although he had arranged to go to Oranienbaum (10 miles from St. Petersburg) to attend the consecration of the new harbor.

The empress has not been informed of the tragedy, in view of the hourly expectation of her accouchement.

As Minister Muravieff was driving to the palace stones were thrown at him and his carriage windows were broken. The identity of the minister's assailants has not yet been discovered.

The news of the death of M. Von Plehve was broken to the minister's wife at Kybinsk, on the Volga, while on her way to their country seat with their son, who is 37 years old. A daughter is married to M. Voutch, an official attached to the council of ministers, who was the sole relative of Von Pl[illegible]ble to attend the first requiem [illegible] Von Plehve saw his wife [illegible] last night and then drove to the [illegible] dence of Gen. Bogdanovi[illegible] an old friend and associate, with w[illegible] mained until a late hour. The minister appeared to be preoccupied, and some of the guests asked him if he had received any more threatening letters, and remonstrated with him for going about unprotected. Curiously, M. Von Plehve replied that he was safe every day except Thursday, when he went to make his weekly report to the czar, as his movements for that day were known.

M. VON PLEHVE'S POWER SECOND TO THE CZAR'S

Gained This High Position, Although Uneducated—Radical and Cruel in His Policies.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—M. Von Plehve, who has fallen a victim of the bomb of an assassin, was appointed minister of the interior April 18, 1902, succeeding M. Sipiaguine, who was assassinated April 16, 1902, by a student named Balschaneff. He had formerly been director of the department of police, which position he practically assumed of his own accord when in charge of the department of political prosecutions, owing to the incompetency of the official who was in charge of the police when Emperor Alexander II. was killed, March 13, 1881. M. Plehve conducted the prosecution of the regicides and afterward reorganized the police.

From that time onward the power of M. Plehve increased until it became only second in importance to that of the emperor. Several plots to assassinate the minister have, according to reports, been discovered during the last two years, which period has been marked by strong political rivalry between the interior minister and the former minister of finance, M. De Witte, now president of the committee of ministers.

M. Plehve was not a man of learning, but from his youth he had been brought up in official circles and he slowly but surely pushed himself ahead. Before the emperor called M. Plehve to take the portfolio of minister of the interior he had already spent about 40 years in official work and at the time of his death was about 66 years old. The educated youths of Russia are said to have been bitterly opposed to M. Plehve owing, it has been claimed, to his turning on his own people and to the drastic changes which he inaugurated or advocated. He is said to have regarded the common people as either dangerous criminals to be repressed or as innocent to be ignored. Von Plehve was largely of Finnish blood yet, it is alleged, no man in Russia has so signalized himself for severity against the Finns as M. Plehve. He was regarded as in many ways being the power behind the throne and was dreaded on account of his control of the third (secret) section of police and also owing to the fact that he controlled the press of Russia through the censors, who, it has been understood, did M. Plehve's bidding without question.

The deceased minister was laborious in the extreme, but had no trace of brilliancy and was an indifferent conversationalist. He was, however, fond of music and was accustomed to read many French novels during his leisure hours.

In May, 1903, M. Plehve was selected president of the imperial commission appointed to carry out the emperor's reform decree. What part, if any, M. Plehve actually played in the Kishineff massacres will probably never be known, but his enemies have claimed that he actually planned the massacres through his political friend and agent, Kroushevan, known as the most extreme anti-semite in Russia and proprietor of the Bessarabetz, a newspaper of Kishineff. The latter is said to have prepared the minds of the people of Kishineff for trouble by publishing a series of strongly-worded anti-semite articles. The object of M. Plehve in this matter, according to the charges at the time, was to divert the attention of the people at large from the government. It should be added that the allegations made against M. Plehve have never been proved to be founded on fact, and in view of the emperor's inquiry into the matter and the fact that M. Plehve retained the emperor's confidence, it is only just to assume that the charges were unfounded.

The last great public work of M. Plehve, so far as known, was the drafting of the peasant code early this year. This is a scheme for peasant reform, ordered by the emperor in his recent manifesto. By this scheme members of the nobility in each province and district will be allowed to elect representatives on local committees to be established throughout the empire, but the representativs of the Zemstvos will be appointed by the governors. The local committees will be allowed freedom to discuss the project and [illegible] changes therein, except [illegible] by legislation, and that the [illegible] lands are to remain inalienable.

On June 13 of this year it was announced from St. Petersburg that the council of the empire had approved M. Plehve's decree for the repeal of the law under which Jews are forbidden to reside within 32 miles of the frontier. This measure has not been approved by the emperor so far as known.

PRIEST CELEBRATES HIS GOLDEN JUBILEE

Public Meeting in Honor of the Rev. Father Lynch—General Ball Speaks.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ZANESVILLE, O., July 28.—A meeting tonight attended by hundreds closed the celebration of the golden jubilee of the Very Rev. J. H. Lynch, O. P., rector of St. Thomas' Roman Catholic church. In the history of the Dominican order in the United States this is the second event of the kind ever observed. At the meeting in Memorial hall one of the principal speakers was Gen. William Ball, aged 84, the Nestor of the Ohio bar. The meeting was preceded by a parade in which local Catholic organizations marched. The celebration began at 9:30 this morning, when solemn high mass was celebrated by Father Lynch at St. Thomas' church, assisted by other members of the order. Bishop Hartley of Columbus was in the sanctuary and delivered an address. There was a special musical program and the church was crowded to the doors.

The Rev. John Hyacinth Lynch, who was born in Zanesville in 1825, entered the Dominican novitiate at St. Joseph's convent, near Somerset, O., in 1850, and was ordained a priest by Bishop Purcell four years later. He was one of the Dominican missionary band which traversed the United States and which has been stationed at churches of the order throughout the country. Twenty-six years ago he was assigned to St. Thomas' church here, where he has since remained.

LEAGUE GAMES TODAY.

St. Louis at Exposition Park.
New York at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Boston.

"Come, Joe, get in out of the wet," yelled a bunch of red-hosed athletes over at Exposition park at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, and the one addressed cast a look upwards, and finding the rain pouring down, sought the shelter of the players' bench, remarking as he disappeared from view: "I was so wrapt up in my work that I did not observe that it was raining." The speaker was Joe Corbett, brother of ex-Champion James J., who was slated to pitch for the Cardinals.

There were fully 1,500 lovers of baseball in the stands when that downfall of rain started at 3:25 and those who occupied seats in the open stands sought shelter only to leave in a few moments when there was a temporary let-up of the rain and they yelled that the game be proceeded with. The heavy overhanging clouds made it a certainty that there would be more rain and the local people hesitated. There was another reason for the hesitation, and that was the presence of Robert Emslie, who was slated to umpire.

Not only the club owners and players, but the majority of the spectators had a painful reminder of Emslie, for he was the man who made the same teams wade through mud and water almost knee deep on Decoration day in order to please a crowd of howling fans and it was this same experience that put Deacon Phillippe out of commission. It was little wonder there was a hesitation. There was a wait of five minutes and as the rain had started in afresh the game was called off.

Had the game proceeded it would have found the Pirates practically intact with the exception of Manager Clarke, who is still confined to bed, and who will not be able to accompany the team on the coming eastern trip, though his physicians report that he is getting better. Capt. Tommy Leach, who was out of Wednesday's game by reason of sickness, was out at his old position and Patsy Flaherty had warmed up and was ready to do the pitching. The Cardinals had spent their time in preliminary practice and the Pirates were chasing the ball about the field when the rain interfered and put an end to the sport.

The postponement of the game will necessitate double headers between Pittsburgh and St. Louis today and tomorrow. The Cardinals close their series here Saturday and will not return again this season. This fact forced the Pirates into two double bills which, owing to their condition, they would rather not give. Leach has Case and Flaherty down to pitch the games. Kruger will be in left field. Smith will be behind the bat, although Carisch may be called upon to catch one of the games.

Manager Nichols of the Cardinals is well supplied with pitching talent with Corbett, McFarland and Taylor ready for work. Nichols himself has been bothered by a bruised hand, but if needed he could pitch one of the remaining games of the series, which is to decide whether Pittsburgh is to go east in the first division or not.

On Saturday night Manager Leach will take his team to Cincinnati for one game, and on Monday will return to play off at Exposition park, a postponed game with Chicago. Monday night the club will start east. Leach has decided to take only the men who are fit to play. They will make the best fight possible.

Each Team Won a Game.

BOSTON, July 28.—Boston and Philadelphia broke even in a double-header today. The visitors took the first, 7 to 1, on poor work by McNichols in the box, and timely hitting. The Bostons won the second, 4 to 0, scoring all their runs in the eighth after Corridon had missed his chance to retire the side. Score:

SHARON DECLINES ISSUE WITH HOMESTEAD CLUB

Independent Association Keeps Ban on Steel Workers—Gossip About the Players.

The Independent association has scored another blow against the Homestead L. A. C. team, an expelled member of that body, by refusing to permit Sharon to keep its engagement with the Steel Workers this week at Homestead. Sharon was scheduled to play at Homestead today and tomorrow but Manager Ed Murphy of Sharon has been advised by the president of the association not to play with Homestead until it is reinstated. Sharon will play the Erie team at Sharon today and tomorrow.

Upon his arrival home from Johnstown last night, Manager Risher of Homestead stated that he had not been advised by the Sharon management that the games were off. "I telegraphed Mr. Moyer Monday morning asking about some minor details concerning the games, but received no answer. I cannot understand why Sharon did not inform me of the move. I was told by Sharon that the scheduled arranged early in the season would be played out, regardless of the association mandates, and even went so far as to cancel a game with the McKeesport club for this Saturday in order to let in Sharon," said Risher.

Homestead and Sharon have played five games thus far, Homestead winning four. Nine games were still on the card, four at Sharon and five at Homestead. Risher will give his team a rest today, but will have some good attraction for Saturday.

Gossip Anent the Players.

Lew Moren, the Homestead pitcher, injured his back at Cumberland last week, and is on the hospital list. "Soldier" Mullin had to pitch again yesterday at Johnstown, his second game against that club this week.

"Red" Calhoun is regarded as the best first baseman in the New England league. The Alleghenian is playing for Haverhill and it is said he will be in faster company next year.

Portland of the Pacific Coast league, has sent Ike Francis, the local third baseman, adrift. Francis, who is a former Homestead player, jumped the Eastern league last spring.

Dick Bisel, the P. A. C. outfielder, is a comer. He hits left-handed and hits the ball on the nose for keeps.

Lewis, the South Side first baseman, who was with Alliance this year, has lots of "ginger" in a game.

Charlie DeMoss, Waynesburg's third baseman, has signed to play short for the Wheeling Central league club. Three years ago DeMoss was signed by Wheeling, but no club was placed in that place that year. Wassel of the Piqua, O., independent team, has also been signed by Wheeling, and he will make a fight for the place.

Russell, a star outfielder of the Wilmington, Del., team, has been let out by Frysinger. He immediately signed with Providence. Thomas, a brother of Roy Thomas of the Phillies, has been signed to take Russell's place.

Waynesburg, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday; Youngstown, Thursday, Friday and Saturday is Homestead's schedule next week.

The Braddock team will leave this morning for Cumberland, where it will play today and tomorrow. Emrick and McKim will pitch for Braddock.

Since the controversy between the Ohio Works of Youngstown and Sharon has been adjusted, Manager Murphy and Manager Hogan have arranged six games to be played as follows: At Sharon, August 22 and September 1. At Youngstown, August 26 and 29 and September 10.

Charlie Duffy, the Pittsburgh College first baseman, will leave for a visit to Ashtabula, O., Monday. He may play first on the team of that place, which is in the trolley league.

NILES WON GAME.

Beat Ohio Works Team After an Exciting Struggle.

NILES, O., July 28.—(Special.)—Niles and Ohio Works played a fast and hotly contested game from start to finish. Kommer and Dolan both pitched good ball. The batting of Glassburner, getting a hit each time at bat, and a phenomenal catch in the eighth inning and throwing to first, a double play were the features of the game. Score:

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—For the second time in succession the Athletics this afternoon shut out Detroit by 4 to 0. Henley did even better work than Waddell did yesterday. He struck out eight of the Tigers and held them down to two singles, one of which was scratchy. Only two of the visitors got to second base, and Detroit went out in order in eight innings.

Davis drove in three of the Athletics' runs. Twice he put the ball over the fence for homers, once also scoring Pickering. Barring one catch of a line drive by Murphy, all of the home team's chances were easy. The Tigers, however, did very brilliant work in the field, O'Leary robbing the home team of three hits by great stops and throws, and Barrett making a phenomenal one hand catch of a drive off Hartsel's bat. YALE LOOKS TO BOWMAN TO WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Baseball Captain Will Have Full Charge and Coaching System Will Be Changed.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., July 28.—Morgan H. Bowman, Jr., of Uniontown, Pa., captain of the Yale baseball nine for next season, has had presented to his notice rather forcibly the fact that Yale has lost six successive championships and that the club is the outcast of Yale athletic teams. He will make a desperate attempt to rally the Yale alumni and undergraduates to the support of the game, although Yale men have in some cases vowed that they will not attend a Yale game for years.

A decisive change in the Yale system will be made by Capt. Bowman. Many former players, now New York alumni, have been in the habit of running up for an afternoon, have taken charge of the team and have often changed the plans of the captain and coach. There will be a stop to this. Capt. Bowman and some head coach whom he appoints will be in full charge. Dr. W. H. Murphy, the former Yale and New York National league shortstop, has resigned as coach after a two-year's stay in which he had no authority, and was simply an assistant coach to Capt. Winslow, who was the final seat of authority at Yale. Bowman is said to be thinking of going behind the bat next year. He formerly caught in the Hill school, where he prepared for Yale.

The New York alumni, Messrs. Carter, Case, Camp, Beall and other former Yale players, asked Capt. Winslow last winter to cut out professional pitchers and coachers in the cage work, and their advice was taken. Yale had some fine pitching material, but it all went to waste. The Yale pitchers are pretty sure to have professional coaching the coming winter. Of last year's nine Bowman, Jackson, Wallace, O'Brien, Hulskamp, Smith, Miller and Cote return another year.

HEAVY DOWNPOUR DID NOT STOP THE RACING

Brighton Beach Track Inches Deep in Mud—Water Stable Struck by Lightning.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—A heavy storm broke over Brighton Beach today, and when the first race was run the water on the track was three or four inches deep. As a result, the program was ruined, the owners scratching their horses as they did not wish to risk them in the sloppy going.

In a close finish St. Valentine, the favorite, won the Iroquois stakes, one mile and a furlong, by a head from Gold Saint, who was two and a half lengths in front of Knight Errant. Gold Saint broke in front and led his field for a mile, when Redfern brought St. Valentine up with a well-timed rush and won.

Jockey Hildebrand narrowly escaped serious injury in the fifth race, when his mount, Cloverland, went down. In the rush for the rail soon after the start, Lord Melbourne slightly interfered with Cloverland, who slipped and fell. Fortunately the jockey was unhurt.

During the storm lightning struck the stable occupied by E. I. Graves and Frank Clarkson, at Gravesend, killing the two 2-year-olds who order the race, and C. W. R. Dinah Shad was reported killed, but she was only stunned. The stable was almost completely destroyed, the lightning tearing a hole through the center.

SPECTATORS IN TERROR.

Bolt of Lightning Caused a Great Scare in Big Crowd at Brighton Beach.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, July 28.—(Special.)—The wildest terror was caused among 8,000 spectators at the races here this afternoon by a bolt of lightning striking the Liverpool jump of the steeplechase course. The bolt came only 2 minutes after the finish of the steeplechase, which was the second race on the card.

During the race a big black storm cloud hung around the track and gusts of wind and flashes of lightning pointed to the approaching storm. Suddenly there was a blinding flash, and then a bolt of fire struck the Liverpool pump. As though hit by a shell, the cross beams of the obstacle were splintered into atoms and sent broadcast in a shower. The current passing down into the ditch lifted the mud and water 25 feet into the air.

For the next 10 minutes, until the storm passed, the race track patrons were terror-stricken for fear the next bolt would bring the grand stand down over their heads.

CHANGED DRIVERS HAD NO EFFECT

Judges at Detroit Set McLaughlin Down, but New Man Could Not Handle China Maid.

JOE POINTER WAS BEATEN

DETROIT, July 28.—Despite the rain of last night, the Grosse Pointe track was in good condition this afternoon for the fourth day's racing. The Chamber of Commerce consolation stake for 2:24 class pacers and the 2:05 pace were the features of the day's card. China Maid, which was well thought of by many for the Chamber of Commerce on Monday, was made favorite for the consolation, selling before the race for $100 with the field $40. Judge Denny was drawn before the race and only three horses scored. China Maid broke badly at the first quarter in the first heat and again at the turn into the stretch and was so far behind that if Angus Pointer had been driven out the mare would have been distanced.

The judges took McLaughlin from behind China Maid for the second heat, but the new driver was no more successful with her. The mare broke again at the first turn in the second heat and was hopelessly beaten before she turned into the back stretch. Angus Pointer had no trouble beating West.

Joe Pointer sold for $50 and the field of three horses for $45 before the 2:05 pace. Frank Yoakum led on the last turn in the first heat and as the horses came into the stretch McClary began a furious drive with Joe Pointer. He gained steadily, but failed by half a head to reach Yoakum. The bettors still made Pointer favorite for the second heat, but Frank Yoakum had the speed and beat the gelding more decisively than in the first heat. Bob Hughes had no trouble winning the 2:17 pace in straight heats. Ilive, driven by Ed. Geers, was a hot favorite for the 2:25 trot, but Leta had the speed, winning in straight heats. The second heat, which Leta won by half a head, was one of the best races of the meeting. The summaries:

GOVERNOR PRAISES THE FOURTEENTH

Adjutant General Stewart and Inspector General Sweeney Compliment Regiment.

BRIGADE IS IN FINE SHAPE

By JOHN P. COWAN.
(Staff Correspondent.)
[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CAMP COL. M. S. QUAY, GETTYSBURG, PA., July 28.—Gen. John A. Wiley's Second brigade will stand at the head of the division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania when the final returns are made by the inspection officers who today put the officers and men of the various regiments of the brigade through the rigorous discipline of summer inspection.

At the head of the brigade no regiment will surpass Pittsburgh's Fourteenth, and when the boys marched off the parade ground today with the personal compliments of Gov. Pennypacker, Adjutant General Stewart and Inspector General Frank G. Sweeney, they swung into camp with light hearts and elastic step. Cheers rang through the regiment and the soldiers expect to repeat the good showing they made at the spring inspection. This was the biggest day in camp and all ceremonies, with the exception of the inspection of the cavalry and artillery, which will be held tomorrow morning, are at an end. The climax was reached in the governor's review, which was held in the field opposite the Codori farm house, where Pickett's men swept in his immortal charge.

Marched Past Governor's Carriage.

For two hours the pride of Pennsylvania's soldiers marched past the governor's carriage and back into camp. It was an ideal day and 15,000 visitors lined the parade ground and cheered the soldiers as they passed in review. Tomorrow night the flag that floats in front of the governors' tent in the "Bloody Angle" will be lowered for the last time and camp Col. M. S. Quay will become a memory, a pleasant memory for every friend and member of the Pennsylvania guard. The Western Pennsylvania regiments will reach home on Saturday.

"Col. Thompson, let me congratulate you, your regiment has made a very, very presentable appearance." With these words Col. Sweeney hailed the Fourteenth's commander at the close of the inspection. Already every captain in the regiment had been complimented and the word ran down the line to the soldiers in the ranks. There were tears of joy in the eyes of some of the boys and their faces were flushed with pride.

"I have not seen better alignment in any regiment in the division," said Gov. Pennypacker. The inspection lasted just 45 minutes, while that of some of the other commands required two hours for the examination of arms and accoutrement. No faults were overlooked. Just two rusty guns were found, one sergeant had placed his bayonet in the scabbard the wrong way and one soldier had a specked belt.

"Adjutant, why didn't you bring the band down here in front?" demanded Col. Sweeney of Adjutant McGovern. It was a superfluous query and was a compliment to Nirella's musicians. After that the band played while the officers walked down the lines inspecting the various companies.

Governor the Real Inspector.

Gov. Pennypacker was the real inspector. He let Col. Sweeney examine the arms and accoutrement, but the commander-in-chief devoted all his time to a close inspection of the men. There was not a brass button that he did not see. He wore his campaign hat and his long frock coat and passed among the boys with a kindly smile or stern reproof, just as he thought the soldier merited. The governor is beloved by the men and he is probably the most popular man in the division.

The Tenth's officers received compliments for the improvement the regiment had made and in guard mount it was declared to excel every organization in the division, having completed the drill in 15 minutes. The Eighteenth was praised for its general appearance and the Sixteenth and Fifteenth likewise made a good impression.

The Eighteenth regiment made a good showing, with the exception of two companies, which showed arms having signs of rust. These companies were ordered to appear at Division headquarters at 6 o'clock tonight for reinspection. The Sixteenth was the first regiment called out this morning, but Gov. Pennypacker was on the field 10 minutes in advance and waited in his carriage for the soldiers to arrive. In the afternoon the Tenth and Fifth were inspected and all the regiments in the brigade were then called out for extended order drills and outpost duty. Every regiment made a fine showing and Gen. Wiley was congratulated. With but a few minutes' rest, the regiments of the Second brigade were called out to participate in the governor's review.

Medal Presented to Stewart.

Tonight Gov. Pennypacker presented the Riley medal for long service to Adjutant General Stewart. The gift is a memorial left by the late William Moffat Riley of Philadelphia, who bequeathed $500 to be placed on interest, the proceeds of which were to be used in the purchase of a silver medal to be given to the oldest member of the guard at each division encampment. Gen. Stewart joined the guard on September 28, 1869.

A terrific rain storm late this afternoon swept over Adams county. Tonight the camp is flooded. A demented man, who posed as a lieutenant in the regular army, is in the hospital of the Tenth regiment in a critical condition. He will be turned over to the Adams county authorities.

Company M, of Grove City, has again been awarded the prize banner for the highest standard in drill in the Sixteenth regiment.

A sword was presented to Capt. John L. Gans by Col. Barnett on behalf of the members of the Connellsville company of the Tenth regiment, tonight.

Telegraphers' Convention Closed.

The Pittsburgh delegates to the annual convention of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, at St. Paul, arrived home yesterday. They succeeded in having Pittsburgh represented on the executive board, W. F. Craig, Jr., being elected. The headquarters of the organization will be moved from New York to Chicago.

At the auction sale of the stock of the J. G. Roak Co., held Thursday morning by the Fidelity Title & Trust Company, receiver, the entire stock was bought by the Rosenbaum Company. Immediately after the sale was made the Rosenbaum Company transferred the garments to their own stock rooms. GUARD SAVES BATHER'S LIFE

Cuts Radial Artery in Effort and Nearly Bleeds to Death.

NEW GUESTS AT THE SEASHORE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Young's Ocean Pier,
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 28.

While rescuing an exhausted bather from the surf in the vicinity of Young's pier this morning, Life Guard Asa Parker had his wrist so badly lacerated that one of the main arteries was severed. Drastic measures were taken to keep the guard from bleeding to death. He is now resting easily at the City hospital. A guard who witnessed the rescue believes that Parker caught his wrist on a pin in the woman's suit.

On account of the complaints that have been registered against ponies on the beach front, Mayor Stoy has announced that they must be taken from the beach as a safeguard against the serious injury of some of the thousands of men, women and children that lounge daily on the sands.

Complaints have also been made during the past two weeks by cottagers and hotel proprietors against the large number of men and women that walk through the side streets of the city to the beach in their bathing suits, contrary to the city ordinance governing such cases. Some of them thus clad even use the boardwalk. With water streaming from their suits, two women and a man promenaded the walk recently while pedestrians correctly attired were forced to make way for them or get wet.

Zozo Kenilworth, who achieved some notoriety in Pittsburgh, with the assistance of the police, bobbed up today in a new lime light. A woman has appeared here who declares she has been his wife for four years, and she proceeded to make things hot for him. She is Helen Bohm, an actress, who was in Eugene Blair's Company last year. SOCIETY

THE public baths committee will invite architects to present competitive designs for the Soho public baths and wash house. This was decided upon yesterday morning at the meeting of the committee. The requirements for the building will be prepared in a short time and before September it is expected that an invitation will be given to local architects and others to engage in a competition for designs for the building, which it is proposed shall be erected at a minimum cost of $75,000, and will be as complete in every detail as architects and the women who have made a study of the subject can devise.

At the meeting of the public baths committee a sub-committee of the permanent civic committee of Western Pennsylvania, which was held yesterday morning, it was announced that the papers had been signed in the purchase of the property, 2414 Fifth avenue, by the permanent civic committee and the Civic club of Allegheny county, under whose joint auspices this work of establishing public baths in Pittsburgh is being conducted, the papers being signed by Miss Kate C. MacKnight, president of the Civic club, and Mrs. Dallas Albert, secretary, the Civic club being the chartered organization, though the permanent civic committee is the active working body. The initial payment has also been made, the first regular payment to be made next November. The property, consisting of a lot 96 feet front, with a depth of 80 feet, upon which stands a brick dwelling of 18 rooms, was purchased from S. Lenchner for $15,500 after thorough inspection by the city building inspectors, who decided in its favor after much consideration. The property adjoins that of St. Agnes' Roman Catholic church, and between the two is an alley, four feet wide, which will be kept open for communication between Fifth avenue and Forbes street, thus affording ready access to the public baths building from the lower part of the Soho district and from that part of the South Side adjacent to the Twenty-second street bridge.

The majority of the committee considers it most advisable to erect the public baths and wash house upon the foundations of the present building, possibly enlarging the foundations to take in the whole lot, which is not at present built on. The plans as now considered call for baths, both tub and shower, for men and women, rest and reading rooms, and in that portion of the structure which will be below the level of Fifth avenue, which is at least two stories in the rear toward Forbes street, a swimming pool will be fitted up whose dimensions will be not less than 35 by 75 feet. The swimming pool will be one of the most complete affairs of its kind and it is intended that it shall be constantly filled with running water, instead of having the water changed twice daily, as is the case in some institutions. In this portion of the building also will be the wash rooms and drying rooms for the use of the women of Soho, who for a nominal charge will be able to do their washing with every convenience afforded them.

The public baths committee is receiving many contributions to its fund for the Soho baths, while other larger donations are promised which will be turned over to the treasurer in the fall. One contribution of $5,000 has just been received and is immediately available.

WEALTHY PITTSBURGHER CHARGED WITH ABDUCTION

Peculiar Case Is Heard Behind Closed Doors in New York Court.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Sun this morning says:

Out of a peculiar abduction case which was heard behind closed doors by Magistrate Pool in the West Side court today there developed a story in which a rich Pittsburgh man, who is seeking a divorce from his wife, and a southern girl figure.

Virginia H. Bowles, the daughter of John P. Bowles, a planter of Salem, Va., came to New York two years ago to finish her education. She went to live with her aunt, Mrs. Margaret E. Cheeks, at the Biltmore apartments, 58 West Fifty-eighth street. In November, 1903, she was introduced by a friend of her aunt to a young man from Pittsburgh, who is said to have made a fortune in the iron industry. They met at a theater party and the Pittsburgh man asked permission to call. On December 3 last, according to Miss Bowles, she accepted an invitation to the theater. After the show they went to a hotel, where, she says, the Pittsburgh man assaulted her.

The following day the man told the girl that he would provide for her until he could secure a divorce from his wife and then would marry her. Miss Bowles agreed to this proposition, and going home took her aunt into her confidence.

In the next three months Mrs. Cheeks, the girl says, made her life so unhappy that in March she ran away and went to Chicago. Then she received a telegram from the Pittsburgh man asking her to meet him at the Hotel Lexington in Chicago. He failed to keep the appointment, but sent a second telegram telling the girl to wait there and that he would meet any bills she might run up. The young woman obeyed his instructions so well that after three weeks the management, failing to get payment, requested her to move.

It was then that the young woman met Mrs. Gertrude Taylor, a widow, who was also living at the Lexington. The girl told her that she had no place to go.

"Rather than see the poor girl turned out into the street," said Mrs. Taylor tonight, "I agreed to take care of her until she could find another home. We consulted my lawyer and he went with us to Pittsburgh to see what could be done. The man refused to recognize Virginia, but after we had been in that city two days his lawyer offered the girl $1,200 to sign a full release. This offer was, of course, refused, and we came on to New York to prosecute the man."

HURRY UP!

Everywhere one hears that expression "hurry up!" It is a genuine Americanism expressive of the "rush" in which we live. Nothing is swift enough for us. We race against steam and lightning and find them slow. We grudge the time given to eating, and rush through meals as though life depended upon our haste.

Life does depend on our haste, but not in that sense. Look at the obituary columns of the papers and see how many prominent men are carried away by "stomach trouble," "acute indigestion" and other related diseases. Their lives have in general been sacrificed to the haste and rush of business which overlooked the fact that food can only nourish the body when digested and assimilated and that the digestive and assimilative processes can't be hurried.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, cures diseases of the stomach and the associated organs of digestion and nutrition. The source of all physical strength is food, properly digested and perfectly assimilated. By enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food "Golden Medical Discovery" increases and enriches the blood supply and sends new strength to every organ of the body.

"I was at one time as I thought almost at death's door," writes Mr. J. S. Bell, of Leando, Van Buren Co., Iowa. "I was confined to my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken quantities of medicines but they only seemed to feed the disease; but I must say that 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me, and to-day I am stouter than I have been for twenty years. I am now forty-three years old."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser sent free to you on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send thirty-one one-cent stamps for cloth bound book or twenty-one stamps for paper covers to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FATHER KOVAC WAS ACQUITTED

Girl Charged Priest With Assault and He Alleged Attempted Blackmail.

VASZIL BILUNSKI'S STORY

The Rev. Father Kalman Kovac, a Hungarian Catholic priest of McKeesport, was tried in criminal court yesterday on a charge of felony preferred by Yolan Benath, who alleged the priest criminally assaulted her. He was acquitted. The prosecution alleges the assault took place June 17 last at her home in McKeesport. Attorney James F. Burke and Joseph Friedman for the defendant alleged the charge was made with intent to blackmail. They produced records which showed that the prosecutrix had made a similar charge last December against another man, but that the case had been settled.

Frederick Metzgar was convicted of a similar charge and was recommended to the extreme mercy of the court. The charge was made by Mrs. Bertha Kuepple in behalf of her 15-year-old daughter Mary.

Norman O. Elchar and George G. Plies, vehicle dealers of Latrobe, entered petitions in bankruptcy, both as a firm and as individuals. The firm's debts are given as $5,278 34, with assets of $19,056 73. Elchar gives his liabilities as $5,804 94, assets $8,490 50, and Plies gives his debts as $641 70, with assets of $376.

Quarter sessions court was theoretically adjourned yesterday afternoon on a motion of Attorney William M. Watson, out of respect for the memory of the late William G. Guiler. In making the motion Attorney Watson said: "It is my painful duty to announce to the court the death of a member of this bar, William G. Guiler, which occurred at his home on Tuesday. The illness preceding his death did not betoken his departure. Though not a native of this county, he was one of our number for some years, coming here from the Fayette county bar. He was a fine lawyer, a wide reader, a shrewd observer of the kindliest instincts and highest integrity. In token of respect to his memory I move that this court adjourn."

Robert P. Moore, clerk of common pleas court, who was appointed commissioner to take testimony at the instance of the royal criminal court of Budapest, Hungary, has taken the testimony of Vaszal Bilunski, and the matter will be forwarded to the foreign court. The witness here tells a different story that Andrew Svanda, who is imprisoned in Hungary, as mentioned by the letters rogatory. He says he merely intrusted $100 with Svanda for a few hours for safe keeping, as the latter told him there were loafers in their boarding house and they might steal the money. Then Svanda disappeared and went to Europe. Svanda's testimony was to the effect that he had been given the money to get a large bill for it, and at the postoffice was induced by a stranger on the outside to take a $100 counterfeit bill in exchange.

The following executions were issued: John Klavan vs. John Czaplewski, $2,100; Henry Sanska vs. J. Szaplewski, $1,600; Hilldorfer R. Allman vs. Thomas J. Titzel, $383 96; A. V. D. Watterson vs. Thomas M. Latimer, $2,400.

In the equity suit of John R. Flick against C. M. Pinggle, the court made an order dissolving the Braddock wagon works, a firm consisting of the two men, and placing its affairs in the hands of a receiver.

Bernard Gallagher has sued Paul Davis for $10,000 damages, alleging the defendant arrested him and locked him up in an Allegheny police station without cause.

Coleman Cobbs has sued Talman Hughes for $5,000 for alleged false arrest and imprisonment as a suspicious person.

Adolph and Amelia Buehner have entered suit against the Allegheny County Light Company to recover $10,000 for the death of Louis, their 16-year-old son. He was killed by electricity by coming in contact with an iron grating at the Jewish synagogue on Eighth street.

Judge Miller in orphans court in an opinion in the estate of E. S. Warner, passes on the question of the expediency of the claimant's appointment as administratrix, and decides that the widow is entitled to her statutory share in the estate.

Charles H. Schwarberg, late of Allegheny, leaves $5 to a son, H. M. Schwarberg, as his share of a $30,000 estate, and then leaves the residue to decedent's wife Elizabeth, with provision that it goes to two daughters, Mary Emma and Elizabeth, at her death or remarriage.

SUPERIOR COURT DECISIONS.

Plumbing Act for Cities of the Second Class Is Held to Be Constitutional.

The superior court, sitting at Philadelphia, handed down a number of opinions in Western Pennsylvania cases yesterday and adjourned until October. In the case of J. A. Dunshee, an attorney of Pittsburgh, against the Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. It was an action to recover a weekly premium for damages sustained through an accident. A compulsory non-suit was granted in the lower court through the alleged negligence of the plaintiff in not giving notice of his claim within the time specified in the conditions of the policy.

In the case of Barnes et al against the Pittsburgh Railways Company a compulsory non-suit was granted but judgment was reversed and a new venire awarded. In Reid against the United Traction Company, a case where a bicycle rider was run down by a car, the judgment was affirmed as the plaintiff had the right of way.

Judge Smith handed down an opinion affirming the right of the borough of Braddock to impose a tax on the poles and wires of the Allegheny Telephone Company, the ordinance being a valid exercise of the police power of the borough.

In the case of Betz against the city of Pittsburgh, the constitutionality of the plumbing act was in question, as exclusively published in The Gazette at the time. Assistant City Attorney Levine won a victory in having the act upheld, which the superior court affirms. Betz claimed the city had no authority to supervise the construction of plumbing, but the lower court upheld the act establishing plumbing inspectors. Other Western Pennsylvania decisions were:

In re application of Thomas Shear for retail liquor license, quarter sessions, Allegheny. Order affirmed.

Phoenix Iron Works Company vs. Mullen, common pleas No. 1, Allegheny. Appeal quashed. Rice, P. J.

Miller vs. Cambria Company, common pleas, Cambria. Appeal quashed, etc.

LOST LIFE THROUGH FONDNESS FOR CHILDREN

Man's Skull Crushed by Boys Because of Failure to Defend Himself.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Kindness in heart and love for children which would not permit him to strike one of them cost Dennis Callahan, a wanderer, his life today. He died in Bellevue hospital after being shoved into the street on his head by a small boy.

Ragged and hungry, Callahan, who had been an outcast for years, trudged along Second avenue. As he reached First street a crowd of children, attracted by his unkempt appearance, swarmed about him to make sport of his wretched clothing and downcast appearance. In response to all this torment the wanderer had only smiles and gentle reproach.

One of the boys, older than the rest, gave the victim a strong, hard shove. Hunger and tramping and the exertion of resisting his tormentors had weakened the man, and he tottered in a heap and lay still. Dr. Sehuh was passing and examined the man. Only once was he able to bring him back to consciousness.

"They didn't mean it," he gasped. The doctors said the cause of death was a fractured skull. No trace could be secured of the boy who shoved the man.

NEW YORK STOCKS MADE A STRONG RALLY

Foreign Markets Led the Advance, and Prices Closed at or Near the Highest—Sterling Exchange Lower and No Gold Engaged.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a complete reversal of the tone of the markets yesterday, both at home and abroad. The uneasiness manifested in London and Paris on Wednesday, and which was reflected in Wall street, had entirely disappeared before the opening of the New York market yesterday. London prices for American securities came ½ to 1 per cent higher, and consols recovered all or nearly all of the loss of the day before. This recovery was based upon the announcement that Russia would formally withdraw its cruisers from the Red sea and that it would make ample reparation for any damage caused by the recent naval raids. An early decline in sterling exchange removed the probability of gold exports this week, and while it is admitted that this country could spare a large amount of gold, it has seldom happened that a bull market occurs while specie is being exported.

The ease with which prices advanced suggests that much of the selling of the day before had been for short account, and that possibly the short interest was as large now as at any time during the past few weeks. Initial prices showed gains of ⅛ to ¾ per cent, and as a rule they proved to be the lowest of the day. Steel preferred opened ⅛ higher at 59¾ and the final sale was at 60⅞, representing a net gain of 1⅝ per cent for the day. This is rather remarkable, and the rise was in face of opposition from the professional traders, who are bearish on the market. The minor iron and steel issues also advanced and closed at substantial recoveries. Amalgamated Copper opened at 50¾, ex-dividend of ½ per cent, and advanced to 51⅝ at the close, which represented a net gain of 1¼ per cent.

The most prominent feature of the afternoon trading was the strength displayed by Union Pacific. This stock had opened ¾ per cent higher at 95¼, and the final sale was at 97, an advance of 2⅝ per cent for the day. The short interest was largely responsible for this rise, but at the same time the movement was regarded as significant of the attitude of the big men who have been back of the market for a month past. Southern Pacific was quoted exright to subscribed for the new preferred stock. It opened 1⅜ per cent lower at 48⅝, but rallied with the rest of the list to 49½. Another prominently strong stock was St. Paul, which opened higher at 145¾ and reached 147¼ at the close. Atchison rallied 2 per cent and Missouri Pacific almost as much.

In the tractions the activity of Metropolitan was the feature, and this stock made the largest advance for the day, rising from 114½ to 117¾, and closing at 117¼ bid. The basis for this movement was the publication of the schedules in the Whitney estate, which showed that there was no large amount of any of the traction securities to be liquidated. There was also a revival of the rumors of a deal with Interborough, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit sympathized with the general strength.

It would appear from the course of the market yesterday, which was a complete surprise, that while Wednesday's sharp reaction checked buying for account of the public, it did not shake out much long stock, and that the selling was mainly for short account. The foreign situation is as yet not entirely cleared, and the domestic situation contains the elements of disturbance in the prevailing labor troubles; but if the operations of the past week are repeated several times—that is, if the market readily recovers from any sharp reactions—the public will ultimately make up its mind that this is a bull market, and will buy freely on the drives made by the bears.

The weekly statements of the foreign government banks yesterday furnished sufficient reason for the firmer discount rates in London and Paris. The Bank of England reported a decrease in reserve of $1,135,000 and an increase in loans of $19,870,000. The reserve to liability has dropped from 50.70 last week to 47.25 per cent at the present time. The Bank of France reported a decrease of $2,330,000 in gold and an expansion in loans of no less than $25,400,000 for the week. The Bank of England rate of discount remained unchanged at 3 per cent, but the foreign money market is now so far out of line with New York that it would not be surprising if some gold were shipped in August.

The local stock market was extremely dull and narrow. The largest dealings were in United States preferred, 1,159 shares changing hands at 59½ to 60¾. The common rallied to 11⅞ on sales of 200 shares. When it is stated that the total sales of all stocks were only 1,967 shares, the stagnation in the rest of the list may be imagined. Aside from United States Steel and Westinghouse Electric, the tone of the market was rather heavy. Pittsburgh Brewing bonds sold at 113, an advance of 1 per cent.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Only 20 shares Manufacturers Light & Heat at 31¾ changed hands all day, and the stock closed at that price bid. The story of a new bond issue, which was published by a morning paper yesterday is said to be unfounded. Officials of the company positively deny that any new issue of bonds "in any way, shape or manner is or has been contemplated by the Manufacturers Light & Heat Company."

The ease with which United States Steel preferred rallied 2 points yesterday suggests that the floating supply of the stock is comparatively light, or that the short interest is much larger than anyone has been willing to admit. It used to be said of Steel preferred that the volume of the stock was so great that it could not be easily moved in the market, and for a long time this was true. When Mr. Keene was in control of the stock and manipulating the market for the purpose of distributing the surplus holdings of the promoters the fluctuations were comparatively narrow. After the distribution had been completed the stock continued narrow. Throughout the month of July, 1902, for instance, the extreme fluctuations were covered by 3⅝ per cent, and during the following month of August the range was only 1⅜ per cent. The great bulk of the stock has apparently lodged in the hands of the public and is held for an investment. Relatively the floating supply is still large, because there is a total of $360,000,000 outstanding, but the recent action of the market suggests that even Steel preferred may become oversold and conditions prevail that would make the position of the bears uncomfortable.

The Westinghouse stocks were very dull yesterday. Only 25 shares Electric changed hands at 78½, and that price was bid at the close. There were no sales of Airbrake, which was nominally quoted at 131 bid, 134 asked.

"I will tell you what I think will some day happen to this United States Steel common stock," remarked an old-time Pittsburgh oil broker, who long ago retired from the market. "About five years from now the public will take the stock off the hands of the big men who have been and will continue to accumulate it, and will pay 75 for it. If you stop to think a bit, that $500,000,000 common stock has a market value of about $60,000,000 and its market value has not been higher than that at any time during the past eight months. Within that period some one has been buying hundreds of thousands of shares of this nondividend paying stock. Just now no one on the outside feels that it will ever declare another dividend. Five years, however, may mark a wonderful difference in iron trade conditions. If the statisticians are right the normal increase in consumption of iron and steel products will render the present producing capacity inadequate to meet the demand. Two good years would make a wonderful difference in the condition of the Steel corporation. No one on the outside will know the extent of the improvement in the financial condition of the corporation. Some day it will all be flashed upon the public, dividends will be resumed, and the market value of the stock will soar. Things which looked more unlikely than that have occurred in the railroad world."

Local coal stocks were quieter yesterday than for a long time. Of the 39 shares Pittsburgh Coal preferred which changed hands all day, 30 shares represented a sale at auction for account of whom it may concern. There were no dealings in nor bid for the common stock. River Coal preferred was a shade firmer at 19⅛ bid.

The directors of the Kansas City Stock Yards Company have passed the regular quarterly August dividend of 1½ per cent, the first break in the dividend record of this company for many years.

At a special meeting of Eastern Steel Company stockholders at Pottsville, Pa., which ratified the increase of the capital by $2,500,000 preferred and $1,200,000 common to a total of $9,400,000, President Veryl Preston stated that $1,500,000 will be needed to complete the plant, and after completion there should be an annual profit of nearly that much, exclusive of the bridge plant.

The General Railway Signal Company, capital $5,000,000 has been formed by the consolidation of the Pneumatic Signal Company of Rochester, N. Y., and the Taylor Signal Company, Buffalo.

The directors of the Houston Electric Company, Boston, have passed the semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable August 1 upon its $500,000 of stock. This is a Stone and Webster property and is the first of their properties to pass a preferred stock dividend.

The completion of a stock market settlement in London was a helpful factor to the market in addition to the relaxed tension in international relations, as an easier money market abroad is now looked for.

It is said that there has been a strong bucket shop element in the recent decline. These institutions have been losing money steadily for the last month and found their customers last Friday sufficiently extended to make a "killing" profitable. Most of the stock of this character seems to have been shaken out.

It is reported that the syndicate that purchased $31,000,000 of the New York city bonds at the May sale has disposed of $28,000,000 of them. This leaves only $3,000,000 in the hands of the syndicate. The price is held firmly at the top price, 104 and interest. The success the syndicate has had in selling these bonds has surprised even the most optimistic members of it. When the bonds were purchased it was thought that it would take at least nine months to dispose of them. Instead nearly all of the bonds have been sold in 12 weeks.

The following dispatch from Birmingham, Ala., may have some bearing upon the rise in Tennessee Coal & Iron: There is no doubt that the southern iron market has considerably strengthened the past 10 days, the basis of business being now $9 50 for No. 2 foundry, and with none sold at less than that price. The Tennessee company has only one furnace in operation at Bessemer, but continues five in blast at Ensley, where it is supplied with convict coal. This iron enters largely into steel manufacture. The steel industries are, therefore, independent of wage troubles. The Sloss-Sheffield continues to operate six furnaces on the usual basis, the four in Birmingham getting convict coal and those in the Florence and Sheffield field coal from centers not affected by the strike. Decrease in the output has probably had something to do with the better tone of the market.

A Wall street "bear" makes this comment: "I think that the street would have greater faith in the United States Steel Company if they would give us more information as to the writing off done by the subsidiary companies before the reports are sent to the present company. At present it is impossible to form an intelligent opinion as to whether the company is doing what ought to be done in the way of keeping up the plants and making large enough allowances for depreciation. One of the officials of one of the largest steel companies outside of the trust tells me that the trust is turning out poor goods, more especially poor rails, and that his company is in consequence getting business which would naturally go to the trust."

The announcement that $10,000,000 payment would be made next week on the Cuban loan with probable demand for at least half that amount in gold for the remittance to Havana seems to be accepted with equanimity, which was furthered by the assurances from the bankers concerned that care would be taken not to disturb the money market in arranging for the further remittances.

Reports of the intended further curtailment in the output of anthracite did not prevent the coalers from sharing in the day's strength, with Reading as one of the leaders of the advance.

In the years ended December 31, 1902 and 1903, the United States Steel Corporation charged for sinking funds and depreciation the following amounts:

	1902.	1903.
Sinking funds, bonds of sub. cos	$ 624,064	$ 1,508,012
Dep. and exting. fds	4,834,710	4,490,822
Ex. replacement fds	9,315,614	9,297,530
Special deprec. and im.	10,000,000	10,000,000
Sink. fd U. S. St. Cr bds	3,040,000	3,797,500
Total	$27,814,388	$29,292,864

Thus, in 1902 the average for these funds was $2,225,000 per month, or, say, $7,000,000 per quarter, and in 1903 the average was $2,500,000 per month, or $7,500,000 per quarter. For the six months of the current fiscal year the allowance for these purposes appears to be approximately $7,500,000 or only one-half of the amount that would have been allowed on the same basis as 1903. In other words, the company for the first six months of this year has cut in half its appropriations for sinking fund, depreciation, etc., and it has clearly done this in order to pay dividends on the preferred stock. Inasmuch as the surplus over dividends for the first six months is less than $1,000,000, and inasmuch as the total dividends paid, together with the surplus, was $15,500,000, it is clear that if the company had made the same allowance for sinking funds, depreciation, etc., in the current year as it did last year, there would have been left for dividend on the preferred stock but $6,000,000 from the six months' earnings. This would have been just about enough to pay one quarterly dividend.

A certificate of incorporation was filed at Dover, Del., yesterday for the National Investment Company of Pittsburgh, to issue and sell certificates of stocks, debentures, etc. Incorporators are Jasper S. Munsell, D. B. Neagley, Pittsburgh; James A. Evearts, Uniontown, Pa. Capital stock $200,000.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The United Verde Copper Company has just paid a dividend of 75 cents a share. This is the fifth dividend of this amount to be declared this calendar year, making disbursements to stockholders of $1,125,000 in 1904.

News comes from the Independence section of the Twin Lakes district of a rich strike made in the Ruby mine in one of the lower levels. This property has produced some very rich ore, but nothing like the discovery made this week. The ore runs $4,000 a ton and the vein is of good size. The ore from the whole of the streak is shipped to the smelter without sorting and nets $1,000 a ton. The property is about 18 miles from the town of Dayton, Col., and considerable excitement has been created by the recent strike.

The annual report of the Butterfly-Terrible shows a decrease in output and increase in expenses. Owing to labor troubles last fall the mill was closed for two months. In this interval a number of improvements were made. From July 1, 1903, to June 30, 1904, 15,798 tons of ore were mined and milled. The strike alone is estimated to have cost the company $50,000 directly and indirectly. During the past year there was shipped to the United States mint 5,831.51 ounces, after melting, of bullion, containing $85,522 88 gold and $817 07 silver. There was shipped to the Durango smelter 649.55 net tons of concentrates of an average value of $27 06 a ton, for which the company received net returns of $11,993 89 after paying smelting charges and railroad transportation of $5,587 54.

The Jessie group and 40-stamp and concentration mill in Gold Run is proving a success under the management of the Griffith lease. Forty stamps are now pounding away on gold ore. Associated with the gold ore of the large veins of the Jessie group are stringers and streaks of heavy lead ore, carrying gold, silver and lead values amounting to $80 a ton. A carload of this crude heavy lead ore was shipped last week with the usual number of carloads of concentrates, to the Breckenridge branch sampler of the Chamberlain-Dillingham Ore Purchasing Company.

The Keystone Hydraulic Mining Company, operating near Telluride, has just completed a partial cleanup with flattering results. Two hundred feet at the head of the great gold sluice yielded 464 ounces, or about $10,000. The sluices are 1,500 feet in length, and much gold is known to remain in the riffles below the point where the cleanup was made. This gold will be recovered at the close of the season, when a general cleanup will be made. These results were obtained in a run of 27 days. The washing was done over a long slope of heavy gravel and boulders, no bedrock being represented. It is estimated that not more than one-third of the values contained in the dirt washed reached the sluices, which fact makes the results in the recent cleanup all the more remarkable.

The Minnie Moore mine, located at Bellevue, Idaho, control of which was recently acquired by Charles M. Schwab, has a romantic history. It is the most widely known and oldest silver mine in the Wood River mining district. It was discovered at the grass roots by the excavations of a badger by Thomas Moore, somewhere in the early '80s. It was known for a long time as the Badger mine, from the nature of the discovery, but later the discoverer christened it in honor of his daughter, Minnie, and it was under this appellation that the mine became known all over the United States. Fortunes have been taken from it. The record of its output is placed somewhere between $8,000,000 and $9,000,000. It was closed down in the fall of 1890, immediately after the assassination of Superintendent Kinnear by the company assayer. It was then owned by an English company, which became disgusted at the scandal and the declining value of silver. The pumps were drawn and the mine allowed to fill with water. The company had paid $500,000 for the property. After this episode the mine lay idle until about two years ago, when the present owners, for whom Irvin E. Rockwell is superintendent, took the property, pumped out the water, retimbered the mine and resumed operations. A rich strike was made near the 300-foot level and the mine has yielded immense profits since. It is a shaft property and formerly employed about 350 men.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The London tin market was a little easier for spot, which closed at £122 7s 6d, while futures were unchanged at £122 15s. Locally, the market was quiet and unchanged at $26 87½@27 05. Copper remains unchanged in the local market. Lake Superior is quoted at $12 62½@12 87½; electrolytic at $12 62½@12 75, and casting at $12 37½@12 50. RECREATION PARK HAS BEEN SOLD

Will Be Used for a Summer Amusement Enterprise Which Will Cost $500,000.

A CIRCUS IN MIDAIR

Papers were signed yesterday by which Thompson & Dundy, the summer park proprietors, and Frederick Ingersoll, the local park manager, acquired Recreation park, Allegheny. The well-known eastern firm of Thompson & Dundy have joined hands with Ingersoll and the result will be a summer park which will not be surpassed by any in the country. The deal was consummated yesterday, when Frank Marshall Kattenstroth signed the papers along with Frederick Ingersoll of Fourth avenue. The tract acquired is 400x600 feet and has been known as the Coliseum for some years. It will run from May until September.

Frederick Ingersoll had acquired the tract when he got into communication with Thompson & Dundy, who have various large enterprises of the same sort in the east, including the latest novelty at Coney Island, Luna park. Ingersoll himself has many parks in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio and in the west, and the two firms came together. The result is that one of the largest amusement enterprises in this part of the country is to be started next season, the opening day being May 14.

Looking for a Site.

Work on the grounds is to be begun early next month. The Thompson & Dundy people had been looking for a site, and for a time the Schenley plot in Oakland had been sought after, but finally, seeing the patronage of the baseball grounds and the short distance Recreation park was from the center of the city, Recreation park was selected. This resulted in the deal between Mr. Ingersoll and the eastern managers.

It has been arranged that the street cars will run a loop there for the convenience of patrons, and General Manager John Murphy of the Pittsburgh Railways Company had a conference with the amusement men, at which he explained that the street car service will be of the best during the time the parks are open in the summer months. The eastern firm was attracted to Pittsburgh because of the theatrical success it enjoys during the winter months, and they believe that during the summer there is so little amusement inside the city that a resort like those in the great eastern ocean resorts would be appreciated. Plans for the work are already under way.

Circus in the Air.

One of the features will be a hanging circus, planned after the famous hanging gardens of Babylon. The arena will be many feet in the air, supported on arches, and under them will be a lake into which those who shoot the chutes will plunge. By having this aerial arena the proprietors will economize space. While the circus exhibitions are taking place about 40 feet in the air merrymakers who like to try the chutes will be descending a steep grade which will land them in an electrically lighted lake underneath the arena.

Electricity is to be one of the features of the park and the entire enterprise will cost about $500,000. There will be 100,000 incandescent lights on the grounds, with a tower 250 feet high modeled after the Eiffel tower. On top of it will be an immense searchlight which will reach almost every part of the two cities, and from the top will be strung, as from a May pole, long lines of colored lights, making a sort of electric canopy for the entire grounds.

There will be about 150 buildings on the grounds with all the latest novelties. There will be a show known as "Fire and Flame," which shows the destruction of a city by fire and the methods of rescue used by all fire brigades.

There will be another pavilion with an illusion known as "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," which gives those who try it the impression they are making a trip in a submarine boat. "A Trip to the Moon" and the various other shows will also be presented. There will be a duplication of the great Delhi durbar, with 65 elephants and 20 camels in line, and on the opening day these animals will be used to take part in a big street parade.

These are the ordinary shows on what might be called "The Pike," but in the aerial circus will be such novelties as the boxing stallions, who are fanned by pony trainers during the rests between rounds. These animals have never been seen in Pittsburgh and have to be muzzled so that they cannot bite each other, because they enter into the spirit of the combat.

The ordinary park diversions will not be overlooked. Mr. Ingersoll has had much experience with summer parks and will see to it that there are bands and orchestras to provide music for dancing. Pavilions for those who want to "trip the light fantastic" will be scattered about the grounds. For the merely spectacular it is proposed to have a court of honor, from which the waterfall used in shooting the Chutes will start. Playing on this will be electric machines to turn the flowing water into all sorts of rainbows.

Some adjoining property has also been purchased, and one of the buildings will be turned into a temporary hospital, so that those who may be overcome by heat can be looked after. The scheme is a big one for a city that never had anything of the sort, but the managers are confident that Pittsburgh and Allegheny can support it. The admission fee will be nominal, because both of the parties interested know the park business from the Atlantic to the Mississippi.

TRAILERS IN THE SKY.

Novel Method of Distributing Free Tickets to the Burning of Rome.

Several hundred of the consignment of mammoth balloons received yesterday afternoon by Manager Thomas F. Kirk, Jr., from Pain's fireworks factory, Long Island, will be sent up this evening from Monument hill, Allegheny, and from some central location in East Liberty.

By means of a novel device known in the vernacular of the pyrotechnists as a "trailer," a series of the most brilliant illuminations are secured after the balloon reaches a sufficient altitude. It is therefore anticipated that when several hundred are sent up at the same time the effect will be one of great beauty. The fact that an order for two seats for any performance of "The Burning of Rome" are to be tied to each balloon gives added interest to the scheme.

Owing to the unusually heavy demand for reserved seats for "The Burning of Rome," it has been found expedient to establish branch offices at the Siegfried Drug Company, Highland and Center avenues, and at the R. M. Sterrett drug store, 6030 Penn avenue, so that residents of that section of the city may secure seats without the inconvenience of a trip down town. The principal ticket office has been established at Raubitscheck's, Sixth avenue and Smithfield street, where seats may be secured for any performance.

MUSIC FOR THE EXPO.

Orchestras Engaged for the Entire Season at the Big Point Show.

The musical scheme for the coming season of the New Pittsburgh Exposition has been completed as follows: Creatore, August 31 to September 6; Sousa, September 10-17; Victor Herbert, September 19-24; Boys' New York Symphony Orchestra, September 26-October 1; Banda Rossa, October 3-8; Walter Damrosch, October 10-22.

A genuine novelty will be the Boys' Orchestra, under the baton of A. F. Pinto. Manager Fitzpatrick heard some of their performances in the east last week, and is most enthusiastic over their surprising excellence. This organization is composed of 60 players, each of them a prize pupil of some eminent instructor in New York City or Boston. The soloists number 16.

STOCK MARKET CLOSED WITH SUBSTANTIAL GAINS

Prices Which Had Been Declining With Vigor Suddenly Hardened.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—The Herald this (Friday) morning says:

One of those sudden and effective reversals in speculative sentiment, which are frequently seen in Wall street, took place between the closing of the stock exchange on Wednesday and the opening yesterday. Prices, which had been declining with vigor on the previous day, suddenly hardened and the market became buoyant, closing for substantial gains. The change was due to Wall street's assuming that the strained political relations between England and Russia had been relaxed and that the danger of serious international complications is effectually removed. Doubtless, the serious political condition in the early part of the week, between the two great powers was the most potent factor bringing about the slump in security values. The promise of relief and a return to pacific relations between the powers were gladly welcomed.

To say that the speculative clique whose market position had been imperiled by the decent developments made the most of the favorable news would be putting it mildly. The lead given by the London market was seized upon as a basis for the renewal of the manipulative tactics which have been generally frowned upon by the conservative element. Tips were generally circulated naming the stocks which were to be "boosted," and the market became the familiar one which old timers have been taught to fear. In the exuberance displayed by the western clique in bidding up prices the opinion could well have been entertained that the market was discounting the sudden termination of the Russo-Japanese war. At the close there were few people who did not believe that the better news from London had been largely overdone, particularly in view of the further developments in the Pacific ocean, which England has not settled. It was natural that the London market should feel buoyant as a result of favorable developments in the diplomatic negotiations with Russia. It was noticeable, however, that the Paris and German markets did not take so rosy a view of the general European situation as did the London market. This, of course, was due to the fact that the burden of the unpleasantness stirred up by Russia's activities rested almost entirely on London.

THEATRICAL MAN HELD BY GERMAN AUTHORITIES

NEW YORK, July 28.—Sam Shubert, the theatrical manager, received a cablegram today from his brother, George Shubert, stating that the latter was being held by the authorities at Aix-le-Chapelle, Germany, for having military plates in his possession. The cablegram added that Mr. Shubert had called upon United States Consul Frank H. Brundage for assistance, and had explained to him that the photographic plates which were responsible for his arrest and detention were merely for use in a new play which he proposed to produce.

CONDEMNED MURDERER GRINS AT HIS SENTENCE

NEW YORK, July 28.—(Special.)—Adolph Koenig, the Spanish war veteran who strangled Mrs. Mary E. Kaufman on May 3, was today sentenced to death in the electric chair during the week beginning September 12. Koenig affected an air of bravado on hearing the sentence. A grin overspread his face, and he said to one of the court attendants: "Well, that will hold me for a while. Come ahead, and let's get back to the Tombs."

Japanese Clergyman Here.

The Rev. Takeshi Ukai, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal church of Tokyo, the largest Protestant congregation in Japan, is in the city to secure aid in erecting a new church for his congregation. Mr. Ukai has visited all the larger cities in this country and will speak on Sunday next in the Emory, West End and Oakland Methodist Episcopal churches. His congregation has raised $16,000 towards the contemplated structure.

FINE BUILDING IN LAWRENCEVILLE

Max Klein Will Erect Ten-Story Block at 1307-9 Penn Avenue.

15 HOUSES FOR SEWICKLEY

Max Klein, the wholesale liquor dealer of Allegheny, has had plans prepared for the most pretentious building yet announced for Lawrenceville. It will be a 10-story structure occupying the lot 35x100 feet at 1307-1309 Penn avenue, nearly opposite the old market house. Mr. Klein bought the site last year from W. Siebert for $35,000, or $1,000 a front foot. It is now improved with old buildings of little value which will shortly be torn down to make room for the larger block. The plans drawn call for a fireproof structure of brick and steel, and especially adapted to the carrying of heavy weights. The first floor will be fitted up for a handsome store room and offices and the upper floors will be used for storage purposes. A deep basement under the entire building will also be provided. The approximate cost of the new building is put at $75,000, and work on it will be started in a few weeks, it is said. Mr. Klein's present location in Federal street, opposite the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railroad station in Allegheny is wanted by that railroad for track room or a new station site, but no notice has been given as to how soon possession will be demanded. The building of such a structure in Lawrenceville shows that the wholesale trade is gradually drifting that way, as was further shown last year by the substantial improvements made by the produce men who moved from Liberty avenue to the vicinity of the Allegheny Valley railroad yards.

New Projects on Every Hand.

Nothing short of serious disturbances in the labor world can prevent a very lively fall in house building in Great Pittsburgh if present indications count for anything. From every corner of the city come reports of projects involving the erection of from five to 50 houses. On the new allotments where last year very little building was done there are many large bunches of houses being started or arranged for. The latest project of this kind is that of J. M. Montgomery, president of the Consolidated stock exchange, to build 15 houses in Chadwick place, Sewickley. The houses will be eight-room reception hall brick dwellings and will face in Montgomery avenue. They will cost from $4,000 to $5,000 each. The lot plans around Sewickley are building up rapidly with a good class of houses, at least 60 dwellings being assured for this year. At Ambridge the building movement of last year has been continued and some good houses are also being built at Economy. The West Liberty district is building up at a rate that promises a population of several thousand people there within two years, as 60 houses are now under way on the five West Liberty allotments in addition to a good number of high class dwellings in the Mt. Lebanon district, which will also be greatly benefited by the tunnel line. By winter it is expected that the West View allotments out Perrysville avenue will have a population of at least 1,000 people, although one year ago there was not a house on the property.

Making Fine Lot of Stores.

William L. Abbott has transferred to the Iron City Improvement Company, a holding corporation, 240x110 feet at the southeast corner of Penn avenue and Tenth street for $650,000. Mr. Abbott purchased the property last year from the Protestant orphan asylum of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and Samuel C. Graham. There are 11 store buildings in the block which extends back to Exchange alley. The corner building was ocupied until recently by the Pickerings as a furniture warehouse. To put the building in good shape for store purposes new fronts are now being put in, the upper stories overhauled and new fixtures installed to suit the tenants. When completed the row will contain some of the most attractive store rooms on this part of Penn avenue and they should rent easily.

Through the office of Cavanagh & Co. James F. Powell has sold to Vitter Brothers of Charleroi 63 and 65 Sprague avenue, Bellevue, for $17,000. The lots are improved with two comparatively new brick houses of eight rooms each, which were bought for an investment.

Through the Real Estate Trust Company Thomas McNeil, Jr., has secured from John B. Jackson 100x246 feet in Linden avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $10,000 or $100 a front foot. This is a part of the old Aaron French property and will be improved with a fine residence.

COKE DEMAND IMPROVES; MORE OVENS TO START

Six Thousand Tons of Stock Lifted from the Yards—Shipments Decrease.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., July 28.—The demand for coke last week improved considerably and 6,000 tons of stock coke was lifted from the yards. This turn for the better in the business will result in 900 additional ovens being fired this week. The production aggregated 150,347 tons, and the shipments 156,870, taking from the yards the stock coke that has been constantly increasing. In the Masontown field the shipments aggregated 37,808 tons as compared to 36,960 tons the week previous. A few ovens were added to the active list in the Masontown field last week and it is understood that a movement is on for increased activity this week. The summary for the week shows 23,053 ovens in the region, 12,924 in blast, 450 banked, and 9,649 ovens idle. The five-day list was increased last week, thus reducing production. The operations of the active plants last week made an average of 5.74 days, as compared to 5.8 the previous week. Production in tons was 150,347, a decrease of 4,308 tons over last week.

Shipments of coke in cars amounted to 6,972 cars, a decrease of 888 cars. Shipments were distributed as follows: To Pittsburgh and river points, 2,748 cars, a decrease of 346 cars; to points west of Pittsburgh, 3,136 cars, a decrease of 68 cars; to points east of the Connellsville region, 1,090 cars, a gain of 110 cars. Shipments in tons were 156,870, as compared to 149,786 the previous week. Shipments from the Masontown field amounted to 1,386 cars, an increase of 66 cars over last week.

SUGAR AND FLOUR NEED RELIEF LOCALLY NOW

Huckleberries Have Advanced Sharply—Potatoes Up Again. Hens Are Scarce.

Refiners made further advances on sugar again yesterday, but no changes were announced by local jobbers. The situation on sugar is very firm and points to further advances soon. The flour market is in an excited condition, and has been tending more that way for several days. Jobbers are getting much less for the product than they should considering the increased cost. It is likely that something will be done to relieve the market before next week.

The arrivals of produce yesterday were comparatively small, but the supply on hand is ample as there is little demand. Potatoes advanced, sales of carloads being made on track yesterday as high as $2 15. Cabbage is looking easier. There is a decided upward tendency on huckleberries. Prices got low the first of the week and shippers put up quotations, claiming that profits were too small. Cantaloupes are getting cheaper gradually. Peaches are unchanged and the same is true of pears. Plums are coming forward freely. Apples are quoted lower, arrivals being much heavier. Peppers are here in good quantity and are lower.

Hens are scarce, although spring chickens are getting in better supply here. Provisions, including ham, bacon and lard, continue to have a stiff market and will as long as the strike situation is unsettled and so long as the warm weather lasts.

Timothy hay keeps firm with strong prices; offerings are light, however. Clover and clover mixed hay are dull and according to reports are very hard to place. Straw is arriving in very limited supply; good oats seem to be wanted, but corn is still the leader in this line. New timothy hay is coming forward freely and is offering no higher than $13 50 now.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 22 cars hay, 2 cars oats, 3 cars corn, 1 car corn and oats; Baltimore & Ohio, 7 cars hay; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 5 cars hay.

Dealers charge an advance of $3 00 per ton on hay and millfeed, and 5 cents per bushel on grain from warehouses in less than carload lots.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at a decline of 5 points on August, which was influenced by moderate liquidation, presumably by longs unwilling to receive immediate deliveries, while the other months were unchanged to 5 points higher on a fair demand promoted by a bullish crop estimate, placing the current Santos crop at 5,740,000 bags and Rio at 2,500,000 bags. For a time the market showed continued firmness, coupled with fair activity in spite of rather easier European cables, but in the later trading offerings became free and while Wall street bought moderately the market lost its advance and was finally steady at a net decline of 5 points. There were some switches but the volume of fresh business was large and the total sales footed up 183,000 bags, including July at 6.10c; August at 5.95c; September at 6.05@6.40c; December at 6.35@6.45c; March at 6.70c and May at 6.90c. Coffee—Spot steady. Sugar—Raw firm; refined firm.

WHEAT TAKES SLUMP ON LIBERAL ARRIVALS

Bearish Market Is Further Affected by Lower Foreign Cables.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, July 28.—Liberal arrivals of new wheat here and lower prices abroad caused weakness in wheat prices today, the September option closing with a net loss of ⅝@¾c. Corn is down ½c. Oats show a decline of ¼@⅜c. Provisions are 5@10c higher.

At the outset the wheat market experienced a severe setback as a result of lower cables, liberal receipts and a continuation of good weather in the northwest. September opened ½@⅝c to ⅞@1c lower at 88⅞@89¼c. A lot of long wheat came out during the first few minutes of trading and prices declined further, September selling off to 88½@88⅝c. On the break there was good buying by commission houses, resulting in an advance of about ½c. The demand was influenced to some extent by the bullish foreign crop news and by many complaints of rust from the American spring wheat country. Another reaction occurred on heavy seling of July, resulting from the announcement of estimated liberal receipts for tomorrow. Speculative trading also was affected by the weakness in the cash market here, all grades of cash wheat except contract grain which can be delivered in July sales, being down 2@4c. Late in the day the market for distant deliveries became firmer on reports of condition of the German crop showing considerable deterioration as a result of severe drought. Much of the earlier loss was regained, September closing at 89⅛c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 54,600 bushels. Primary receipts were 714,600 bushels, compared with 521,400 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 206 cars, against 225 cars last week and 191 cars a year ago.

Favorable crop reports and weakness of wheat were the main influences affecting the corn market. There was a fair trade between commission houses, with considerable selling on the part of one prominent concern. Pit traders were good buyers. September opened ¼@⅜c to ½c lower at 49⅜@49½c to 49⅝c, sold between 49¼ and 49⅝@49⅞c, and closed at 49⅝c. Local receipts were 216 cars, with 21 of contract grade.

Fine weather, reports of good crop prospects in Iowa and weakness of wheat caused considerable liquidation of oats. The selling of the July delivery was a feature. September opened ⅛@¼c lower, at 33⅛c to 33⅛@33¼c, sold down to 32⅞c and closed at 33@33⅛c. Local receipts were 99 cars.

Covering by shorts imparted a firm tone to the provision market, but trading was light at the close. September pork was up 7½@10c at $12 92½@12 95. Lard showed a gain of 7½c, closing at $6 97½. Ribs were up 5c at $7 55@7 57½.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow—Wheat, 115 cars; corn, 152 cars; oats, 95 cars; hogs, 9,000 head.

President Ramsey and Other Wabash Officials Confer on Freight Plans

Many matters of importance concerning the plans to be developed this summer and fall in the construction of freight terminals and facilities for the Wabash railroad in Pittsburgh are under discussion for final settlement. President Joseph Ramsey, Jr., of the Wabash; vice President J. W. Patterson of the Wabash Pittsburgh terminal, the chief engineer of the local projects; General Manager Robert Blickensderfer of the same line and other officials are taking part in the conference. Mr. Ramsey reached this city yesterday.

The main lines under consideration are the South Side branch, to extend from the north portal of the Mt. Washington tunnel up West Carson street to the Jones & Laughlin steel works; the Duquesne way line, the Saw Mill run line, by which the connection will be made with the Union railroad of the Carnegie Steel Company, and the proposed Allegheny terminals.

The Wabash interests are watching closely the developments in the threatened attack by Duquesne way property owners on the right of the Pennsylvania railroad to construct a line along that thoroughfare. As the Wabash line has precisely the same legal status as the Pennsylvania, authorized by a city ordinance, the developments in the case of the Pennsylvania will affect the Wabash in the same way.

The connection with the Union railroad is ready for the award of contracts and the starting of construction. The engineering work on this branch was done some time ago, and unless some unforeseen conditions had been met the work would have been well advanced at this time.

Mr. Ramsey expects to be here the rest of this week and by the time of his departure the decisions on the majority of the questions still unsettled are expected to be reached. He is greatly pleased with the patronage which is being given the new passenger service from Pittsburgh to St. Louis and other western points.

COKE SHOWS LARGEST LOSS.

Pennsylvania Railroad Coal and Coke Shipments Have Dropped 5 Per Cent.

The decrease of coal and coke tonnage on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh this year, as compared with last, is shown by the official figures to be much less than many have stated. It amounts to only about 5 per cent. In the year to July 23, 22,054,798 tons were shipped, while the year to July 25, 1903, showed 23,658,939.

It is noteworthy that the largest proportion of the decrease has been in coke. In anthracite shipments the decrease has been but 97,700 tons; in bituminous, 600,000 tons, while in coke the decrease has been 900,000 tons. The figures follow:

	1904. Week ending July 23.	1904. Year to July 23.	1903. Year to July 25.
Anthracite coal	99,162	2,494,806	2,592,519
Bituminous	533,648	14,851,469	15,455,022

GREAT SPEED RECORD.

Reading's Atlantic City Flyer Goes at 115 Mile Pace.

The Reading's No. 25, known as the "Atlantic City Flyer," made on Wednesday a record which probably eclipses all other short railroad runs of which there are authoritative speed records. It made the run from Camden to the station in Atlantic City, 55½ miles, in 43 minutes. This is at the rate of 77.4 miles an hour. To do this bursts of great speed were necessary and for 4.8 miles, between Egg Harbor and Brigantine Junction, the average rate was 115 miles an hour, or practically two miles a minute.

This train has been a noted record-maker since it was first put into service, July 1, 1898. In all that time it has reached its destination at the scheduled time, except only once, when it was two minutes late. It is very often ahead of the fast schedule which has been made for it. It is a five-car train, made up of a combination car, three coaches and a parlor car.

Insist on More Coach Excursions.

Independent action by the Wabash, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and a couple of other western railroads is assured in August in the Western Passenger association territory in the matter of coach excursions. Notice has been given of their intention to take individual action in making the coach-excursion rate every Tuesday and Thursday. Just what will be done in Pittsburgh in this matter has been discussed with considerable interest. At present the various lines are working under a temporary agreement by which each road will run, but three of the $12 coach excursions in August and the first part of September. Independent action here also may be taken later on when the big rush for the fair begins.

Great Nothern Opens New Short Cut.

ST. PAUL, July 28.—Within six days the Great Northern will abandon practically 100 miles of its present main line in Montana in favor of a new route covering the same distance, which strikes north from Columbia Falls to a junction with the Fernie (B. C.) branch at Rexford, thence back again over the Fernie branch to the main line at Jennings. The existing main line will become a branch to all intents and purposes, and 14 prosperous main line towns—Lasalle, Kalispell, Batavia, Sedan, Athens, Marion, Haskell Pass, Lucerne, Pleasant Valley, Lake View, Melbourne, Atlanta, Sterling and Fisher River—will be cut off from the principal channel of through business.

Rock Island Opens New Line.

General Agent D. H. Maloney of the Rock Island-Frisco system announces that that line will on August 1 open the Chicago & Eastern Illinois line for passenger and freight service between Chicago and St. Louis. This road was acquired by the 'Frisco shortly before the Rock Island took the whole 'Frisco system over. Some connections needed to amalgamate the road into the larger group are now completed.

Railroad Notes.

The Big Four system has adopted green as the standard color for its passenger cars and the change is now being made. This color is used also for the Great Northern.

George B. Staats, for nearly 20 years connected with the Pennsylvania lines west, and recently chief clerk of Superintendent M. W. Mansfield of the Indianapolis & Vincennes division, has resigned to enter the glass business at Elwood. Samuel Mansfield, a son of the superintendent, succeeds him.

Work is being rushed on the new Wabash line from Cumberland to Cherry Run. In an eight-mile stretch near Pawpaw alone 555 men are employed. The line is like that in Western Pennsylvania, a costly piece of construction, with many tunnels and bridges.

The Three Rivers

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—The stage of the river at 6 o'clock this evening marked 7.3 feet and falling, making a fall of .3 feet during the last 24 hours. The weather continues clear and pleasant, cooler. Today's packet departures were: Henry M. Stanley for Pomeroy, Courier for Maysville, Levi J. Workum, Madison; City of Louisville for Louisville. There were no towboat movements in the local harbor today. The Douglas Hall is due tomorrow from Kanawha with a tow of fuel flats. This is the only kind of craft which can be handled above here on the present stage of water. The Alice Brown is laid up waiting her turn to be pulled out on the ways for her annual overhauling. Captain W. H. Crump, one of the officers of the Monongahela Coal and Mining Company of Pittsburgh, was a visitor on 'change here today as the guest of Captain Charles J. Menges, superintendent of harbors for the company. There is sufficient water to navigate boats as far as Pomeroy. The Big Sandy Company today sent out the Tacoma for up-river points.

HUNTINGTON—River 8 feet 2 inches, falling. Ben Hur returned for Cincinnati, 3 p. m. Bonanza for Pomeroy tonight. Columbia for Charleston. Heavy rain in afternoon.

MARIETTA—River 4.3 feet, falling, cloudy, warm. Bessie Smith up, 6 a. m.

MORGANTOWN—River 6 feet and stationary. Weather cloudy.

OIL CITY—River 11 inches and falling. Weather cloudy and warm.

LOUISVILLE—River falling: 3.9 feet in canal; 1.7 feet on falls; 7.7 feet below locks. Fair.

WHEELING—River 3.8 feet, falling. Raining, cooler. Up, Greenwood and Lorena, Pittsburgh. Down, Bedford, Parkersburg.

PARKERSBURG—River 5.1 feet and slowly falling. Weather clear and warm. No boats arrived or departed today.

STEUBENVILLE—River 5 feet 3 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and warm.

WARREN—River five-tenths. Weather cooler and showery.

GREENSBORO—River 6 feet 6 inches and stationary. Weather showery and cooler. Columbia down Friday and Woodward up.

HARD TUGGING NOW.

Boats Have Trouble Getting Here from Below, but Are Coming.

Rivermen are still looking for rain in this territory. The rivers are falling rapidly, but packet man are optimistic and believe that water will still come in sufficient quantity to enable them to keep running in August. The Big Kanawha was due yesterday from Parkersburg, but up to last evening had not arrived. She was last heard from this side of East Liverpool. The boat has some of the Queen City's freight aboard and for this reason her trip is extraordinarily heavy.

The Greenwood passed Wheeling yesterday at 7 o'clock a. m., and the Lorena passed the same point at 2 a. m., both bound for Pittsburgh. They are the only boats that have ventured between here and Wheeling for some time, and their arrival today is being looked forward to anxiously, especially by those who have shipments routed that way. The Mayflower and Francis J. Torrance are still busy with excursions up-river, but the water is too low for trips below. The Columbia was in and out yesterday with a good trip of freight and big passenger lists.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 3.4 feet and the river was stationary.

Financial and Trade Notes.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Some comment was heard in the financial district today over the fact that the October semi-annual dividends on the Union Pacific stocks have not been declared. The executive committee of the company usually acts on the matter in July, but at the present time a majority of the executive committee is abroad. In well informed quarters no importance is attached to the omission of the dividend declarations. At the meeting which will probably be held in August it is expected that the regular 2 per cent will be declared on both the common and preferred shares.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Application has been made to the stock exchange to list $6,000,000 first mortgage 4 per cent bonds of 1943 of Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston Railway Company.

NEWARK, N. J., July 28.—Vice Chancellor Stevens today vacated the temporary injunction against the Standard Chair Company, a $3,000,000 corporation, formed under the laws of this state, and operating in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, which, since last May, has been restrained from a reduction of its capital stock to $1,500,000.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $1,281,335; government receipts from internal revenue, $705,010; customs, $979,445; miscellaneous, $185,443; expenditures, $1,590,000.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Bonds for the Cuban loan recently subscribed here are expected to be ready next week, at which time an installment of one-third of the loan will be payable to the Cuban representative here by Speyer & Co. The instalment will call for about $10,000,000, and representatives of the subscribing bankers express the belief that gold exports to Cuba of about half that amount will follow. The bankers are reticent as to the dates for payment of the rest of the loan, but they affirm that the operations will extend over a considerable period of time, and that counter operations in the meantime on commercial account will modify the requirement for gold in completing the remittance.

No Improvement in Showing of the Deep Sand District Wells

Light wells continue to be the rule in the lower southwest districts. There is no improvement in the showing made by the new developments in the deep sand districts in Harrison and Wetzel counties. It begins to look as though the end for any considerable amount of new production from that source is near at hand. On the east side of the Folsom district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its second test on the H. A. Parish farm into the Gordon 28 feet and the well produced 20 barrels the first 24 hours. In the same district No. 2, on the J. E. Copenhaver farm, is 55 feet in the stray sand and has developed no oil or gas.

The No. 10 on the G. W. Talkington farm has been drilled 50 feet into the stray above the Gordon and has no oil or gas. In the Salem district the South Penn Company has drilled No. 3 on the W. L. Steele farm through the Gordon and the hole has filled up 2,500 feet with fluid. The same company has drilled its No. 3 on the Phineas Clark farm through the Gordon and has a very light showing of oil. The same company has drilled its No. 6 on the A. J. Varner farm 7 feet into the Gordon and has a small show of oil. The second test on the Delia Williams farm is 35 feet in the stray sand and has a light showing of oil.

West of the Pine Grove in Green district, Wetzel county, the Hope Natural Gas Company has drilled its test on the Aaron Bassett farm into the Gordon and has developed a strong gas pressure. In the same district the same company has drilled its test on the J. B. Kennedy farm into the Big Injun and has a good gasser. In the Smithfield district the Philadelphia company has drilled its No. 6 on the Hoge-Robinson farm through the fifth sand and has a duster. In the Pine Grove extension the South Penn Oil Company has shot its test on the Joseph Horner farm and it is producing 15 barrels a day. This well was reported a duster a few days ago.

In the Littleton district, Wetzel county, the South Penn Company has drilled its No. 4 on the Patrick O'Dea farm into the Gordon and the hole has filled up 300 feet with fluid. It is still drilling and expects a second pay. In the Mannington district, Marion county, the South Penn Company has drilled its No. 6 on the Jacob Brumage farm into the Gordon 20 feet and the hole has filled up 2,000 feet with fluid. In the same district the Mannington & Logansport Oil Company has completed its No. 3 on the G. W. Beaty farm and has a 15-barrel pumper in the 30-foot sand.

In the same district the Freeland Oil Company is due in the sand at its test on the C. A. Prichard farm. The South Penn Oil Company has the rig completed for a second test on the E. W. Hamilton farm. The same company is due in the sand at its No. 3 on the John W. Grubb farm. In the eastern edge of Doddridge county the South Penn Oil Company, the Hope Natural Gas Company and Smith & Robinson are drilling test wells on the Horner-Yeater, R. N. Bunell and Smith-Robinson farms, respectively.

In the Big Lime district near Milton, Babell county, the Harshbarger Oil and Gas Company has given its test on the Kilgore heirs' farm a second shot, but did not help its production. The last day's gauge of the pool was 355 barrels.

South of Georgetown, Beaver county, the Crown Petroleum Company has completed its No. 3 on the F. S. Laughlin farm and has put it to pumping and it produced 45 barrels the first 24 hours. In the same district H. M. Stewart & Co. have drilled their test on the Thomas Blackmore farm through the Berea grit and have a duster. South of Burgettstown, Washington county, R. G. Gillespie has completed his No. 10 on the G. S. Pate farm and has a 5-barrel pumper. In the same district E. H. Jennings & Bros. have drilled their test on the S. S. Dunbar farm down to the 30-foot sand and found no oil or gas.

In the Mt. Morris district in Greene county Tim Ross & Co. have drilled their test on the Kate Lat farm through the Dunkard sand and have a duster in that formation. On the Ohio side, in the Graysville district, in Monroe county, F. P. Hue & Co. have completed their No. 6 on the Lucy A. Dillon farm and have a show for a 5-barrel pumper in the Keener sand. On Limestone run, near Dillonsville, Jefferson county, the Black Diamond Oil and Gas Company has completed and shot its second test on the David Fleming, Jr., farm and has a show for a 3-barrel pumper.

The best oil well struck in Butler county for several years was brought in Wednesday night by Young Bros. on the Huselton heirs' farm, four miles southwest of Butler. The oil is coming from the third sand. As soon as the bit struck the third sand the well began spraying oil and when five feet in the sand the well was flowing at the rate of five barrels an hour. Yesterday afternoon it was said to be still flowing at a rate close to 200 barrels a day. The strike is in old territory, several wells having been drilled on other parts of the Huselton farm 20 years ago during the Renfrew development. Young Bros. have made two more locations on the Huselton, while the Boyer Oil Company has located one well on an adjoining farm, and the Southern Oil Company is preparing to drill two wells on a nearby lease. Oil well rigs belonging to the Forest Oil Company on the Buhl, Ifft and Graham farms, north of Evans City, have been burned during the last two days. The belief is that the fires were of incendiary origin.

IMMIGRATION DECREASED; BETTER CLASS ARRIVING

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(Special.)—The June bulletin on immigration, issued today, shows 25,376 immigrants less than in June last year. The total immigration for June of this year was 73,445 and for June, 1903, 98,821.

The commissioner said: "I think it fair to infer that the decrease is attributable in large measure to an enforcement of the immigration laws. It is perhaps due largely to a more careful inspection on the part of steamship companies. The result from all causes has been that perhaps a better class has arrived and a very large number has been excluded."

HALL SYNDICATE WANTS BOULEVARD

New Move in the Old Fight for Charters and Franchises.

CLAIM GRANT IS ILLEGAL

The Hall syndicate, which tried ineffectually to obtain franchises for traction lines in Pittsburgh last winter, has again come forward by an application for a state charter to build a line along the boulevard.

It is claimed by the Hall people that the charter for this line secured for the so-called Verner syndicate, or the Philadelphia Company, is not a legal one. Therefore, they say, there is no interest at present authorized to build along the boulevard, and the Hall people have asked the state to grant them such a charter.

The claim of the illegality of the old charter is that the boulevard line authorized under it is to be built as an extension of the Grant and Liberty Street railway, a line chartered by Gov. Stone in October, 1902. This railway itself was never built, and therefore, it is claimed, to attempt to build a line as an extension of another line which itself was never built is absurd.

The matter has been handled with the customary secrecy in such cases, but the opposing interests discovered the plans of the Hall syndicate and made a move to block it by the filing of a protest at Harrisburg. The matter threatens to be fought out in the courts to a bitter finish.

The incorporators of the proposed Hall line are S. S. Leslie, Jr., Shirley P. Austin, W. H. Johnston, Joseph Carver and George W. Anderson. Several of these incorporators have acted in the same capacity before for the same syndicate and there is no attempt to deny that the Hall people are back of the new project.

Murry A. Verner of the Verner syndicate said yesterday he had heard of the application and had referred the matter to his attorneys.

It was stated yesterday by a representative of the Hall syndicate that if a charter were granted the new company would in return for a franchise from councils offer terms of the greatest fairness. It will be remembered that the Hall interests made offers of large compensation to the city last winter when seeking the other franchises.

It was rumored yesterday that after the first application was made for the new charter the application was withdrawn and an amended one substituted. A telegram to The Gazette from its Harrisburg correspondent last evening said that no charter had been issued as yet for the new line.

MAN UNDER INDICTMENT DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Turnkey Levy Took Cold and Succumbed Before He Could Be Tried.

Edward Levy, colored and aged 32, a turnkey at Central station, died last night at his home, 627 Watt street, from pneumonia. Levy, with Sergeant Thomas Sterck and Robert Smothers, was under indictment for the murder of William O'Donnell, who was found dead in his cell at the Central station November 1, 1903, and it is alleged his death was due to injuries inflicted by these officers while he was under their care at the station house. The trial was postponed yesterday until the September term of court.

Levy had been on the police force for about a year. He was appointed by Director Moore and was considered a careful officer. He had been working regularly until last week, when he was taken ill with a cold.

O'Donnell was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was arraigned for a hearing before Magistrate Stewart the next morning and was too intoxicated to be heard. The magistrate ordered him taken to his cell. On the way to the cell he struck Levy in the face. Levy did not return the blow, but threw O'Donnell on the floor. The prisoner was placed in his cell and at 6 o'clock that evening was found dead. A post mortem examination was held and it was found O'Donnell's skull was fractured. Coroner McGeary held an inquest of the case and the jury recommended the men be held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder. The case was taken to the grand jury, who returned the bill.

CHAUTAUQUA

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 28.—(Special.)—Heavy showers today were responsible for a rather lighter attendance than usual at the amphitheater, although the 5 o'clock lecture on "Education Through Doing," by Dr. Boone, was fairly well attended, as there was an interval between showers at that time.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley delivered his lecture this morning on "A Review of Paul's Journeys and Work." He also lectured this afternoon on "Lowell the Yankee Idyllist." It has not been generally known that Dr. Hulley is a poet, but to readers of his "Annie Laurie Love Lyrics" Dr. Hulley has shown a new and delightful view of his versatile talents.

Dr. Anna Brown spoke at the Woman's club on "Travelers' Aid Work" at St. Louis and gave useful hints which might prove invaluable in cases which may arise in any lone traveler's experience. Miss Wilson then gave a brief talk on the "Elements of Success in Young Women's Work."

The devotional hour was conducted by Dr. Homer J. Stuntz of Manila, P. I., who spoke on "Who Shall Go." That question was a very difficult one to decide, Dr. Stuntz admitted, but clearly showed the need of clear, vigorous thinkers and clever men to lead the mission work in the far east.

The newly-appointed bishop, W. F. Oldham, lectured on "The Greatest Need in Missions." He said if he had his way no man should enter the ministry until he had been in some other business, and he thought a book agent's employment was about the best to give training, for in that business a man learns to talk to the "maid in the kitchen as well as to the lady of the house," and the ability to deal with both classes is very essential to a minister.

E. G. Routzman gave a stereopticon lecture at the civic conference, and spoke on "The Before and After of Improvement Work." The Girls' club gave a reception this afternoon and exhibited the work which has been done during the past three weeks. An artist's recital was given this afternoon at which Dr. Dufft gave a varied program. Dr. J. A. Babbitt spoke at a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union on the "Restriction of Alcoholic Medication to Minors."

This evening Frank Beard gave one of his delightful chalk talks on "Chautauqua Reminiscences." Mr. Beard keeps his audience in excellent humor by his pleasantries, as well as entertains them with drawings which seem to appear by magic on the easel.

Paul Sidonis, aged 25, of Agnes street, Swissvale, wore a steel rivet in his left hand for about an hour yesterday as the result of a mishap at the plant of the McClintic-Marshall Construction Company. He was working on an automatic riveting machine and his hand was caught between the die and the rivet. The rivet was driven through the palm of his hand and the head was battered out to hold it in place. Cutting was required to remove the rivet. The bones of the hand were not injured, and while the puncture made an ugly wound, the injury is not serious.

SAVING MONEY IN BOND ISSUE

City Solicitor Drafts Ordinance to Sell Filtration Bonds as Money Is Needed.

CITY DEPOSITORIES LOSE BY IT

William B. Rodgers, city solicitor, denies that it would be impossible to issue bonds for the filtration system as they are needed, or that it would be necessary to sell in bulk the $5,000,000 worth of bonds. The ordinance for the sale of the bonds is in the hands of Director Bigelow, and it has been drafted by Mr. Rodgers so as to save the city many thousands of dollars in interest charges.

The ordinance provides that the bonds shall be sold as needed. This is the idea Mr. Rodgers had all along, and he only waited to satisfy himself of its perfect legality. It is the way insisted upon by Controller Larkin, who threatened to obstruct the sale of the bonds if the ordinance should provide that they all be sold at one time.

Rodgers and Larkin argued this way: Some years ago the city issued bonds for a filtration plant, and the $2,500,000 thus acquired has lain idle in the banks, the city paying 4 per cent, or $100,000, on the money and getting only 2 per cent, or $50,000, from the banks in which it is deposited—a loss of $10,000 annually. The building of the filtration plant now proposed will require several years. As the money is payable on engineers' estimates as the work progresses, it is evident that most of it will lie idle in the banks for years if it is all acquired at once from the sale of bonds.

The ordinance is almost in shape to be presented to councils, but before that is done it will be gone over by Controller Larkin, Mayor Hays and Director Bigelow. Better terms may be obtained if the bonds are awarded in bulk to one bidder, the buyer agreeing to accept them as the city needs the money.

In this way the city will save interest charges. If the bonds were awarded and sold in bulk, the first year's interest on $5,000,000 at 4 per cent would be $200,000 less $100,000 interest paid by city depositories. Under the plan provided by Mr. Rodgers, if, say, $1,000,000 only were needed the first year, the interest on $4,000,000, or $160,000, less city depositories' 2 per cent, $80,000, would be saved. If there should be delay in the building of the filtration plant because of strikes or inability to procure material money would not be needed and the city would save interest charges.

While the administration will further the passage of the ordinance through councils, it is declared that its only reason for doing so is because the ordinance will simplify the letting of the contract. The administration wants to let the contract before Mayor Hays' term expires, in 1906. If it incurred the controller's opposition by insisting on selling the bonds in bulk, so much delay would be caused that the letting of the contract might be postponed for a year or more.

MACHINE GLASS WORKERS ORDERED TO QUIT TODAY

Will Not Be Allowed Hard-Blown Work if They Refuse.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., July 28.—"If the men employed in the six machine factories of the American Window Glass Company do not stop work by tomorrow, they will not be permitted to work in the hand-blown factories when they open up in the fall."

This statement was made today by President Phillips of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America.

At the recent convention of the glass workers an ultimatum was delivered to the men. The time limit on this expires tomorrow, but the factories are still operating.

The glass manufacturers will meet in Cleveland August 17 to perfect their organization. After this meeting the wage committee of the glass workers will meet a committee from the manufacturers to formulate a new wage scale for the ensuing year.

ARRANGING PARADE.

Each Local Given a Number and Must Line Up Accordingly.

The executive committee of the Labor day demonstration met yesterday with Chief Marshal Frank Curran and Adjt.-Gen. Joseph Ward to consider the assignment of the locals for the parade. Each union will be given a number and they will be expected to fall in line in numerical rotation. They will also be notified to assemble at certain points.

JOSEPH WARD,
Adjutant General of Labor Day Parade.

The badge committee is meeting daily, and every night is dividing into committees of twos and visiting local unions in the district. The committee expects to appear personally before all locals within the next two weeks and ascertain the number of members that will turn out. This is being done so that the committee will not purchase more badges than are required.

SCHAFFER CAME BACK.

Youthful Bridegroom of Allegheny Turns Up and Explains Strange Disappearance.

The mystery of the disappearance of Charles Schaffer, aged 17, who has been missing from Allegheny since May 23, has been cleared up by the return of the youth. He eloped to Youngstown on May 21 last with Miss Frances Hulings, daughter of Capt. Harry Hulings of 609 Ridge avenue, Allegheny. The girl is of the same age as her husband.

The latter was received into the bosom of the Hulings family when the young couple returned, but on going to his home at 21 Montgomery avenue he encountered opposition to his marriage on the part of his parents. After remaining in Allegheny two days the boy disappeared, and the Hulings family requested the aid of the police to locate him. In this they were unsuccessful.

Schaffer says he has been on a farm in Indiana county and that his stay there was guarded by a man engaged for the purpose of preventing him from getting away. This story his mother denies, and declares the lad went away of his own volition. He is living with his wife's family at present.

PENNYPACKER TO MAKE ADDRESS

Will Be Chief Speaker on Pennsylvania's Day at the World's Fair.

FALLS ON HISTORIC DATE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., July 28.

Gov. Pennypacker today accepted an invitation from the Pennsylvania commission to the Louisiana Purchase exposition to make the principal address at the ceremonies attending the observance of Pennsylvania day at the world's fair. Speaker Henry F. Walton, chairman of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania commission, this evening returned from Gettysburg, where he went to confer with Gov. Pennypacker regarding the arrangements for Pennsylvania day and to extend to him the invitation from the commission to make the address.

Pennsylvania day, Saturday, August 20 next, is the anniversary of the battle of Fallen Timbers, when Gen. "Mad" Anthony Wayne, a Pennsylvanian, then commander-in-chief of the United States army, achieved a great victory over the Indians of the west, and made the settlement of that part of the country and the subsequent Louisiana purchase possible. The national character of the event which it is proposed to celebrate has led to a suggestion that the federal government should be represented in the ceremonies, and it is possible that Secretary of the Navy Morton and Secretary of War Taft will order details of the naval and army forces stationed at St. Louis to take part in the parade, which will be one of the attractions of the occasion.

The First troop, Philadelphia City cavalry, Capt. John C. Groome commanding, will act as an escort to Gov. Pennypacker. This command, with its organization dating before the revolution, and with its unique and striking uniforms and splendid equipment, will be a feature of the parade.

Col. James H. Lambert, executive officer of the Pennsylvania commission, today received a letter from President David R. Francis of the exposition company, in which he said among other things:

"Pennsylvania has a building and a list of exhibits of which any state or nation might well feel proud. I refer particularly to your exhibits in the palaces of education, mines and metallurgy and agriculture. The Pennsylvania building is one of the handsomest club houses on the grounds, and as the temporary resting place of the Liberty bell has proved to be one of the leading sources of attraction."

It is understood that President Francis will have the entire command of the Jefferson guards out as an escort to the Pennsylvanians on their arrival at the exposition gates. Dr. William P. Wilson, a Pennsylvanian who has charge of the Filipino exhibit, has expressed a desire to have the Filipino band of 80 pieces in line at the head of the battalion of the Filipino constabulary on Pennsylvania day. The Pennsylvania Society in St. Louis will participate in a body.

CAN LIVE IN A HOTEL AT MODEST OUTLAY

L. T. Yoder Takes Out Permit for Fireproof "Mills" Hotel in Forbes Street.

The plans for the "Mills" hotel, to be erected in Forbes street, near Magee, were filed yesterday by L. T. Yoder, the projector, and a permit was issued. Travelers on the Forbes street traction cars have seen the excavation, which has been digging for some weeks. It is nearly opposite the excavation for the new Shanahan storage warehouse.

In talking about the hotel people have called it the "Mills" hotel, but Mr. Yoder's hostelry will be far superior to the two which D. O. Mills has built in New York. Mills' hotels are on the "cheap" order. There is a common washroom on each floor, but there are no washstands in the rooms. The partitions in Mills' hotels are of wood and do not run clear up to the ceiling, a wire netting being stretched across the partitions, to prevent one boarder from "hooking" clothes and effects belonging to other boarders. Yoder's boarders will have a real ceiling over their heads.

The Yoder hotel is designed as a home for young men who receive moderate wages. They will have all the comforts at a reasonable price, and meals at low prices will be furnished in the cafe. The building will cost $95,000. It will be six stories high, 64x132 feet in area, of modern steel and concrete fire proof construction. D. O. Mills' two hotels have been paying 6 per cent on the investment right along, and if Mr. Yoder finds that his house is appreciated he will add other stories to it. The furnishings will cost the same as the building.

The bureau of building inspection also issued a permit for a two-story brick dwelling to cost $12,500. It will be built by E. M. West at Sheridan and Wellesley avenues.

WILL NOT GUARANTEE PROTECTION TO EXILES

So Sheriff Bell Writes to Deported Miners Who Desire to Return.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRIPPLE CREEK, COL., July 28.—Sheriff Edward Bell will not guarantee protection to any person who has been driven from this district because of his alliance or sympathy with the Western Federation of Miners. He made this plain today, when he received a message from Patrick Carvel, one of the many deported after the Independence depot dynamite outrage. Carvel, at Colorado City, notified Sheriff Bell that he wished to resume his residence here, and would do so if the authorities would guarantee to protect him from violence.

Sheriff Bell not only informed Carvel that he would not guarantee to protect him from harm, but strongly advised him never to return to the district.

Joseph Fisher and John Miller, two strike breakers, who were driven out of Hollywood on Tuesday night by a mob, returned to Victor today and announced they would stay this time and would defend their rights with revolvers if necessary.

Millionaire Benson Is Discharged.

NEW YORK, July 28.—John A. Benson, the California millionaire, who was under indictment in Washington on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States by the acquisition of school lands known as forest reserve lieu lands, was discharged in the United States circuit court here today.
